Interactive and spontaneous, Playback Theatre bases its material on the stories of the community. Performances are carried out by a team of actors, an emcee (called the conductor), and a musician. During a performance, audience members respond to questions from the conductor and share their stories, then watch as the company immediately “plays back” their words as a theatrical moment. Although performances often focus on a theme of interest or concern, the performers follow no narrative agenda. Instead, they simply rely on their dramatic skills and humanity to embody the concerns and experiences of audience members. Playback is an opportunity for stories to be heard and acknowledged in a meaningful way. In every occasion, central to our theatre experience is our faith in Jesus Christ and applying the truth of Scripture to the reality of the everyday stories presented throughout the evening.
