Two fish and loaves of bread are reminders of how God blesses and multiplies the gifts of the faithful.

PERSPECTIVE

Never underestimate the significance of your gift!

Little did that young boy in John's account of the feeding of the five thousand know that his gift of "five small barley loaves and two small fish" would result in "... all had enough to eat."

Your gifts to Taylor Fort Wayne, no matter the size, also have made a difference... a difference in the lives of our students, and for that we are deeply thankful.

I think it is significant that John goes on to share Christ's words, "Gather the pieces that are leftover. Let nothing be wasted."

Taylor Fort Wayne recognizes the act of stewardship on your part in giving to our campus. Let me assure you we also recognize the responsibility to use your gifts in a way that "nothing [will] be wasted." I take satisfaction in knowing that our faculty and staff are good stewards of your generosity.

In the middle of this issue of Fort Wayne Alumnus is our annual "Honor Roll of Donors." Names are important - even when arrayed as a list. When Matthew lists the ancestors of Jesus in Matthew 1, it allows us to see God's faithfulness in fulfilling His promise to Abraham centuries earlier. And when Paul lists his friends and colleagues in Romans 16, we are reminded that God's grace knows no racial, gender or socioeconomic boundaries.

Our "Honor Roll of Donors" contains lists of names: the names of people, churches and businesses who have chosen to invest a portion of their resources in the work and ministry of Taylor University Fort Wayne. And, like the lists of Matthew 1 and Romans 16, this list is a reminder of God's faithfulness and a testimony of God's grace.

We stand together in this critical task of providing students a Christian higher education.

PREACH MY WORD

"I AIN'T GOING TO PREACH FOR NOBODY!"

-James E. Tolbert ('93)

In a country church in Northeast Arkansas during a Sunday School assembly, deacons and church leaders said of a seven-year-old boy, "That boy is going to be a preacher." That boy said in his heart, "I ain't going to preach for nobody!"

Little did I know just how much I meant those words. Thinking as a seven-year-old thinks, I didn't want to be a preacher because church people treated the pastor so badly. I didn't think God would help His preachers deal with church problems.

I continued my participation in Sunday School and received Christ as my personal Savior when I was eleven. At age 13 I felt that I had to make a decision about my life-style. I chose to live my life my way. What a mistake!

I began to live a life of sin. Looking back on those times, I believe I was trying all I could to disqualify myself from God's service. I even started to feel that I was too sinful to be used by God. But God is faithful to His call on our lives. He knows how to wait for us.

It was seventeen years after I stood in Sunday School and declared in my heart, "I ain't going to preach for nobody," that I remembered saying those words. God was calling me to preach His Word. I argued, but to no avail. He was persistent. I reminded God of all the baggage I would bring to this sacred office. His response to me was, "Preach My Word." I gave the excuse that no one, especially those who really knew me, would believe that I could be a preacher! God once again said, "Preach My Word." I submitted, "Yes, Lord, I will preach Your Word."

I told my wife, Juanita, about my call to preach and she seemed happy. Perhaps she was more relieved than anything because she knew I had been running from a real commitment to serve God. However, being the wife of a preacher was not in her thinking, nor mine, when we were married about five years earlier. I'm glad she decided to stick with me in my preaching.

As I developed in preaching, I would do the things that other preachers would do; I would say the kinds of things other preachers would say. I never knew how to develop the proper relationship with God that I needed. Neither did I know how to deal with God's people as I ought.

When I was called to pastor a church in Peru, Indiana, the first two years were great. We did a good work in rebuilding the church house, but I did little to rebuild the spiritual church. I did not know how to build up the lives of God's people. I had no counseling skills. After five years of work there, I resigned. I had led them as far as I could. I told the church they needed to get someone they were willing to follow. At the time, I felt the problems between the church and myself were all their fault. But now I know that I was unprepared to pastor a church. I was self taught, except for a few seminars and classes I would attend from time to time. For the most part I had very little formal training.

In 1990, I enrolled in Summit Christian College. I was out of the job I had held for nearly 15 years. I had a wife and five of our six sons were at home. Yet, I enrolled in a Christian college. I did it because God made it clear to me that this was His will for my life. I trusted God's wisdom and obeyed Him. God used His people to encourage me and my family during my college years. Gifts, prayers, scholarships, financial aid and student loans helped me and my family make it through. I thank God for those who helped us.

