Youth Conference
April 17-19, 1964

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the administration, faculty, staff, and student body of Taylor University, we are happy to invite you to Youth Conference 1964. We are anticipating your arrival and trust that you will have a pleasant visit and be challenged spiritually.

"He Giveth More" is the theme we have selected for our Conference this year. Today, much emphasis is placed on the material values of wealth and prestige. These are not evil in themselves; if they become perverted, however, they will aid in damaging the lives of numerous individuals. Christ emphasizes within mankind divine love, peace, joy, and hope. When we have compared the material pleasures with what Christ offers, our sense of values recognizes "He Giveth More." Knowing Him and receiving His bountiful gifts fulfills all of our needs.

It is our sincere desire that through the 1964 Youth Conference we will be reminded anew that if we "Delight ourselves in the Lord, he shall give us the desires of our hearts."

Sincerely,

Stan Guillaume

SPEAKER

REV. DENNIS KINLAW

Rev. Dennis Kinlaw, Associate Professor of Old Testament at Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky, will be speaking for the Youth Conference of 1964.

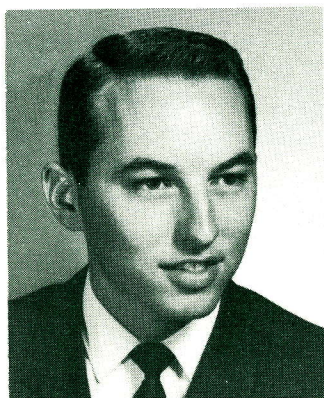

Rev. Kinlaw comes from a background of many experiences in various parts of the world. He was graduated from Asbury College in 1943 with the A. B. degree and from Asbury Theological Seminary three years later with the B. D. degree. Rev. Kinlaw has done further graduate study at Princeton Theological Seminary, New College of Edinburgh University, Scotland, and Brandeis University. He received his Master of Arts degree from Brandeis University and has completed his residence requirements for the Ph. D. degree in Mediterranean Studies at the same university.

Before going to Asbury Theological Seminary as Associate Professor of Old Testament, Rev. Kinlaw served pastorates in Indiana, Vermont, North Carolina, and New York as an ordained Methodist minister. He also has served as a visiting professor to the Seoul Theological College in Seoul, Korea.

CO-CHAIRMAN - STAN GUILLAUME

I consider it a real privilege to share with others what Christ has done for me as my Lord and Savior. He has been the most wonderful friend that I could ever have. He has proven to me that His strength is sufficient in all areas of my life. Christ's promise that He would never leave me nor forsake me has been extremely comforting to me when problems have confronted me. I have found Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you," to be the guide of my life.

I can sincerely reiterate what Paul said in Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth."

SPEAKER

MR. DON MCFARLAND

Mr. Don McFarland, a field director for The Pocket Testament League, will also be speaking for the Youth Conference of 1964. Mr. McFarland is a graduate of Taylor University in the class of 1953.

His work during the past nine years with the Pocket Testament League has carried him to over twenty countries of the world including fifteen African countries in addition to Germany, Finland, Peru, Bolivia, and Chile. Both he and his wife give six months of the year to the ministry of college students in the United States and the other six months to the Pocket Testament League teams overseas in the ministry of Scripture distribution and evangelism.

Before going to the staff of the Pocket Testament League, Mr. McFarland worked for two years with the staff of the High School Evangelism Fellowship (Hi-N. A.). During his two years with this organization he worked with groups in New Jersey and Brooklyn, New York.

CO-CHAIRMAN - MARCELLA MINKS

"He Giveth More" has been one of the principle themes in my home. Through the consistency of Christian living and instruction, my parents have helped prove to me the abundance of life in Christ.

Although this truth was recognized during childhood, I could not fully comprehend it just because my parents knew and taught their children it was true. I knew "He Giveth More" only after I came to know Him.

To know Him required within me the realization that I am a sinner; the sinful life is total darkness; I needed to be saved from it; and Jesus was given to me by His Father to provide my only means of salvation.

My early teenage years brought this realization. The gifts of the material world were not satisfying. There was no assurance, no tranquility, no purpose.

I found all of these necessities of happiness through knowing Jesus personally, not just knowing about Him. I am now delighting in the Lord, for He has given me more than the desires of my heart

"HE GIVETH MORE"

Psalms 37:4 states, "Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart." This year the theme, "He Giveth More," is concerned with the gift of God in dealing with the desires of men.

Today man is searching for something that will give his life meaning and direction. The desire of his heart is to become a person with a satisfying relationship within himself and with the environment around him. Every man has a longing to be known as an individual even though every man's desires may vary one from another.

God has promised to give His people the desires of their hearts. In coming to the cross of Christ, man's desires for spiritual things are filled; he is given many of his material desires; and he also is promised an eternal life. Through this theme of Youth Conference the promise of Jesus Christ is that He does give more than the material things of life.

REGISTRATION: We have facilities for 700 guests, including teen-agers who range from high school freshmen through young people 23 years old and sponsors who are exempt from the age limitation. When our quota of 700 is reached, we will be compelled to refuse further applications. ALL REGISTRATIONS MUST BE POSTMARKED NO LATER THAN MARCH 28. There will be NO refunds on accepted registrations. If your registration blank is NOT returned to you, you have been accepted.

IMPORTANT: You must register BEFORE 11:00 p.m. Friday evening. The registration line will close at this hour and will re-open at 6:00 Saturday morning. Also there will be NO accommodation facilities available if you are NOT registered before coming.

TEEN TALENT TIME: The music co-chairmen, Elaine Miller and Tony Ladd, have announced a special youth talent audition to be held Saturday, April 18. Two youths will be chosen and will participate in one of the Youth Conference services.

WHAT TO BRING: Since this is your Youth Conference, we want you to be comfortable. Bring clothes you'll feel comfortable in--both in the services and in informal social situations. Remember, you are here only two days.

BEDDING: Mattresses will be furnished. The rest of the bedding is your responsibility.

MEAL POLICY: The Friday evening meal is NOT included on the meal ticket. The ticket provides five consecutive meals beginning with Saturday morning and concluding with Sunday noon. Meals will be served on schedule.
