CREED

The Fort Wayne Bible College is definitely committed to the conservative and evangelical interpretation of the Christian faith:

The divine inspiration and consequent authority of the whole canonical Scriptures.

The Trinity of the Godhead—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The fall of man, his consequent moral depravity, and the need of regeneration.

The incarnation of Jesus Christ to reveal the Father and to make atonement for the sins of the whole world through His substitutionary death.

Personal salvation by repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ.

The baptism with the Holy Spirit as a definite, crisis experience subsequent to conversion for purity in life and power in service.

The personal, premillennial return of Jesus Christ our Lord.

The resurrection of the body, both of the just and the unjust.

The eternal life of the saved and the eternal punishment of the lost.

While the Bible College stands firmly for these truths, it considers the spirit of equal importance to the letter. It lays as much stress on the Christian character of the messenger as upon the orthodox correctness of his message. These fundamentals are held to be essential:

Wholehearted love toward God and man.

Christian fellowship among believers.

Scriptural separation from the world.

Victory through the indwelling Christ.

Unswerving loyalty to Christ as Lord.

Consecration for rugged, sacrificial service.

The leadership of the Holy Spirit for the believer and the church.

A living, working faith in the promises of God for spiritual, physical, and temporal needs.

Zealous witnessing for Christ.
General Information

FOREWORD

Fort Wayne Bible College was established in 1904 to train men and women for Christian service. It was born of the vision and conviction that the supreme mission of the church is world evangelism according to the command of Christ. The school continues to be committed to that mission and its principle objective is to provide thorough training for the various ministries of the church in its world-wide mission. It is convinced that the great need of this period of spiritual crisis is adequately trained men who are filled with the Spirit, motivated by divine love, ready for sacrificial service and imbued by faith and vision.

The College is sponsored by the Missionary Church Association but it is operated as an interdenominational school; several societies are officially represented on the Governing Board and students come from more than twenty-five denominations.

The School operates on the college level and is accredited in the collegiate division of the Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges. Accordingly, graduation from high school is required for admission to the regular courses. Students from liberal arts colleges, both undergraduates and graduates, frequently come to the College to take advantage of the wide range of Bible studies and the opportunities of practical training. They are given advanced standing on the basis of transferrable credits. A small number of non-high school graduates are admitted to the Christian Worker’s Course, but admission is generally limited to older students who have not had the opportunity of a high school education.

Location

The city of Fort Wayne is near the center of the Middle West, with the larger cities of Chicago, Detroit, Toledo, Cincinnati, Columbus, and Indianapolis all less than two hundred miles distant. In an exclusive residential district in the southwest part of the city is the spacious Bible College campus. Removed from the noise and the soot of industrial sections, it furnishes an ideal environment for school life. Its stately oaks and trees that survive from virgin forest add beauty and charm to a spot that is sacred ground to many an alumnus.

School Plant

The school plant, valued at more than a half million dollars, is modern and adequate. Six major buildings occupy the main campus. The first unit, now used as a men’s dormitory, was built in 1904 and modernized in 1937. Bethany Hall, the central building was constructed in 1929-30. The annex, an apartment, was added in 1937. Founders’ Memorial, a spacious school building that has acoustically built practice rooms and studios, a chapel seating 500 a gymnasium, class rooms and dining department, was erected in 1941-42. Providence Hall, a women’s dormitory, was built in 1945. The latest addition is Residence Hall, a fine apartment that also houses the school dispensary. Rounding out the facilities of the school is the new south campus, a fourteen-acre tract now used for recreation purposes.

Library - - -

The Library occupies a well-lighted wing and is organized according to modern library principles for study and research. Volumes are most numerous in the fields of theology, Biblical literature, Christian education, and missions. A department of audio-visual materials is now being added. A branch of the Fort Wayne Public Library located only one block from the College, as well as the main library in the downtown area, is used by students.

Audio-Visual Aids - - -

An audio-visual aid department, supervised by a faculty committee, has been established to provide and to make use of audio-visual materials. A division of the library handles materials owned by the College and provides information regarding services by the recognized audio-visual aid centers. The College has standard equipment such as 16mm. sound projector, an Illustrovox, projectors for film strip and slides, phonographs for the music and language departments, and a Magnecord tape recorder.

Radio - - -

Recognizing the importance of radio as a means for Christian service, the College provides students an opportunity to receive practical training in accepted radio programming procedures. Primary outlet is “Sunrise Chapel”, broadcast each weekday over one of Fort Wayne’s radio stations, and also released over one or two other stations by transcription. Portions of “The Messiah” and programs by the A Cappella Choir are also broadcast. A course in radio broadcasting, designed to present radio on the professional level with emphasis on Christian programming, is offered in the college curriculum.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Course instruction has a threefold content and purpose: First, general education to orientate the student in the field of thought and to lead him to appreciate his cultural heritage; second, intensive Bible study both to acquaint him with the Christian message and to enrich his spiritual life; third, applied work through which skills are developed for Christian work.

General education is given a larger place in the four- and five-year programs leading to degrees than in the diploma courses. Integrated with theological studies are liberal arts courses that approximate the basic courses in the junior college. College English, literature, language study, history, science, and introductory courses in psychology, sociology, and philosophy are offered.
The field of concentration in all courses, except music, is Bible, and in the music courses Bible is a major. Study begins with survey courses and progresses to book expositions. For the most part the direct method of Bible study is followed. The task of the instructor is conceived to be that of leading the student into an apprehension of the truth rather than confirming him in a special point of view or in a particular school of theology. In the direct method the student himself is placed in the center of the educative process and is taught to search for facts, to perceive relationships, and to draw warranted inferences. The aim of such study is to develop ability to discover and to interpret the concepts of the Word of God; to enrich life through a personal and growing experience of God's love and grace, and to establish habits and techniques of study that will be useful through life.

