Taylor University's Art Department is offering private art lessons for local students in grades K-12. The lessons will be taught by Taylor Art and Art Education majors, and supervised by Professor Kathy Herrmann. All lessons will be held in the Modelle Metcalf Visual Arts Center.

Each lesson is one hour and there are eight lessons per semester. Lessons begin the 3rd full week in February and continue through the middle of May. The student teachers will contact families to set up a specific lesson day/time. Lesson fees for the eight lessons are $100 per semester for 1-2 children and $150 for 3-4 children. See form for further details and exceptions.

Payment is due in full on the first day of lessons. Please make checks out to Taylor University. The address is Taylor University Art Department, 236 W. Reade Ave., Upland, IN 46989. If you have any questions please email cindy_reishus@taylor.edu. Cost of art supplies is included in this fee.

Please fill out this form and return by e-mail to cindy_reishus@taylor.edu or to the art office in Metcalf.
