Youth Conference Speakers

Rev. Q. J. Everest

We are indeed happy to have Rev. Everest with us this year. The Lord has blessed his ministry in the Gospel Center at South Bend, Indiana, and also on his radio program, "Your Worship Hour". We are assured that he has a real message of Christ for youth.

Rev. Ivan Allbutt

Rev. Allbutt is well qualified to speak to us about missions, for he has spent a number of years in the province of Kweichow, China, laboring among the aboriginal tribes there. He is the editor of the North America edition of "China's Millions", which has its headquarters in Philadelphia, Pa. As he presents the need of world wide missions, let us allow God to open our eyes and our hearts.

Robert G. LeTourneau

Mr. LeTourneau is an outstanding manufacturer whose testimony has been a blessing to thousands. He operates several factories in the United States and one in Australia. His book, God Runs My Business, tells how the Lord blessed his business when he took Him as his partner.

Rev. Malcom Cronk

As evangelist for the fall revivals at Taylor Rev. Cronk became a firm friend of all the students, not only because of his friendliness, but because of the heart searching quality of his messages. He is pastor of Calvary Church of Grand Rapids, Michigan and one of the directors of the "Children's Bible Hour" radio program.

Sunrise Speakers

Rev. William Meadows is pastor of the Methodist Church of Athens, Michigan. Rev. Robert D. Wilburn has served as chaplain in the United States Army during the past war. Both young men are former students of Taylor.

NOTES

CONFERENCE CHORUS

That I may know Him

Yes, that is all.

Might feel His presence,

Might heed his call.

My one desire

My greatest gain—

That I may know Him.

That I may know Him.

That I may know Him.
