CLASS NEWS SUPPLEMENT
Taylor University ALUMNUS
May, 1962
Mrs. Alice Shippy, Class News Editor

Because of the tremendous volume of class news this spring, and because the the May Alumnus is a special spiritual emphasis issue containing 8 feature articles, this supplement has been prepared as a separate mailing.

Keith Lochner '51, commercial artist and head of Lochner Promotional Art Service, designed the striking “Global Taylor” ensign for the Alumnus. Keith’s business address is 641 N. Orleans, Chicago 10.

Art and Esta (Herrman '36) Howard continue to cope with the many problems connected with starting a National Institute of Sports and have now completed one six months course and begun another. They are looking forward to starting a three-year course in July and are busy with its many phases of work. They appreciate the kindness shown to Jerry, in Greenville College, in Illinois, and to Judy, a sophomore at Taylor. They are still at Motibagh Palace, Patiala, Punjab, India.

Ruth (Prosser) Keizer writes from the island of Java about their life there. Her husband, Cliff, teaches physical chemistry, besides working as Chief of Party for the Kentucky Contract Team. Two Indonesian staff members, who have earned their Ph.D. degrees at the University of Kentucky, are now back in Bandung, and will assume full responsibility for physical chemistry when the Keizers leave. Cliff also is organist, elder and lay preacher for the monthly English services. Ruth and a German neighbor have a cooperative program for learning German and English and she is busy with sewing, piano and organ practice and supervises the cooking. They plan to come home this summer, after spending four years in Indonesia.

Pauline E. Muselmann is now serving her third term as missionary in Ecuador. Her address is Casilla 187, Esmeraldas, Ecuador.

Larry and Betty (Hughes) Brown and family have now returned to Ceres, Goias, Brazil, where they will continue their missionary work. While on furlough they had the opportunity of sharing their missionary experiences with people from about 300 congregations through churches, institutes and camps.

Larry and Betty (Hughes) Brown and family have now returned to Ceres, Goias, Brazil, where they will continue their missionary work. While on furlough they had the opportunity of sharing their missionary experiences with people from about 300 congregations through churches, institutes and camps.

Betty Jean (Thompson) Getty and her husband, Paul, are now at The Towers, South Darenth, Kent, England, where Paul will be studying tropical medicine at the London School of Medicine. They will leave for Ganta, Liberia, West Africa, in July, 1962, and Paul will work in a 60-bed hospital and also work with nearly 1000 lepers in a nearby leprosarium. Betty will teach in the mission school and care for Steven, 4, and Mary Lou, 1 year.

Norbert O. Anderson Family

Norbert O. Anderson and family do medical missionary work in Haiti. They have worked in this field for over four years and will be leaving on furlough in May. The Lord has worked a number of miracles in the establishment of their new hospital.

Fred and Gloria (Krebs) '52' Kleinhen have been in Viet Nam since October, 1958. During this time they have learned a new language, new customs, adapted to the culture, trying to help in the work of the Lord. There the church is self-governing and missionaries are advisers to help in teaching, evangelism, etc. Their address is 38/6A Nguyen-cong-Tru, BacLiew, Viet Nam.

Don McFarland and family have been working in Nigeria, Africa, but at present are on furlough at 218 Laurel Road, Stratford, New Jersey. Joe and Eleanor (Speicher '52) Spacek are now at Shorewood Hills, Sawyer, Michigan, on furlough after five years in Hawaii. Joe is busy presenting the work done in the Islands, while Ellie keeps the home fires for Marilyn 7, Sharon 4, and David 2.
Global Taylor —

Bruce and Joyce (Gain) Moore have returned to Ecuador after an eighteen month furlough. This term they want to translate the Word into Colorado, the language of the tribe in Western Ecuador where they live. Stephen, 9, and Rolfe, 7, will be in the Alliance School for missionaries' children in Quito and Paul, 4, and Carol, 2, will go with their parents to the tribe.