Applied courses are given in the fields of pastoral work, missions, Christian education, and sacred music. Generally these fields of study constitute a minor, but in the Bachelor of Religious Education Course and in all courses in the School of Music the special field is a major.

Coupled with applied courses is a program of practical Christian service under supervision of the faculty. It is just as important to the Christian worker as the laboratory is to the scientist. Besides providing invaluable experience in Christian work it is an expressional activity that complements formal classroom instruction. Specific assignments in practical work are made beginning in the student's second year, in accordance with his training, aptitudes, and needs. The satisfactory completion of an assignment for one semester is considered one unit of practical work credit. For graduation from a three-year course, a student must have three credits; from a four-year course, five.

The Fort Wayne area offers many opportunities for gospel ministries. Among these are Sunday school and child evangelism classes, street meetings, tract distribution and personal evangelism, home and hospital visitation, gospel team work, evangelistic and pastoral work.

Since adequate preparation includes Christian character and enduement, the training program embraces much more than formal instruction. The whole of school life—devotional exercises, household duties, social life, recreation—is included, so that the "man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work." The varied phases of school life and all student activities, including intramural athletics, are meant to contribute to the enrichment of life and the building of character.

Devotional Culture

Since education of the heart goes hand in hand with the education of the mind, the College provides time for devotional culture. Its aim is to make the school a home with such a spiritual atmosphere that habits of prayer and meditation will be formed. The day is begun with "quiet hour," a period of private devotion before breakfast. All classes are opened by prayer. The morning daily chapel service provides an interim for inspiration and worship.
At five o'clock, students meet for a half hour of missionary intercession. Following the evening meal, worship is conducted, in which opportunity is frequently given for praise and testimony. The half day which is set aside each month for prayer has proved invaluable in heart searching, cleansing, and intercession.

Social Life

The many opportunities of fellowship are used for the enrichment of Christian personality in an atmosphere of refinement and spirituality. Apart from the ordinary associations of dormitory life there are events in which the entire school participates—occasional receptions, outings, and special services. Co-education in the College is meant to promote wholesome relationships and Christian culture.

Manual Work

Valuable training also is afforded in the household work performed by students. Boarding students are responsible for the care of their rooms, and most students do some kind of work to help defray expenses. All such work is supervised and is a part of the training program. It gives opportunity for training in dependability, industry, co-operation, and courtesy. In the care of their rooms, students are rated on cleanliness, tidiness, pleasing arrangements, and assumption of responsibility.

Physical Fitness

To round out training for body, soul, and spirit, attention is given to physical fitness. Students are to spend one period each day in either outdoor or indoor recreation. Besides the gymnasium, a recreation room is provided. In the first two years students are enrolled in physical education classes that meet twice weekly and for which a total of four semester hours of credit is given. Exemptions are made only to students who submit a physician's statement of ill health or incapacity.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

Students' Mission Band

The Students' Mission Band is an aggressive missionary society organized for the purpose of creating and stimulating interest in world-wide evangelism. Under student leadership, it meets each Friday evening for a public service, with missionaries from various parts of the world addressing these meetings. The Society also conducts daily prayer meetings with a weekly schedule of prayer including every mission field. The Mission Band has for many years given the full financial support for a missionary on the field. At present Miss Florence Cavender of Columbia, South America, and Rev. Joseph Shisler, missionary to Sierra Leone, Africa are being supported.
School Publications - - -

Students have opportunity to exercise journalistic abilities in the publication of the Bible College annual, The Light Tower, and the newspaper of the school, The Campus Echo. A monthly magazine, Bible Vision, is also published by the College.

Annual Youth Conference - - -

Each year the students of the Bible College sponsor a fall Conference for the youth of this region, irrespective of denominational affiliation. Designed to relate young people to Christ in salvation, sanctification, and service, the Conference is planned by a committee of students, who secure outstanding youth speakers, missionaries, and musicians for the program.

Choir Tours - - -

Each year during the second semester the A Cappella Choir makes a tour to various parts of the Mid-west and East. The programs are distinctly spiritual and aim at glorifying God by presenting the gospel in song.

Camera Club - - -

A camera club functions for the purpose of familiarizing students with techniques of photography and modern projection and photographic equipment. Membership is especially for students such as missionary candidates who may use photography in Christian work. The center of activities of the camera club is the "dark room," where films are processed.

Wiswell Speech Award - - -

Students enrolled in public speaking may compete for awards, totaling $50.00, presented each year by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wiswell. The contest is a public event, and is held during commencement week.

STANDARDS OF ADMISSION

Christian Character - - -

It is assumed that young people who come to the College are definitely committed to God's will for their lives and have a set purpose to prepare themselves to serve Christ. That the applicant should have a humble and earnest desire for truth is of first importance to any academic achievement.

Admission to the College is to be considered a privilege, not a right. The College may therefore ask a student who proves unworthy to withdraw at any time.

Academic Preparation - - -

Students coming to Bible College directly from high school are at an advantage if they have pursued a college preparatory course. Literary studies are generally of more value than technical or vocational courses. However, some commercial work, particularly typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand, are valuable.
The student should have a good foundation in English, particularly in the mechanics of the language. Four years of other language study are recommended, two in Latin and two in a modern language, i.e., German, French, or Spanish. World History is invaluable as a background for Bible study.

All high school graduates are required to take a comprehensive entrance examination in English. Those who do not pass are required to take English 001 without credit in the standard three- and four-year Courses.

Application for Admission

The first step in seeking admission is to make formal application. A form for this purpose is available. (See last page of catalog.) After mailing or presenting it to the Registrar, the applicant should wait for notification of acceptance. The student must receive a favorable reply before coming to the College.

Accepted applicants are advised to enter the school at the opening of a semester, preferably the first. It is a distinct advantage to begin studies with the first session of classes. No enrollments are made after the first three weeks of a semester.

Presentation of Credits

Students are required to have official transcripts of all credits earned in high school and in any schools of higher learning sent to the Registrar at time of application. No application is passed upon until such transcripts are received. Transcripts become the property of the College.