God truly blesses the obedient. I graduated with honors in Pastoral Ministries in December 1993, and I now pastor the Good Shepherd Community Church in Fort Wayne. I also serve as administrative assistant at Adams and Abbett Elementary Schools where

I have the opportunity to counsel with young children and their parents.

I am now better equipped to preach and minister to the needs of God's people and my community. I want to put to full use the training I have received because of the gifts of caring people and the commitment of a Christian university like Taylor University.

"...for God sees not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart." 1 Samuel 16:7

How Can I Give To Taylor Fort Wayne?

-Joe Updegrave

When asked "How can I give to Taylor Fort Wayne?" the obvious answer would be cash, check or money order! All joking aside, annual cash gifts to the University's current fund are a necessity for daily operations. I encourage individuals to plan and budget so Taylor Fort Wayne can be a part of their regular annual giving.

In addition to cash gifts, there are several other giving options. . . options focused on an individual's goals and objectives.

Many remember Taylor Fort Wayne through a will or trust. . . helping us with the future as well as the present. One may also consider real estate, stocks or bonds. Just recently we received a gift of real estate which was sold and the funds placed in a separate account for a future building program. The donor was able to avoid capital gains taxes and had a feeling of satisfaction in knowing the gift will be used for God's work.

Others need income from the farm or from interest and dividends. These donors may consider a charitable annuity.

Recently we were the beneficiary of a life insurance policy. It was used to establish an endowed scholarship which will benefit Taylor Fort Wayne students now and in the years to come.

Other avenues of giving include: gifts-in-kind such as jewelry, antiques, automobiles, furniture and books; a number of employers will match gifts; volunteers are needed; and most importantly, your prayer support is greatly valued.

Dr. Kesler has said many times, "Taylor University is a part of the Great Commission and therefore should be included in your prayers and stewardship."

"It Is Not Enough The Whole Purpose of Seeing

TUFW Director of Development, Joe Updegrave, signs-up another supporter of Christian higher education.

"In today's society a good education is a must and I find a great joy in assisting students who are willing to work hard and are focused on obtaining their educational goals.

"I feel that Taylor Fort Wayne is promoting Christian education and I appreciate the way the University is reaching out into the community with solid Christian beliefs. Being a former teacher (now retired) in Fort Wayne, I feel Taylor Fort Wayne is very important and very needed."

Miss Mary Edith Reiff
Andrews, Indiana

"I graduated from FWBC and of course it has been a big part of my life since Dad and Mother both worked there: Dad in the education department and Mom in the library. I was very involved in the Christian service programs which helped to formulate my decision about full-time Christian ministry. I am interested in seeing others receive the same kind of training and education I had the privilege to have."

Janet Nickel
Missionary to Sierra Leone

"Taylor's Fort Wayne campus has had a long history of providing Christian higher education, and Brotherhood Mutual believes in what they are doing.

"Training of Christians for ministry and service careers is extremely important in communicating the Gospel. We believe Taylor Fort Wayne does an outstanding job, and we want to be a part of it."

Paul A. Steiner
Chairman of the Board
Brotherhood Mutual Ins. Co.

"We feel Taylor Fort Wayne is something worthwhile for us to invest in. This is why we have decided to leave our estate there, so that it will help further the education of young people at a Christian university. It is important for us to know that this will be possible even after we are gone."

To Merely See Needs; Is That We Might Respond."

-M. Hancock

"There has always been a warm spot in my heart for Fort Wayne Bible College. At one time my father served on the Governing Board.

"It is a joy to see the young people from our church going to the Fort Wayne campus of Taylor and receiving a quality Christian education.

"It is a joy to be able to give to, what we feel, is the Lord's work in Fort Wayne."

Mrs. Paul (Berniece) Adams
Celina, Ohio

"Both of our sons graduated from Fort Wayne Bible College and we are delighted that Taylor was willing to continue the mission in Fort Wayne! We are so impressed with the Taylor students who attend our church. They exemplify the quality leadership and godly message characteristic of Taylor Fort Wayne."

"I give in appreciation to my Great God who has blessed me and used FWBC to change my life.

"Fort Wayne Bible College made an impact on my spiritual life when I attended in the late 70's. I was impressed by the professors who demonstrated what they were teaching by their own personal lives. They helped me get my life on course."

Dave Scholl

"We have appreciated the training our daughter received 23 years ago at Fort Wayne Bible College. The College gave her the opportunity to serve as the campus nurse and to take an evangelistic trip to Mexico. The experiences she was able to have helped her so much.

"We are thrilled to be able to give to the College over the years so that others may have the same type of education and experience our daughter did!"