IN THE FAMILY

News of the Classes

--- 1925 ---

George and Wilma (Rupp x'27) Stoddard, 11545 Panchito Street, El Monte, California, continue their ministry at their church and are able to see gradual progress. George is chaplain of the local American Legion Post and in addition, is chaplain of the 18th District, composed of 36 Legion Posts.

--- 1937 ---

A new book, CASEBOOK IN PASTORAL COUNSELING, co-edited by John Monroe Vayhinger and Newman S. Cryer, Jr., has just been published. It is a unique collection of 56 cases, drawn entirely from the field of pastoral counseling. Dr. Vayhinger is professor of pastoral psychology and counseling at Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston Illinois. He and his family live at 1318 Hinman. Mrs. Vayhinger is the former Ruth Imler x'39.

--- 1952 ---

H. J. Buwalda was named general chairman of the city and county-wide evangelistic series of meetings held April 8-13 at Monroe, Michigan. These meetings are sponsored by the Monroe Council of Churches of which Herb is first vice-president.

Melvin and Barbara (Norris x'33) Haas and family now live in Nashville, Tennessee, where they serve a church on the outskirts of the city. Joey is 9, Trudy, 7, Beverly, 4, and James Melvin, 1.

--- 1953 ---

Mary (Gerow) and Richard '54, Corliss live at 16 Hedge Court, Champaign, Illinois, where Dick is associate pastor at the University Baptist Church at the University of Illinois. He also teaches a religious credit course. Jimmy was three last September and Chuck was born in February, 1961.

Eva Lou Dillin is the physical education director in the campus laboratory school at Wisconsin State College in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. Her address is 1226 College Street.

Dorothy (Burgess) Greimann is teaching a combination second and third grade at a school in Indianapo-

--- 1954 ---

Martha Peaslee writes of the girls' camp she directed in Honduras, Central America, in December, (outdoors), with swimming twice a day. Facilities were not Stateside but it was successful and enjoyed by all. The Youth Retreat, camp, Bible classes and Bible Institute are all an important part of her work on this field.

Lila (Hansen) Cosmades and daughters, Debbie and Heather, are now at Kortoglu Sok. 5/7, Kurtulus, Istanbul, Turkey, since the Greek Orthodox Church refused them a longer stay in Greece. Her husband, Thomas, stayed in Istanbul one month and then returned to Greece under a new entry. He asks for our prayers for his ministry in this land so desperately needing the gospel.

--- 1955 ---

Mike and Lorena (Smith x'56) Murphy, who are missionaries in Brazil, write that Mike will serve as president of the field auxiliary committee, film coordinator for pictures sent to the home office in Brazil and director of evangelism, in addition to his regular load of teaching and pastoring. Lorena teaches in the Institute which opened February 25. In addition she is translating student reports which are sent to the States, is librarian and works with Mike in the tract department. Of course, she also takes care of her family, Scotty and Valerie.

William and Joan (Selleck x'57) Yoder tell of the January Youth for Christ rally in Berlin, which again had a large attendance. Recently they have had the opportunity to visit with several families in East Berlin.

C. P. Tarkington and family are in Denver where he works in the Overseas Christian Servicemen's Center's office. He and his wife, Alma, both take classes at the Western Bible Institute and Alma serves as campus nurse also. Their three children, Timothy, Lena Beth and Jo Carol, enjoyed the snow in Denver, after having been in the tropical Philippines for the last five years.

--- 1961 ---

Sue Dunham is now in Ganta, Liberia. The work of the station consists of evangelistic work, literature and literacy programs, a large industrial department and an extensive medical program. Sue's main task is working in the school of nursing, doing classroom teaching, supervising the students as they learn new procedures, teaching French in the mission school, and of course, carrying out the usual duties of a nurse.
News of the Classes

lils. Indiana. Her husband, Tom, is a graduate of Purdue in Civil Engineering. They live at 437 South Butler, Indianapolis.

Gordon Hansen and family live at 160 Delacy Avenue, North Plainfield, New Jersey, where he works for Standard Brands, Inc. as administrative assistant to the manager of warehousing and Distribution. Scott was born January 6, 1960.