Training of Veterans

Fort Wayne Bible College is approved by the State Department of Education to train veterans of World War II under the provisions of Public Laws 16 and 346 (G. I. Bill). After July 25, 1951, no veteran discharged from military service prior to July 25, 1947, may begin a course of study under the G. I. Bill. The latest, therefore, that he may start his training program is in the Summer Session that the College is conducting June 11 to July 20, 1951.

Veterans in training must continue their education without interruption until it is completed. Transfer from another school may in some instances be permitted, but the student must first get the approval of the Veterans Administration, and the proper Supplemental Certificate.

Veterans must maintain the required standards of scholarship in order to continue their education.

SCHOLARSHIP STANDARDS

Student Load

The normal student load is fifteen or sixteen hours per week. During the first year the maximum load is seventeen hours; after that, eighteen hours.
A student should be able to carry a normal number of hours under ordinary conditions. A minimum load of twelve hours is required of dormitory students.

Any student in order to continue in the College must make passing grades in at least two-thirds of his subjects in any semester. The faculty may waive these requirements if reasonable cause for failure exists.

Grading Symbols - - -

A, 100-95—Superior scholarship.
B, 94-88—Above average.
C, 87-80—Average.
F, Below 70—Failure.
I, Denotes incomplete work for which faculty authorization has been given.

Point System - - -

As a qualitative index of credit the following point system is used:

3 points for each hour of A grade work.
2 points for each hour of B grade work.
1 point for each hour of C grade work.
0 point for each hour of D grade work.
-1 point for each hour of F grade work.

An average of one point for each semester hour of credit is required for graduation.

Seniors - - -

In order to qualify as a senior, a student must have a scholarship index of not less than 1 at the start of his final year. Any senior whose index drops below 1 during the first semester of the last year will not be recommended for graduation.

Graduation - - -

To qualify for a degree or a diploma, a student must do at least one year of residence work in Fort Wayne Bible College, and must complete here the final twelve semester hours of work.
The College of Bible is designed to furnish courses of study on the college level aimed at preparing the student for all phases of full-time Christian work. Both degree and diploma courses are open to those who are graduates from an accredited high school. A three-year Academic Christian Worker's Course is offered for a limited number of non-high school graduates who are beyond high school age and who wish to avail themselves of the advantages for training in the Bible College. Special courses may be arranged for those who do not wish to work toward graduation, but who desire subjects and training in keeping with special abilities and needs.

The first year in all Courses is uniform, making it possible for students to make the final selection of their course at the beginning of the second year.

The B.R.E. Course and the diploma courses with a minor in Christian Education meet the requirements of the Evangelical Teacher Training Association of which Fort Wayne Bible College is a member. Graduates in these courses obtain a diploma from the E.T.T.A., and are thereby authorized to teach the Preliminary Training Course of the Association.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN BIBLE

The course leading to the Bachelor of Arts in Bible degree constitutes a four-year program of study. The degree is granted upon the satisfactory completion of 126 hours of work. The major field of study is in Bible and Theology; 30 hours in Bible and 10 hours in Biblical Theology are required. Greek exegesis, 3 hours in each semester of second year Greek, will count toward meeting the major in Bible. The student is also required to work out through electives a minor of at least 15 hours in a field of his own choosing.

Bachelor of Theology

The Bachelor of Theology Course constitutes a five-year program including three years of theological and Bible study integrated with approximately 60 hours of general education. The entire five years may be taken in Fort Wayne Bible College. Those coming to the College with a background of two years or more of general education taken in an accredited college or university may complete the work for the degree in three years.

The Bachelor of Theology degree is granted upon satisfactory completion of 158 hours of work. The major is Bible and Theology. Forty hours in Bible, including 6 hours of Greek exegesis, plus 10 hours of Theology are required. The student is also required to work out a minor of at least 15 hours in Practical Theology.

*Missions Minors must elect first year language or course in linguistics.

The fields in which the minor may be chosen and the requirements in each are as follows:

Practical Theology. The required courses in the field of the minor are Public Speaking, Homiletics, and Expository Preaching.

Missions. The required courses in the field are Christian Biography, History of Missions, Missionary Principles and Practices, and one year of foreign language or one year of linguistics. Any who qualify by examination may enter Conversational Spanish or French in lieu of the first year language study. Public Speaking counts toward the minor in Missions in the Standard Bible Course only.
Christian Education. The minor in Christian Education is exclusive of Personal Evangelism and includes required courses in Principles and Methods and Practice Teaching.

Sacred Music. The minor in Music is exclusive of Music 171. The required courses include Mu 172, Mu 271, and Mu 272. The student must also earn four hours of credit in one field of applied music.

ACADEMIC CHRISTIAN WORKER'S COURSE (Diploma)

The Academic Christian Worker's Course is a three-year program of study requiring 94 hours for graduation. The course is planned for a limited number who have not graduated from high school and are therefore not qualified to enter the degree courses or the Standard Bible Course. It provides certain high school subjects such as English and History, and a major in Bible and Theology of which a total of 35 hours is required. The requirements for a minor will follow as closely as possible those of the Standard Bible Course, and will be determined in keeping with the field chosen. This course is intended for those who are beyond high school age. Others are encouraged to finish their high school course before entering the College.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Courses are offered in four general divisions of study, namely: Bible and Theology, General Education, Communication Arts, and Specialized Training.

I DIVISION OF BIBLE AND THEOLOGY

Chairman: Mr. Farr

A English Old Testament

OT 111—Old Testament Survey. An introductory study of the Old Testament from Genesis to II Chronicles. Class lectures and notebook work emphasize the distinctive features, main events, and outstanding characters, and lay a substantial factual basis for interpretation. Required in all Courses. Value, 4 semester hours. Offered in first semester of each year.