BARD, ST. PETERS JOIN TUFW

Dr. Gary Bard has joined the TUFW faculty as assistant professor of mathematics, computing and system sciences. Prior to coming to Taylor, Dr. Bard served 10 years as part-time instructor of mathematics and computer science for the University of Maryland, European Division. He recently retired from the Air Force after 22 years of service. Bard holds a Ph.D. degree in geology from Iowa State University, and M.S. and B.A. degrees from the University of Northern Iowa in earth science, science and religion respectively.

*Heather Zenk
St. Peters*

Heather Zenk St. Peters has been appointed director of the Institute of Correspondence Studies. St. Peters joined the staff in August coming from Illinois where she earned the B.A. degree in international relations from Illinois Wesleyan University-Bloomington, and earned M.S. degrees in communication and political science from Illinois State University-Normal.

WELCOME HOME!

The campus was a burst of activity as TUFW hosted its annual Homecoming/Parents' Weekend, October 8 and 9. The weekend provided times of reunion, reminiscing and renewal of friendships.

Activities included class reunions, a BBQ and a variety/talent program. A highlight of the weekend was the soccer game between the Taylor Falcons and Grace Bible College. The Falcons took the victory in double overtime with a score of 1 to 0.

PARENTS' ASSOCIATION

The TUFW Parents' Association is alive and well as a result of many parents taking an active part.

The purpose of the Parents' Association is to foster and cultivate the spirit of a continuing Christian community of Taylor parents; to unite that community into roles of influence, support and action; and to have a strong voice in sustaining the spiritual welfare of the University.

The Association is governed by the Parents' Cabinet. Nine to twelve family units, representative of each class and geographical location, make up the Cabinet; led this year by Ron and Gretchen Eickhorst.

Generously, the Parents' Cabinet of the Upland campus gave TUFW $1500 to establish a Students' Emergency Assistance Fund. In its pioneer effort, the TUFW Parents' Cabinet sponsored the first annual auction of homemade items during Parents' Weekend, raising over $850 --with the purpose to replenish the emergency fund.

NUTCRACKER NARRATED

Taylor University will host its Third Annual Community Christmas Concert on Saturday, December 3.

WBN's Janice Furtner will narrate the legendary Nutcracker story as the Fort Wayne Philharmonic will provide the musical background for this timeless holiday favorite.

The community is invited, and 100 neighborhood households are once again invited as guests of the University to receive complimentary tickets for the concert in a gesture of the Christmas spirit!

MORE NEW FACES

The 1994-95 academic year has brought more than just a few new faces to TUFW. The student body has increased 8.7% from last year, totaling 423 students. Total number of male students has increased by 23%, totaling 155; and total number of women students has increased by two.

UPLAND UPDATE

COMMUNICATION ARTS CENTER DEDICATED

The Rupp Communication Arts Center was the site of dedication and ribbon cutting ceremonies Friday, October 14.

The second of two major construction projects from a recently-completed capital campaign, the $4.8 million Rupp Communication Arts Center houses the Mitchell Theatre, classrooms, television and radio studios, video editing suites, offices and darkrooms for student publications, and faculty offices.

During the dedication ceremonies greetings were given by representatives of the three major donors to the project. Rev. Charles Rupp represented the Rupp family, for whom the facility is named. Mr. Herbert Meier, Secretary of the Board, Sauder Woodworking Company, Archbold, Ohio, represented Mr. Maynard Sauder. Dr. Charles Jaggars, Vice President for University Relations at Taylor, spoke on behalf of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth (Betty) Mitchell.

DEPOT RETURNS AFTER 30 YEARS

The Upland community welcomed the return of its historic train depot after a near-30-year absence. As part of last year's observance of Taylor's 100th year in Upland, the University provided matching gift funds to help the town purchase, transport and restore the historic edifice. Dr. Charles Jaggars, V.P. for University Relations commented, "University officials thought it was a fair payback for Upland, which gave Taylor 10 acres of land and $10,000 to get the school started."

"Your Support is Much Appreciated . . . for the Success of the Kingdom."

*Dr. Jay Kesler
President*

"I'll confess that it never dawned on me in the immediate years following graduation from Taylor University that my involvement was needed or even necessary to see the institution continue. Now having returned as president, I know that the loyal support of alumni is the absolute life blood of the institution. I'm so grateful to see the Fort Wayne alumni shoulder responsibility now that the transition has been made. I'm convinced that the future of the church is, to a very great degree, in the hands of our youth and that Christian higher education plays a vital role in the kind of impact that we will have in the years to come. Your support is much appreciated, not for myself or even for Taylor, but for the success of the Kingdom. God bless you."