Harvey and Mary (Wiley ’56) Hernandez write that this is Harvey’s fifth year in Waterford Township Schools and editor of the church newspaper. Super University (Oakland) one night a week and works part time at a Federal Store. They have two adopted children, Tim, an Asiatic Indian, 3½, and Debbie, a Mexican baby, almost 1½. The minister of the newly chartered church to which the Hernandez family belongs is served by Ronald ’55 and Hope (Dakin ’54) Thompson.

Bill and Mary (Von Bergen ’54) Hesse have the First United Methodist Church in Springfield, Ohio, for five years. Becky, 8 years old, is in the third grade and Beth, 7, is in the second. Ruth Ann is three years old. Their address is 1910 Mound Street.

Warren and Esther (Hund) Johnson still live at 408 Joliet Road, Marquette Heights, Pekin, Illinois, where Warren is a car distributor for the Peoria and Pekin Union Railway, and editor of the church newspaper. Esther is a substitute teacher and organist in their church. They have two children, Sally, 7, and David 5.

Jim Lantz and family live at 809 East Main Street, Muncie, Indiana, where they serve the Main Street Methodist Church. The church is in a transient area with many problems and presents a real challenge. Steven is four years old, Bill, two, and Ann Marie, about seven months.

Mary (Fisher) Kauffman writes that her husband, Bob, is chief accountant at the Bloomington Mennonite Hospital and president of the young adult class in their church. Mary does staff duty on the evening shift part-time, and teaches a class. Susan, 3½, and Laura, 2, love Sunday School and start asking to go to church on Tuesday of each week. Their address is 207 South Coolidge, Normal, Illinois.

Leon and Jared (Fermum ’52) Nicholson serve the Methodist Church in Churbuse, Indiana, about 20 miles north of the new Taylor site. Jean is church secretary, Sunday School teacher and a district W.S.C.S. officer. Phil, 7 years old, and Mark Stephen was born December 27, 1961.

Jim Roberts now lives at Anoka, Minnesota, but previously served the C. & M.A. Church in Harlem, Montana, among the American Indians on the Fort Belknap Reservation. They have four children.

Paul and Winifred (Murray ’51) Scott live at 3376 Basswood Lane, Cincinnati 39, Ohio. Paul is training specialist in the Industrial Relations Division of Procter and Gamble. Winifred finds plenty to do with their church work and caring for Christine 9, Suzanne 7, Paula 5, and Rebecca 3.

Roy Shervy and family now live at 1212 First Avenue West, Spencer, Iowa, where he works as Director of Christian Education in the First Congregational Church, Mildred has 25 youngsters in grades 4, 5 and 6 and Roy has 21 junior high’s and 32 senior high’s. The youth program is run from 4-7 each Sunday evening. Mark is 7 years old and Joyce, 4.

Howard Somers and family now live at 951 East Riley Road, R. R. 3, Owosso, Michigan. Last August they had the privilege of visiting their son Keith and family in Costa Rica. This summer they expect to take a leave of absence from work and go to Medellin, Colombia, to visit the family, which works under the O.M.S.

Gladys (Cleveland) and Richard ‘54, Steiner are living at 118 N. R. 1, Bluffton, Ohio, where Dick teaches French and English in the high school. Gladys is kept busy at home with Kent 5, Craig 3, Kim 1½ and Beth Colette, born January 29.

Eloise (Gerig) Thorne and husband, Jerry, live at 907 Whittier Avenue, Akron 20, Ohio. Jerry serves the Chapel on Fir Hill, with a membership of nearly 2000, as minister of youth. He also helps in the printing work which involves his art talents. Eloise plans to teach but at present is enjoying her stay at home with Susan, 3.

Richard and Mary Lee (Wilson) Turner live at Bay Port, Michigan, where they serve two Methodist churches. In addition to her “home” work, caring for Kathy 4, and Kenny 2, Mary Lee helps with the music and is Secretary of Christian Social Relations for the Saginaw Bay District of the Women’s Society of Christian Service.