OT 112—Old Testament Survey. A continuation of OT III, treating Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, and the Prophetic Books. Historical background, relation to the times, and the Messianic message are given special attention. Required in all Courses. Value, 4 semester hours. Offered in second semester of each year.

OT 211—Old Testament Survey. This course completes the Old Testament Survey by an introductory study of the Poetical Books, Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon. Required in all Courses. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in the first semester of each year.

OT 311—Pentateuch. An advanced study of the first five books of the Bible, dealing with introduction, origins, theological foundations for faith, historical beginnings and progress of humanity, the Jewish economy, decalogue, tabernacle symbolism, and the early development of the Messianic hope. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

OT 312—Isaiah. An intensive study of this major prophecy taking particular note of the problems of unity and authorship, historical background, the prophetic office, and the Messianic and Millennial prophecies. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

OT 313—The Psalms. A critical introduction to the Book of Psalms is followed by detailed analysis of individual Psalms and a study of various groups, such as Messianic, penitential, theocratic and millennial. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

OT 314—Daniel. A biographical, dispensational, prophetic study with consideration of the life and times of the prophet, the critical problems of OT 315—Jeremiah. A study of this major prophecy with its setting of Judah's religious, moral, and civil decline, and its relation to other major nations of the period. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

OT 316—Post-Exilic Prophets. An advanced expository treatment of Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi, with a view to discovering the message of each for its own times. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

B New Testament Greek

NT 431-432—Advanced N. T. Greek. The translation of selections from various New Testament books and a study of their problems of grammar and exegesis. Value, 3 hours each semester.

C English New Testament

NT 141—Acts. This is an introductory study to the latter half of the New Testament. It considers Christ as the ascended Lord operating through the church by the Holy Spirit. The history of the early Church, the missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul, and the labors of other Apostles are noted. Required in all Courses. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in first semester of each year.

NT 142—Mark. A course in the earliest synoptic Gospel to give the student an introduction to the moving events in the life of our Lord. Required in all courses except the Music Courses. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in second semester of each year.

NT 241—Matthew. A study of Christ as given by Matthew, in which he is set forth as the fulfillment of the Messianic hope of the Old Testament. Required in all Courses. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in the first semester of each year.

NT 242—John. The Gospel of John supplements the synoptic Gospels and presents Christ as the Son of God; accordingly, its study is important for a complete view of our Lord's ministry and person. Required in all Courses. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in the second semester of each year.

NT 342—Romans and Galatians. An exposition of these Epistles. In the former the logical unfolding of the great doctrines of sin, salvation, and sanctification are studied. Special attention is also given to the chapters relating to God's plan for Israel and to the believer's obligation to God, to government, and to his fellowmen. In the latter, the relation of law and grace and the great doctrine of justification by faith apart from works are treated. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

NT 343—The Prison Epistles. This group includes Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon. The transcendent truths of the exaltation of Christ, the union of the church with its Head, and the consummation of God's redemptive purpose give these books special importance. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

NT 344—The Corinthian Epistles. An advanced study of I and II Corinthians. An analysis is made of the church and pastoral problems that gave rise to these letters, and the application of Christian principles to their solution. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

NT 345—General Epistles. By analysis and exegesis the teachings of this section of the New Testament are set forth as they relate to doctrine and to the everyday problems of Christian living. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

NT 346—The Thessalonian Epistles. An intensive study of these Epistles with attention given to the occasion for them and a special analysis of the doctrine of the Second Coming of Christ as taught by Paul. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

NT 347—Hebrews. An exposition of this important Epistle, which shows the pre-eminence of Christ and the superiority of Christianity to the Old Testament economy. A study that coordinates the institution of the law with the revelation of the Gospel and unfolds the present High-Priestly ministry of Jesus Christ. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

NT 348—Pastoral Epistles. An exegetical study giving attention to the doctrinal and practical aspects of these Epistles with reference to their bearing upon modern pastoral problems, the nature of the organization of the New Testament Church, its function and development. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

NT 352—The Apocalypse. This course consists of an exposition of the Book of Revelation. The predictions found therein are interpreted in the light of the Old Testament prophecy, history, and current events. While the prophetic element is kept prominent, the devotional and practical value of the book is also emphasized. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

D Biblical Theology

Th 361—Bibliology, Theology. A study of the doctrine of the Scriptures, showing them to be a revelation of God, inspired of Him, thoroughly accredited and the final court of appeal in all matters pertaining to creed and conduct; of God, the evidence of His existence, His personality, His attributes and perfections, and His existence as a trinity. Value, 2 semester hours.

Th 362—Theology, Angelology, Anthropology. This course consists of a study of the decrees of God as they concern nature—creation and preservation, and as they concern moral beings—providence and redemption; of the doctrine of angels, demons, and Satan; and of the doctrine of man, his creation, nature, and fall. Value, 2 semester hours.

Th 363—Hamartiology, Christology. In this course a study is made of sin, its nature, extent, and penalty; also of Christ, His pre-existence, His deity, His incarnation, and His redemptive work through the blood of the cross. Value, 2 semester hours.

Th 364—Pneumatology, Ecclesiology, Eschatology. Three major doctrines are studied in this Course: (1) the Holy Spirit, His personality and deity, and His work in creation, in the world, and in the believer; (2) the Church, her origin, her ministry, and her destination; (3) the doctrine of the Last Things, including the Second Coming of Christ, the millennium, the resurrection, and the judgment. Value, 2 semester hours.

Th 365—Eschatology. A detailed and more extensive study of the doctrine of the Last Things, including the dispensations, the second advent, the tribulation, the millennium, the resurrection, the judgments, and the closing events and scenes of time. Offered in 1952-53. Value, 2 semester hours.

Th 367—Pneumatology. A more thorough study in the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, His personality, deity, and relationship to the trinity, the world, and the believer. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

E Christian Apologetics

Ap 371—Christian Evidences. This course deals with the proofs of Christianity. It considers also Biblical difficulties and anti-Christian theories, and helps the student find the satisfying answer to each. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in the first semester of 1952-53.