"My personal thanks to the hundreds of alumni who have continued to support our Alma Mater with finances, prayer and encouragement. The future of Taylor University Fort Wayne is indeed bright."

"The percentage of alumni participation in 1993-94 was 31%, which is very commendable in the midst of a merger of two institutions. We have set a goal of 35% participation for 1994-95. Please help us meet this goal. May we, the Fort Wayne campus Alumni Association, continue to support this 'Vine of God's Own Planting.'"

"God has blessed the efforts of the Fort Wayne Development staff this past year in ways we thought not possible. We praise God for the efforts of many individuals who gave to Taylor University Fort Wayne with sacrifice and with generous gifts. Because God's servants are faithful, the Fort Wayne campus has been blessed. The annual fund was in excess of $343,000 with nearly $700,000 in total gifts received. December 1993 on the Fort Wayne campus was one of the best months we have had for many years. Yes, God has truly blessed us on the Fort Wayne campus."

"Dear Manager"

Char Binkley
Manager
WBCL/WBCY

Dear Manager,

"God continues to use your faithfulness in ministry to touch lives of those in need. I am a life that was significantly touched recently. Life had been so difficult. I had planned to turn my back on friends, my church, and my Christian experience. Tuning to WBCL, I heard Don Francisco sing, 'I'll Never Let Go of Your Hand.' God used that song to speak to me, assuring me once again of His presence in my life."

-Ohio

"Thank you for all of your efforts which give the listening public so many blessings. It's easy to take you for granted, but I want you to know I'm holding you up in prayer. God has been speaking to me about how we don't support those out there who are devoted to the work of Christ. How easy it is to say something casually negative, instead of positive, about our church, pastors, those ministering in public. Thank you again for everything you do for Christ and us."

-Indiana

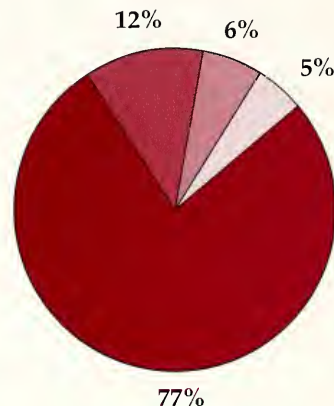

"A year ago I had a miscarriage and turned from God for several months. But, because of the programs you air, I 'came back.' Enclosed is my gift. Thank you for being there."

-Indiana

WBCL

The generosity of listeners in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan keeps WBCL on the air 24 hours a day. The music and message broadcast on 90.3 FM in Indiana and 89.5 FM in Northwest Ohio is possible because those who listen are faithful in consistently supporting the programming.

The chart shows that an overwhelming percentage of the $900,000 annual budget comes from listeners.

DIRECTORY DIRECTIVES

In 1993 the ALUMNI DIRECTORY was distributed to alumni who requested it. The DIRECTORY includes the names and addresses of all Fort Wayne Bible College/Summit Christian College alumni from 1904-1992. DIRECTORIES are still available free of charge upon request.

OUR FACE IS RED!

As we worked on the production of the DIRECTORY we had an uneasy feeling that we might miss someone. We did! Much to our chagrin a very important person was somehow not included in the directory. ADA (Smith) HAUSSER not only graduated in 1944, but she has just completed 50 years of service here at her alma mater. Our apologies Ada and thanks for your faithfulness.

Many alumni were not included because we did not have an up-to-date address. A few others, besides Ada, for whom we did have addresses were omitted for unknown reasons. We list them here with our apologies:

Late Breaking News: The Taylor Board of Trustees unanimously agreed during their October meeting to rename the Fort Wayne campus Lexington Hall, the "Ada Smith Hausser Hall." The action comes in honor of Ada's faithful service to the Fort Wayne campus over the past 50 years.

ALUMNI SOCCER REUNION

On Saturday, September 24, alumni soccer players and families returned for a time of reunion and a challenging match against the 1994 Varsity team. The alumni won, thanks to the participation of Graham West who is playing professionally for the Charlotte Eagles and is involved in a sports evangelism program with Missionary Athletes International (see article). It was also a special treat to have Dave and Dorcas (Ringenberg) McDeavitt with us while home on a short leave from their work in the Middle East.