James and Sara (Lindke) Weiss have pastored the Stephens Methodist Church in Dearborn, Michigan, for four years and live at 20201 Annapolis. David is five years old and Mary Alice was born October 3, 1961.

Martha (Fordyce) and Jerry ’54, Welsh serve the First Methodist Church in Carson City, Michigan. Annette is three years old and is happy to have a little sister, Jeanine, born January 19, 1961.

Warren and Maralyn (Gerlach) Williams live at 4198 Christine Lane, West Palm Beach, Florida. Warren teaches in a large junior high school, has taught one night a week and works for the teachers for 3 years.

Credit Union after school and Saturdays. Gary is now four years old, Tim, seven and Randy, three.

Don and Shirley (Lunde ’52) Jacobsen are presently at 13 Lachmund Court, Old Tappan, New Jersey, but will be transferred soon. Don is in Personnel for Western Electric Company. They have a little girl who is five years old and a boy about two.

Bill and Edith (Casperon x’54) Rediger are in their sixth season in Boca Raton, Florida, near the Bible Conference Grounds. Bill works in the Broward County school system in the Diagnostic Center.

Curt and Mary (Von Delinde x’54) Lake live at 5453 42nd Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Curt is Corrective Therapist at the V.A. Hospital and Mary is kept busy with Becky 3, and Bobby, about 1½ years.

Jane Ericson has had two wonderful years working for Michigan State University in Saigon and is now back in East Lansing as secretary to the head of the Food Science Department. She lives at 427 Grove Street and would be happy to see her T.U. classmates.

— 1954 —

Helen Bylsma, Sunnemerville, Pennsylvania, is Director of the Child Evangelism Fellowship in her county, with 19 Bible Clubs organized and a number of others to be finalized. There are 8600 children in this county so the task is a big one.

Herschel Engerbretson is now Associate Editor of the Sunday School Times and is living at 6714 Revere Street, Philadelphia 49, Pennsylvania. David Frazer has been named pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, Spencerville, Ohio. Formerly he was at the Salem Methodist at Mt. Washington, Ohio.

— 1956 —

William Fahrenholz works for the National Cash Register Company. He and his family live at 4807 Neptune Lane, Dayton 24, Ohio. They have three children, Lisa Kay 5, Jana Lynn 3, and Kara Sue 2.

Ronald and Dorothy (Carney) Cunningham now live at 205 North Oakwood, Griffith, Indiana. Ron works for the Celotex Corporation in their downtown Chicago offices. He is Sunday School Superintendent in the Baptist Church and Dorothy teaches a class. Their daughter, Kathy, is about 2½ years old.

Jarvis Steiner teaches sixth grade and has charge of recreational activities such as basketball, after school, camp in summer. He also teaches Sunday School, and will be a delegate to the N.E.A. Convention in Denver this summer. They have two little boys, Dean 3, and Brad, about 15 months. Their address is 1506 Southmoor, Pekin, Illinois.
Valdrice (Quick) Houg writes that she lost her husband last April 25. She will return to the teaching profession, but at present is working on her M.A. degree and also to get her California elementary credential. She lives at 4059 Terracina Drive, Riverside, California. Her sister, Arvada, is still teaching and lives at 102 Woodward Street, La Porte, Indiana.

Brad and Joyce (Bresson '55) Moore live at Mentone, Indiana, where Joyce teaches at the high school. Brad is a senior at Grace Seminary at Winona Lake. They are now making application to the mission board of the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism. Their son, Tim, is four years old.

Miriam (Sickmeier) Tuttle works as a secretary at the Best Universal Lock Co., Inc., Indianapolis, a firm owned and operated by Christian people. Her husband, Ken, is in the Air Force, stationed at Terre Haute. Their address is 3164 Bonham Drive, Indianapolis.

Ken and Elizabeth (Galloway) Stark are now completing their fourth year at Waterman, Illinois. Ken's basketball team finished third in the conference this year. Next year he hopes to be in a larger school. Mike is four years old.

Shirley Pletcher works as a Director of Christian Education in a Methodist Church in Kingsburg, California. She lives at 2247 18th Street, Apt. 4. She did her graduate work at Scarritt College in Nashville, Tennessee.