Ap 372—Biblical Archaeology. This study offers a valuable apologetic for Christianity by familiarizing the student with important archaeological discoveries that throw light upon the Bible. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in second semester of 1952-53.

Ap 373—Non-Christian Religions. (Mi 331) The study consists of an interpretation of the religions of the world, as well as a presentation of such facts concerning their origin and history as one needs to interpret them rightly, to the end that the superlative elements of the Christian religion may be set forth and emphasized. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in first semester of 1951-52.

Ap 374—General Introduction. A comprehensive course that deals with the inspiration, canonicity, genuineness, authenticity, credibility, and the authority of the Holy Scriptures. It takes up the transmission and preservation of the text from the most ancient manuscripts to recent English versions. The Holy Scriptures are studied in comparison with Aporocryphal and other uninspired writings. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in second semester, 1951-52.

F Philosophy and Interpretation

PT 317—Biblical Interpretation. A study of the principles for obtaining the true meaning of Biblical writers. It considers such problems as figurative language, prophecy, parables, and types. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

PI 482—Christian Philosophy. An examination of the Christian faith in contrast with other philosophical systems. Christianity is shown to present the only adequate view of God, the world, history, man and redemption. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

PI 484—Christian Ethics. This course treats both the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject. The source and principles of the Christian ideal are studied and contrasted with the humanistic theories. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

II DIVISION OF GENERAL EDUCATION

Chairman: Mr. Mitchell

A History

Hi 110—Christian Biography. (Mi 130) A reading course of the biographies of noted Christian men and women for stimulation of interest and appreciation of their historical importance. Required of all first year students. Value, 1 semester hour per year.

B DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Chairman: Mr. Birkey

Mi 130—Christian Biography. See Hi 110 for description. Value, 1 semester hour per year.
Mi 231, 232—History of Missions. A survey of the progress of missionary extension from its inception to the present. The greater part of the course deals with the modern era: a study of the individual fields, including general facts, the work accomplished, the outstanding problems and needs of each field. Value, 4 semester hours. Offered each year, two hours in each semester.

Mi 331—Non-Christian Religions. Value, 2 semester hours. See Ap 373 for description.

Mi 332—Missionary Principles and Practices. An invaluable course for all prospective missionaries. It treats of such themes as missionary administration and support, the qualifications of missionaries, self-government, self-support, and self-propagation of the native church. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

Mi 333—Home Missions. A study of the history, locations, conditions, and needs of such groups as Indians, Orientals, Mexicans, Jews, Cultists, and Southern Mountain people and how to present Christ to these people and secure their commitment to Him and to His kingdom and service. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

Mi 334—Home Nursing. The Red Cross course in “Home Nursing and Care of the Sick” is not designed to substitute for courses either in nursing or medicine. Special emphasis is placed on personal hygiene and health habits, with preventive measures to combat disease. A study of both constitutional and infectious diseases is made, stressing those diseases peculiar to each mission field. Instruction is given in methods of home care of the sick. There is also practical work. The American Red Cross gives a certificate to those who satisfactorily complete this course. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

Mi 336—First Aid. The Red Cross course in First Aid. It aims to give the student the necessary knowledge of the anatomy of the human body needed to efficiently give first aid care and an understanding of all the most common emergencies, with the care and treatment of each. The American Red Cross gives a certificate to the first aider who satisfactorily completes this course. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

Mi 338—Anthropology. A survey course in physical and cultural anthropology designed especially to aid missionary candidates. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

Mi 431—Linguistics. See Division III, Section E for description. Attitude toward and principles of language learning. Value, 3 semester hours.

Mi 432—Linguistics. See Division III, Section E for description. A survey of morphology, syntax and semantics. Value, 3 semester hours.
C DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Chairman: Miss Dilling

CE 251—Introductory Psychology. Value, 3 semester hours. See Ps 251 for description.

CE 351—Principles and Methods. The fundamental principles of teaching in the church school. Various methods, such as story telling, lecture, discussion, etc., will be studied. Required of all C. E. minors. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

CE 352—Child Psychology. A study of the normal growth and development of the child. Investigation is made of the forces of life building as well as the phases and fields of the religious education of the child. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

CE 353—Psychology of Adolescence A study of the significance and development of youth physically, mentally, socially, and religiously, with special attention to personality traits, emotional behaviour, maladjustments, and special aptitudes and interests. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

CE 354—Educational Psychology. An analysis of the learning process with special emphasis being placed on the conditions for successful learning. Consideration is given to growth, personality, habits, problems of adjustment, and emotional attitudes. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

CE 355—Bible Story Telling and Methods of Illustration. This course presents the underlying principles of story telling, including the use of the Bible story in the sermon and the best methods of visual illustration, such as pictures, blackboard drawings, object lessons, and Scripture-graphs. Syllabus; collateral; and much practice in collecting, writing, and telling stories. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.

CE 358—Church Supervision. Value, 2 semester hours. See PT 316 for description.

CE 359—Worship. (PT 315) The place of worship in the program of Christian Education; use of various worship materials; planning of worship services for children and young people. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-52.

CE 362—Sunday School Administration. (PT 322) This course presents the work of the local Sunday School: its organization, administration, equipment, teaching, and various services to the homes of its constituency and community. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1951-1952.

CE 451-452—Practice Teaching. Supervision of all students in actual teaching situations. Offered in both semesters of each year. Two semesters required of all C. E. minors. Value, 1 hour each semester.

D DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

Ev 172—Personal Evangelism. A course designed to aid the Christian in the art of soul winning and to teach him how to present Christ effectively and intelligently in personal conversation. The varying needs and problems of the unsaved are considered. The latter part of the course is given to a discussion of modern cults. Text: "Galilean Fishermen," S. A. Witmer. Value, 3 semester hours. Offered in the second semester of each year.

