Gleams from the Conference of Last Year

I shall never cease thanking God for leading me to the Taylor Youth Conference two years ago. I was gloriously converted and received my call to the ministry. Although I strayed from Him, he marvelously opened the way for me to come to school where I again found Him in a new way. My sister was here last year and reported the same power of spiritual uplifting. Praise God! for introducing Youth Conference to Taylor's Campus.

Robert M. Hollingsworth

What did the Youth's Conferences mean to me? In 1934 I felt the thrill of the abiding presence of Jesus Christ, and was able to come into a new relationship with Him; while in the 1935 Conference the same relationship was strengthened and deepened. I am very thankful for those conferences.

Thelma Sharp

Reports of victory in the hearts of young people is the thing in which we are interested. We are not trying to start a new organization, but we do want to help young people to get their faith established and to back them to the limit in the program of their own church.

Limitations — Due to the limited facilities, the number in attendance at the Conference must be limited to five hundred. The first ones to mail their registration blanks with twenty-five cents will be assured of a place. The age qualification is fifteen years of age or over. Also chaperonage is being requested for every group of ten or less.