John and Marilyn (Wessman) Carlson are at 204 Lafayette Lane, Hoffman Estates, Roselle, Illinois. John works for O. M. Scott and Sons, selling lawn products, serving the northern and western suburbs of Chicago. John, Jr., is four years old and Denise Jean, two.

This June John and Eleanor (Radkte '58) Key will have finished their two year training program in the Salvation Army and will be commissioned as officers. They hope to go to the mission field in the near future. Deborah Lee is four years old and Benjamin Kelley is two.

Joyce (Bowen) Ancil and family live at 1318 East Deffenbaugh, Kokomo, Indiana. Their children are Melanie Sue, 3, and Mark Alan, 5 months. Melanie has been in the hospital 17 times and near death four times but Joyce and her husband, Charles, praise God for what he has done in her behalf.

Don and Barbara (Benjamin '59) Love live at 6420 Bayberry Drive, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Don is Assistant Chief Technology at Parkview Hospital and is supervising instructor of the medical technician students there. Barbara is a nurse and has worked in several of the divisions of the hospital but now is at home caring for Deborah Ruth, 2, and Rebecca Elizabeth, 8 months.

Bob and Joy '58, Tillinghast are in Eastport, New York, where Bob is Director of Development at the high school. Joy taught for two years but is now at home caring for Craig 3½, and Dana Sue, 14 months. Bob is on the Board of Trustees of their church and teaches a class. Both direct a division of the United States Steel Company out of Cleveland. They plan to be on campus on Alumni Day and hope to see many of their friends.

Robert and Joan (Lloyd) Gilkison live at 4610 South 28th Road, Apt. 4, Arlington, Virginia. Bob is Assistant to the Director of Financial Analysis, on the staff of the U. S. Housing Administrator in Washington. He has taken graduate work at American University during the past two years. Joan is at home caring for Valerie Lynne, 3½ and Andrea Lee 1.

Paul and Mary (Cavanaugh x'58) Fendt are at R. R. 2, Durham, North Carolina, where they serve a Methodist Church, and Paul attends Duke Divinity School. He will receive the B.D. from Duke in June and be fully ordained. They plan then to move to Boston for three years where he has been accepted to work on his Ph.D. in Pastoral Psychology. Fred is 4 years old and Mary Kathryn, fifteen months.

Carolyn (Clough) Ohman is busy caring for Julie Maureen 5, Timothy Oscar 4, Andrew Lester 2½, and Laurie Ellen, 3 months. She and her husband, Maurice, live at 2101 Columbia Bay Drive, Lake Villa, Illinois. Maurice has a job in metallurgy with a division of the United States Steel Company in Waukegan, Illinois. Both are very active in their church.

Ben and Mary (Drake) Allison live at 402 Forest Street, Mansfield, Ohio, where Ben is Chief Technical Serviceman with the 164th Tactical Fighter Squadron. They plan to return to Illinois and set up a practice in 1963 after his "hitch" in the Air Force. Nancy Allison is 4 and Sharon Lee, 1 year old.

Dave and Beverly Faris are serving two small country churches just north of Scheneclady, New York. Dave was ordained in 1959 by the United Presbyterian Church. Mark Elliott is 2½ years old and Lorri...
Beth, 1. Their address is R.R. 2, Ballston Spa, New York.

Kenn and Elizabeth (Blackburn x'58) Gangel are at 7301 Beverly, Overland Park, Kansas. Kenn's various duties at the Calvary Bible College include teaching Christian Education, Practical Theology and Bible; directing the radio broadcast; directing the Christian Service Department and traveling with the student gospel team. They have one child, Jeffrey Scott, 2.

Kenneth Tousley was graduated from Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis, Indiana, with a B.D. degree in 1960 and is now serving two Methodist churches north of Fort Wayne, Indiana. He and his family live in a new parsonage at R.R. 2, Union Chapel Road, Fort Wayne. They have three children, Philip 7, Jeffrey 3, and Scott, 10 months.

Janet Benning has received her M.A. degree and is now teaching in the Physical Education Department at Taylor.