ENDOWMENT FUND CONTINUES TO GROW

After ten years of PHONATHON alumni giving, the ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND has grown from $47,000 to $329,766. Interest earned on the Endowment has resulted in scholarships for 185 students with a total of $132,200 awarded.

What a great blessing this has been for the students and the University. Many thanks to the hundreds of alumni who have participated in this significant project. Last year over 800 alumni made contributions as a result of PHONATHON.

MOVING UP!

In August we moved "up in the world" to the third floor of Witmer Hall. We exchanged offices with the Registrar and are now located across from the Board Room. When you get off the elevator on the third floor, Marceil's desk is the first one you will see. Be sure to stop in and say, "Hello!"

PROVISION BEYOND EXPECTATION

Graham West and Lori Fazio came to Fort Wayne Bible College in 1982 for different reasons, each left with a new spiritual maturity resulting from their Fort Wayne experience. In their words:

Lori: "I was hungry to be around Christians. I attended FWBC for two years and my experience reshaped my thinking and helped me to be spiritually focused. Spiritual Emphasis, Elisabeth Elliott's visit, exposure to missionaries and updates on world needs all worked together to make me a stronger Christian."

Graham: "I came to FWBC to play soccer and to become more knowledgeable about the scriptures. . . in that order! When I started college, my life was in limbo and as a result, I had many struggles. Soccer was a big part of my life and I started experiencing personal and spiritual growth through the help and guidance of my teammates and especially from my soccer coach, Denny Williams. As I matured, so did my priorities. I started appreciating the professors. They were committed, steady, and went beyond the requirements."

During their time together at FWBC, Graham and Lori were the "best of friends." Lori shares,

"I was on yearbook staff and was assigned to take the soccer team photo and that is when I met Graham for the first time. I suffered a knee injury while playing basketball a short time after we first met and Graham came to visit me to see how I was doing. From then on we grew to be best of friends!"

Not until after graduation in 1988 (Graham from FWBC and Lori from Warren Wilson College) did they become more than friends. They married in 1990.

While on the Fort Wayne campus, Graham became familiar with Missionary Athletes International, a Christian organization that uses soccer as an evangelistic tool both in the States and overseas. He travelled with the group for three summers. In 1991, while Graham was on his fourth MAI overseas trip, the

Graham and Lori West

Lord did a great work during a very difficult time.

Graham's foot was broken (not good for someone who was playing soccer for a living). Lori was to go on the MAI tour, but did not feel a peace about it so she stayed at home. Their savings was dwindling and Lori had to move from their apartment while Graham was gone. Although they were separated by thousands of miles, God spoke the same message to both of them.

Graham: "While I was in Russia, I saw God work in miraculous ways. So many were accepting Christ as Savior. God instilled in me what was really important: being obedient to Him and proclaiming the Good News."

Lori: "God spoke to me during my alone times with Him. He helped me to see that what was important in life was my willingness to use my skills as His servant, to be faithful and to be obedient."

God honored their obedience. Soon after Graham returned home, he learned that MAI was wanting to open an office in Charlotte, North Carolina, two hours from their home. Graham enjoyed his experiences with MAI and really felt God's leading to work with the organization full-time.

While the details were being worked out to have MAI in Charlotte, Graham and Lori were preparing to tour together with MAI. Just before leaving for the tour in the summer of 1992, they were told that they had been accepted on staff, full-time, with MAI in Charlotte. Needless to say their spirits were high and they were rejoicing throughout the tour!

The next few months were spent raising support and moving to Charlotte. Since that time their MAI ministry has blossomed. Graham plays on MAI's professional soccer team, the Charlotte Eagles. The Eagles not only participate in the U.S. Interregional Soccer League, but they also minister through camps, international tours, amateur teams and other ministries here and abroad.

In addition to playing professional soccer, Graham has served as MAI's Charlotte Program and Local Camp Director. He currently serves as the International Tour Coordinator and Women's Tour Director. Lori serves beside Graham as his assistant and co-director of women's ministries.

Graham and Lori readily admit that life can get hectic, especially between April and August, with games, camps, overseas tours, school programs and speaking engagements. But God's blessings keep them going. God has provided far above their expectations. Their overseas experiences have blessed and humbled them. Seeing the sad faces of Russian orphans soften as they hear the message of Jesus has been a priceless experience.

Looking ahead, Graham and Lori share,

"We don't know if life can get any more exciting than what it is! God has taken us beyond our dreams. The Lord will continue to lead and direct, but we know by experience that the greatest excitement in life is being where God wants us to be!"