Ev 372—History of Revivals and Revival Leaders. The aim of this course is to teach evangelism from two points of view: (1) the history of American revivalism and evangelism; (2) the best modern methods of pastoral and public evangelism. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in 1952-53.
School of Sacred Music

The School of Sacred Music is one of the major departments of the Bible College and its courses are integrated with the regular courses of the other departments. The School of Sacred Music specializes in sacred music and strives for high standards in music that is essentially spiritual and expressive of Christian experience and faith. Its purpose is to train men and women for Gospel singing, directing, piano and organ playing, and hymn writing.

The same general entrance requirements obtain in the School of Sacred Music as in the College of Bible. Applicants must be Christian in character, and must be high school graduates to enroll in the standard three-and four-year courses. Those who have not completed high school must enroll in the Academic Christian Worker's Course and elect Music as the minor.

The School of Sacred Music is housed in Founders' Memorial Music Hall on the corner of Rudisill and Indiana Avenue. There are twenty practice rooms and four teachers' studios, all sound-proofed. The chapel is equipped with a Hammond Concert Organ and a Baldwin Concert Grand Piano. Also included in the school's music facilities is an Orgatron, an electric organ used for practice purposes. A library of records is at the disposal of music students.

Each Christmas season the College Messiah Chorus presents Handel's "The Messiah", and during the commencement week the annual sacred concert is presented. A concert tour by the A Cappella Choir is made during the Easter season. The radio ministry of the College provides another important phase of musical training. A radio ensemble is a major part of the college broadcasts, which for several years have been presented each week day from the campus. Vocal and instrumental gospel teams provide another outlet for practical musical training. These groups travel over a wide area each year in public ministries.

The practice requirements of music majors or minors are: One lesson per week in voice, wind instrument or organ requires five hours minimum practice. Two lessons require seven and one-half hours practice. One piano lesson requires seven and one-half hours practice; two lessons twelve and one-half hours practice.

The practice requirements of non-music majors or minors are: One lesson per week of voice or wind instrument requires two and one-half hours practice; one piano or organ lesson requires five hours practice. No credit is given for less than fifteen lessons per semester.

An examination before the music faculty at the beginning of the second year to determine the advisability of continuation in the Music Courses is required of all music majors.

Music majors are required to give a public recital in the last semester of their senior year. All applied music students are required to attend all concerts and recitals given throughout the year.

Students must elect piano as one of their majors in the first year unless they are able to accompany themselves. Only advanced piano students may study organ.
The Bachelor of Sacred Music Course includes 27 hours of Bible and 8 hours of Theology. Other required courses include Personal Evangelism, Christian Biography, and 21 hours of liberal arts work in such courses as English Composition, English Literature, Sociology, Psychology, and Public Speaking.

Four years of Chorus are required of all voice majors. Double majors, i.e., students taking voice, and piano, or voice and organ, may substitute Accompanying for Chorus for one year. Two years of Chorus and one year of Accompanying are required of all piano and organ majors. For all such, accompanying must be taken in the senior year.

This course leads to the B. S. M. degree, and 126 hours are required for graduation.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Mu 171, 172—Fundamentals of Music. This is a beginner’s course in the theory of music and is a popular study for Bible as well as music students. It consists in the study of notation, division of time, scales and intervals, melodic dictation in the treble and bass clefs, sight-singing for one or more voices. Value, 3 hours each semester.

Mu 271, 272—Sight-singing and Ear Training. Designed to enable the student to sight read music of moderate to difficult grades. Phrasing, dictation, breathing and rhythmic feeling are stressed. One-part and two-part exercises in all keys, employing both step-wise and skip-wise melody, chromatic and diatonic. Melodic harmonic dictation is given regularly. Value, 2 hours each semester.

Mu 274—Appreciation. Designed to develop the musical understanding and enjoyment of music, introducing Classic, Romantic and modern composers of all nations. As much sacred music as possible will be presented. Electrical recordings will be used. Value, 2 semester hours. Offered in second semester 1952-53.

Mu 370—Repertoire. Students meet with their respective teachers once a week in a class to discuss various music problems. Students sing and play for one hour and offer and receive constructive criticisms. This course is required of all music majors in junior and senior years. Value, 1 semester hour.

Mu 371, 372—Theory. Review of scales, intervals, and chords. First and second inversions of chords. Dominant sevenths and their inversions. Melodies and bases are harmonized in four parts in preparation for hymn-writing. Some original melodies will be required, the best of which will be harmonized by the class as a whole. Value, 3 hours each semester.

Mu 373, 374—Choral Conducting and Organization. This course includes the technique of leading congregational singing; the correct and approved method of beating time; the methods of conveying rhythms, dynamics, and interpretation through the baton. Mu 374 consists of directing recitatives, arias, and choruses from the "Messiah" and "Elijah." Recordings are used extensively. Value, 2 hours each semester.

Mu 376—History of Sacred Music. This course is devoted to the study of the origin and development of sacred music including a study of the music of the Bible, the lives and works of the great masters, the modern hymn and gospel songs. Value, 3 hours.

Mu 378—Radio Broadcasting. Value, 2 semester hours. See Division III, Section F for description. Offered in 1951-52. (Listed as PT 318)

Mu 470—Hymn and Choral Accompaniment. Includes accompaniment of vocal and instrumental solos and a group of choral singing. Value, 1 hour each semester.

Mu 471, 472—Advanced Theory and Composition. Advanced study in chord formation, including the chords of the major and the minor 9th, 11th, and 13th, diminished sevenths, and the augmented sixth chords series. These and others are applied to the composition of songs and simple instrumental pieces, choruses, etc. Value, 3 hours each semester.

Mu 474—Hymnology. The aim of this course is to give the student an appreciation and a working knowledge of hymns and church music. An analytical study is made of the message and music of the most famous hymns. Attention is given to the lives of the great hymn writers and their interpretations of hymns in the light of Christian experience and faith. Value, 2 hours. Offered in second semester of 1952-53.