Joyce Kauffman teaches third grade in Parma, Ohio, and shares an apartment with her sister at 5115 Warwick Drive. Each summer vacation she has done some traveling but last summer was the most rewarding when she worked as a cook at Cedar Campus, an Inter-Varsity camp in Upper Michigan. She and her sister plan to go back this year.

William and Caron (Gillig x'60) Dvorak live at 2 Park Court, R.R. 3, Grand Ledge, Michigan, where he teaches in the high school. He also is yearbook adviser, varsity tennis coach, swimming director and assistant basketball coach. He finds time to work on his M.A. at Michigan State University also.

Ronald Shaw worked at the Grabill, Indiana, bank for four years, but now has ventured into business on his own with the Nationwide Insurance Company. Ronald and wife, Shelba, teaches in the Fort Wayne school system. They are looking forward to the time when Taylor will be located in Fort Wayne which is only 20 miles from Grabill.

Delmer and Joyce (Schick x'58) Schwanke are at 202 Prentice Road, Painesville, Ohio, where Del works as a quality control chemist for a petroleum corporation. Both are very busy with church work, teaching, and working in a building fund campaign. David is 3½ years old and Bryan, five months.

Chaplain Stanley Beach and family are now at 28 Maple Avenue, Middletown, Rhode Island. He is chaplain for seven destroyers, and though the work is hard, it is satisfying and he enjoys it immensely.

Thomas McGranor has been appointed pastor of the Vaughsville, Ohio, Methodist charge. He is also principal of the Toboso, Ohio Elementary School in Licking Valley School District. They live at Vaughsville.

Austin Havens is Director of Publicity for the Grace Children's Home in Henderson, Nebraska. He is also chairman of the committee in which the University of Nebraska and the Nebraska Association of Child Caring Institutions work cooperatively in planning the House Parent Training Courses, which are conducted each year.

Gene Rupp received his Master's in Education from Bowling Green State University in January, 1962. He and his wife, Nancy (Rowley '60) teach in the school in Archbold, Ohio, where they live at 310 Walnut Street.

John Johnson and family live at 12316 S.E. Madison Street, Portland 35, Oregon, where John teaches at the Portland Christian High School.

James Banker now lives at 38 Manet Road, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. He is working on his Masters in History at Boston University and expects to get his degree in August. Bill Ringenburg teaches in the Leo, Indiana, High School and lives with his parents in Grabill. He plans to spend every summer for three years working on his Masters at either Ball State or Indiana University.

Ruth Ann Stockinger teaches music in three New Castle, Indiana, public schools in grades one through six. This involves approximately 1400 students a week. She lives at R.R. 1, Greens Fork, Indiana.

Danny Freeman is teaching Business Education in the senior high school in Andover, Ohio, just 28 miles from his home in West Springfield, Pennsylvania. He assists with the coaching, the Camera Club, and the Pep Club. He also sings with a church quartet which does gospel team work, teaches Sunday School and is starting graduate work.

Stan Burden is living at 4222 Broadway, Indianapolis 5, and teaches in the city school system. He and Betty Augustine '60, are engaged but have not set a date for the wedding. He has received an assistantship to teach and study at the Purdue University Graduate School, starting in September.

Dave Boyer writes he spends "36" hours a day in what often seems to be the hopeless task of becoming a lawyer. He and Joan Graffis '61, are engaged and have set June 3 as the wedding date. He lives at 211 North 34th Street, Philadelphia 4.

Minnie Patton works as secretary to the Agency vice president of the Jefferson National Life Insurance Company in Indianapolis. She also attends Butler University, working General Laboratories in Syracuse. He is also doing graduate work at Syracuse University. He has made application to the African Inland Mission Board for work in the mission field.

Russell and Nancy (Liechty '61) Oyer now live at 331 North Greenberry Street, Sweetser, Indiana. He teaches math at Oak Hill and she teaches at Swayzee. on her B.S. in Education degree. In addition she works with teenagers in the Shortridge Young Life Club and teaches Driver Training.

