PAUL PATTERSON

Patterson ended a Hall-of-Fame 34-year career on the bench with Taylor after the 2012-2013 season, retiring with 734 wins and a .662 winning percentage. During his record-setting career from 1979 through 2013, Patterson guided the Trojans to 15 league championships, 14 trips to the NAIA National Tournament, a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and one NAIA Final Four.

Along the way, Patterson's teams posted 28 winning seasons, won at least 20 games in 23-of-34 campaigns and registered 10-straight years with 25-or-more victories from 1984 through 1994.

As the wins piled up, the honors rolled with Patterson netting 12 Coach-of-the-Year honors including being touted as the NAIA National Coach of the Year in 1991. Patterson also earned a spot in the Hall of Fames for the NAIA, Taylor University, Hanover College, Indiana Basketball, Grant County and Hammond Sports.

At the close of his career, Patterson ranked second in wins among all active NAIA Division II men's basketball head coaches, 11th among all men's basketball collegiate coaches on any level and tops among all collegiate men's basketball coaches in the state of Indiana.

Patterson coached 24 individuals to NAIA All-American honors and saw each student-athlete who played four seasons for him at TU go on to earn a collegiate degree.

Patterson and his wife, Phyllis, have two children, a son, Shannon '96, and a daughter and son-in-law, Michelle (Patterson '92) and Chris Bombei '92, and two granddaughters.