Voice—Private voice culture includes voice building, care and use of voice, proper tone production and placement, breathing, phrasing, and interpretation. Value, 1 semester hour per lesson.

Piano—In private piano instruction, emphasis is laid on a thorough technical foundation. All students are carefully prepared in the major and minor scales, arpeggios, chords, and octaves in the various forms and touches. This preparatory material, combined with additional exercises, stressing phrasing, dynamics, etc., is applied to the art of hymn playing, eliminating the difficulties of playing hymns in any key. Hymns are studied from the standpoint of pedaling, rhythm, rapid reading, transposition, and improvisation. Value, 1 semester hour per lesson.

Organ—"The Organ", a method by Sir John Stainer, is used to give students a a careful foundation for organ playing. Pedal studies by Nilson and Koch are also used. Emphasis is laid on a thorough organ technique and on a classical repertoire, including preludes and fugues of Bach, the works of Guilmant, Stainer, and other standard organ composers. Practical help is given to expressive and beautiful hymn playing, with the aid of the finest in hymn arrangements. The instrument used is the Hammond Concert Organ, an electronic instrument which is well suited for teaching purposes since it conforms to the standards of the American Guild of Organists. Open to advanced piano students only upon recommendation of the instructor. Value, 1 semester hour per lesson.

Wind Instruments—Lessons on any of the brasses (cornet, trumpet, trombone, etc.) and clarinet are offered as electives. Emphasis is laid upon thorough preparation for use of the instrument in song services and solo work. Value, 1 semester hour per lesson.

A Cappella Choir—Advanced chorus work with selected voices. Advanced choral numbers are rehearsed and presented in concert. Two rehearsals per week. Value, 1 hour each semester.

Messiah Chorus—Rehearsals for Messiah presentation. Value 1 hour, first semester.

Band—Open to those who play band instruments, affording them an opportunity to gain instruction and experience in ensemble playing. The Band assists in public services throughout the year. Value, 1 hour each semester.
A summer session of six weeks will be held in the summer of 1951. Regular courses will be offered for which credit will be given for satisfactory completion of work. It is possible to earn from four to six semester hours of credit.

The summer session is one-third of a semester in length, and by tripling the number of class meetings per week, full semester courses can be offered.

The summer session is particularly advantageous for veterans who must begin their training not later than July 25, 1951, if their date of discharge was before July 25, 1947. Veterans should secure a Certificate of Eligibility from the nearest V. A. office and apply for admission as soon as convenient.

Among the regular teachers who will be on the summer staff are Dean Elmer Neuenschwander, Professor Harvey Mitchell, Professor Laurence Farr, and Professor Cyril H. Eicher.

Courses to be offered in the summer session are:

NT 241—Matthew. A special study of Matthew in its dispensational setting and prophetical significance. Credit applicable to all programs of study in the College of Bible. Value, 3 semester hours.

NT 242—John. Required in all programs of study leading to graduation. Value 2 semester hours.

Th 367—Pneumatology. A special study of the person and work of the Holy Spirit. Value, 3 semester hours.

OT 318—Historical Books. A study of the important United Kingdom of Israel from the books of Samuel, Kings, and Chronicles. Value, 2 semester hours.

PT 316—Church Supervision. A course on church organization. Value, 2 semester hours.

Pl 486—Contemporary Philosophy. An examination of contemporary philosophical movements and their evaluation from the Christian point of view. Value, 2 semester hours.

School of Extension Study

The School of Extension Study makes available some Bible and training courses to Church workers and laymen who cannot attend classes in residence.

Courses listed earlier in this catalog that may be taken by correspondence and for which full credit is given are: NT 241 (Matthew), NT 242 (John), NT 141 (Acts), and Ev 172 (Personal Evangelism).

Several practical non-credit courses are also offered. These include Synthetic Course of the Old Testament, Synthetic Course of the New Testament, Pastor's Course, and Sunday School Teacher Training.

A leaflet giving full information will be sent upon request—address: Director of School of Extension Study, Fort Wayne Bible College, Fort Wayne 6, Indiana.
SCHOOL REGULATIONS

Changing Courses—A change in subjects may be made by the Registrar during the first three weeks of any semester, but after that, only by action of the faculty.

Electives—Any elective course in any semester will be offered if elected by as many as five students.

Transcripts of Credits—At the close of the second semester the College will supply the student with a copy of the credits earned during that school year. A graduate is given a complete record of his credits. A charge of $1.00 is made for subsequent transcripts of more than one year's work; $.50 for a year or less.

Class Absence—Students are to be present for each class session unless given an excuse. An unexcused absence is penalized by a grade of zero for that day's work. Unexcused absences immediately preceding or following a vacation count double. Three tardies count as one absence. All work missed through absence must be made up.

Special Examinations—Examinations missed because of an excused absence may be made up without penalty. A fee of one dollar must be paid in advance for an examination missed in an unexcused absence, and a grade of C is the maximum possible in this instance. Students who fail an examination may, at the instructor's discretion, be permitted to take a second one. The one dollar fee is also charged for this.

Withdrawal from School—Any student who, for any reason, must contemplate withdrawing from school except at the end of a semester must consult with the Dean of the College. If it is legitimately necessary for a student to leave school, a form is available which when completely filled out, clears the student with all departments of the school, and makes possible an honorable withdrawal. Failure to consult with the Dean and to make proper arrangements results automatically in "dishonorable withdrawal," and failing grades will be entered upon the permanent scholastic record of the student.

Application for Graduation—Each senior is required to make formal application for graduation at the Registrar's Office not later than February 20 of the year in which he plans to graduate.

HOUSEHOLD REGULATIONS

Conduct—In an institution of this kind, the regulation of conduct becomes necessary for the welfare of the group and the proper safeguard of the student. For this purpose a set of rules and regulations has been formulated and published in the Student's Manual, and to these the student is expected to conform. The aim of the College is to provide an atmosphere most conducive to reverent study and development of strong Christian character. All regulation and training are directed to this end.

The College may at any time request the withdrawal of a student who does not conform to its rules or objectives.

Social Life—Social life and affairs are regarded definitely as secondary in importance during student days. Students should not expect the same liberties in social matters as they enjoy at home. Certain hours are set aside for study, during which visiting in one another’s rooms is prohibited. Loud and boisterous conduct is always considered out of place.

Students who marry before graduation will not be allowed to continue in school without faculty approval.

Dress—The wardrobe of each student should be made up of suitable and serviceable clothing. The New Testament standard of modesty in apparel is insisted upon. It is expected that clothing will be expressive of Christian standards and tastes. Rubber heels are required.

Equipment—Rooms are furnished with bedsteads, tables, chairs, and dressers. Students furnish rugs, window curtains, dresser and table scarfs, pictures, and any other articles desired to make the room cheery and homelike. Firearms and electrical equipment such as Toasters, grills, etc., are not permitted.

Each dormitory student is expected to bring bedding for a twin bed, including a pair of blankets, comforter, bedspread, pillow, change of sheets, pillow slips, towels, and three napkins, all plainly marked on the right side with the owner’s full name in indelible ink. Payson’s ink is recommended. All students should bring a pair of gymnasium shoes.

Textbooks and school supplies are carried in the bookroom. Bibles are available at reduced prices.

Care of Rooms—Each student is responsible for the cleanliness and tidiness of his room. In addition to regularly cleaning his room he is expected to give it a thorough cleaning in the spring at the time designated by the Hostess. Periodic inspections are made of all dormitory rooms.

Health—All cases of illness are to be reported promptly to the Hostesses or to the respective Deans. The College provides care for those who have minor illnesses through the services of a resident, registered nurse. The cost of medical assistance above this, is assumed by the student.

Automobiles—Students are advised to leave automobiles at their homes unless their use while attending school is actually necessary. Parking on the campus is limited and this privilege is granted only to students who secure written permission from the Dean before coming to school.

A deduction of one per cent is made from the above totals for regular boarding students if all is paid in advance.

In order to secure the reservation of a room, each applicant, after receiving a letter of acceptance, must make a deposit of $5.00. No room will be reserved until this deposit has been received. This fee is considered an advance payment and is credited to the student's account when he enrolls, but is not refunded in case of forfeiture.

All single students outside the city of Fort Wayne are to room and board at the College unless for valid reasons an exception is made by officers of the College. When dormitories are filled, arrangements are made by the College for a limited number of students to occupy rooms in nearby residences and to take their meals in the school dining hall. While all such arrangements are made by or through the College, yet such students pay rental fees directly to the home owners. Rental fees in homes are generally a little higher than those charged for dormitory rooms.

No deductions of board expenses are made on absences of less than a week. Students remaining for the Christmas vacation are charged at the regular rate.

The College reserves the right to change board, room, and tuition fees at the beginning of any semester if fluctuations in operating costs warrant it.

The College cares for the laundering of sheets, pillow cases, and napkins. Each student is responsible for laundering his towels and personal clothing. The College maintains a laundry service where most personal affects may be laundered at moderate rates.

If less or more than 13½ to 16 hours of classroom work are taken, tuition is determined at the rate of $4.50 per hour.

Inasmuch as the moderate board and room rates are made possible in part by student help, each boarding student is required to do one hour of work per day, for which $35.00 is credited to his semester's account. A limited number may work two hours per day, for which $70.00 is allowed.

One-third of the semester's expenses is to be paid upon registration, and the remainder in monthly installments in advance. No student will be permitted to register for a new semester whose account is in arrears.

The general registration fee is not refundable in case of withdrawal. When any student is compelled to withdraw from the College because of illness or other unavoidable circumstances, he will be charged tuition at the rate of $8.50 per week for the period in attendance, or a proportionate amount if not taking 13½ to 16 hours, and the remainder will be refunded. If the withdrawal takes place after the seventh week, no refund will be made. Board and room will be charged at the weekly rates for the period he is in attendance. Any student discontinuing applied music during a semester will be charged at the individual lesson rate for the part of the semester taken.

Seniors who are in arrears can graduate only if approval is given by the Committee on Administration to make deferred payments. When such an arrangement is made, diplomas and degrees are held in the custody of the College and no credits are issued until the account is paid in full.
Self-Help

Many students find it necessary to earn a part of their expenses while in training. Obviously, a student who must devote considerable time to secular work cannot carry a full study load and must therefore extend his course over more than the regular period of time. A proficient student can give some time, however, to remunerative work while carrying a regular schedule. Ability, initiative, and dependability are qualifications needed for remunerative positions.

For girls who are unable to live in the dormitory there are homes available in the community where they may work in exchange for room and board. Girls given homes are asked to come the day before registration in order to receive their assignments.

In order to reserve a home, a fee of $5.00 is charged, on the same conditions that a room reservation is paid.

"TRAINING FOR SERVICE AND SERVICE IN TRAINING"
THE 1950 PRESENTATION OF HANDEL'S MESSIAH
A WORD TO PARENTS, FRIENDS, AND ALUMNI——

Christian education that strengthens faith and prepares young people to live in a period of crisis is of strategic importance today. When all levels of education from the kindergarten to the university have become secular, schools that are definitely Christian have an indispensable mission. They have come to the kingdom for such a time as this.

But it is imperative that Christian people who believe in the value of Bible college education support such institutions by their gifts. In the 19th century the governmental power of taxation was used to build up secular schools and eliminate the bulk of religious schools on the elementary and secondary levels. Today, already a little over half of all students in institutions of higher learning are in tax-supported schools, and private schools are experiencing increasing difficulty in meeting costs of operation.

One way to keep genuinely Christian schools strong is to support them with gifts.

Fort Wayne Bible College invites you to consider its financial needs—an opportunity to have a definite share in training young people for Christian service.