Hubert Kuhn lives in a lake cottage at 794 West Shore Drive, Culver, Indiana, and teaches at the high school in Moneterey, Indiana. He is also assistant coach and teaches Driver Training.

After completing her student teaching in November, Carolyn Varga accepted a teaching position in Lombard, Illinois. She has 25 fourth graders and lives with two other teachers at 745 South Main Street.

Scot and Carol (Kaiser '62) Wilson live at 2708 Bowne Street, Flushing 54, New York. Scot is a sales trainee for the Mobil Oil Company and expects to have a territory in a few more months.

Lois Kedge and Robert J. Jackson '62, plan to be married on June 23. She is in her second grade in Elmhurst, not far from her home at 2738 North Meade Ave., Chicago 39.

Stanley Morton teaches at the Hartford Center high school near Berne and lives at R. R. 2, Montpelier, Indiana.

Jerry Goss writes that he enlisted but did not say which branch of the Armed Services. Neither did he give his address but his home is at 623 East Marshall, Marion, Indiana.

The months since graduation have been exciting ones for Larry Fuhrer. After working eleven weeks for the Port Wayne Y.M.C.A. as counselor and unit director, he went to Miami where he worked with the Youth for Christ there. At present he is working with the Y.F.C. in Marion, Indiana.

Bob and Judy (Ohlrich '62) Rudolph live on Rusco Street, N. W., Kent City, Michigan. Bob teaches at the high school and is also assistant coach. He also sponsors the Kent City Bible Club.

Besides teaching music in grades 1 through 12, at Petroleum High School, near Bluffton, Indiana, Sally Runyon is junior class sponsor. She has completed 11 hours at Ball State on her Masters. She lives at R. R. 2, Bryant, Indiana.

Sam and Mary (Carlson) Delcamp live on campus where Sam is head resident of Fairlawn and is in charge of gospel team activities. He has also started work on his Masters degree. Mary enjoys teaching fourth grade in Hartford City. They both enjoy campus activities with no study requirements.

Teaching 10th grade English at a high school near her home is made especially enjoyable by Sue Coats because of its being a new school with a strong nucleus of Christian teachers. Her address is 908 Albright Drive, Jackson, Michigan.

Bruce Brenneman teaches six classes of 7th and 8th grade English at a school in Fillmore, New York, about four miles from Houghton College. He lives just off campus with Dave Mitchener '63. Bruce is also yearbook advisor, directs the junior and senior class plays, sings in the Faculty Chorus, and in the Houghton Oratorio Society. His address is Box 12, Houghton, New York.

Phoenix, Arizona, is Judy Sweet's new home, at 3132 West Rovey Avenue. She teaches 34 third graders at a school which has half-day sessions. Her hours are 12:30-5:00. Schools are so large there they have 1400 enrolled where she teaches.

Irvin Polk writes he is working at the Excel Corporation in Elkhart long enough to pay off his college debts. He works with the youth group in his church and teaches the junior high Sunday School class. He and Ray Bachman live together at 1025 First Avenue, working as an educational assistant at Trinity Methodist in Elkhart. Ray has managed to fill the days with activities. He is also taking 8 hours at the Mennonite Bible Seminary there which he enjoys but finds it difficult to study with so much work at the church. He feels that Irvin is the best dishwasher the Department of Religion here has ever turned out.

Elsbeth Baris has accepted a teaching position in the Evangelical Alliance Mission and is at Moody as a one-year graduate student. She enjoys the courses there, especially the Bible, Christian Education and Music. She hopes to go to the mission field soon, but may teach one year for practical experience.

Ruth Schinkel is teaching second and third grades in a completely new building, with rooms like those pictured in magazines. She likes teaching and enjoys the rich fellowship of the Bethel Baptist Church. Her address is 1458 Forbes, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Audrey Berndt is in graduate school at the University of Minnesota, where she is "pursuing" an M.A. in Library Science. She also works half-time in the graduate records room.

Bob Bruce teaches Junior High in Elmhurst and coaches a basketball team. He lives at 241 South Scoville, Oak Park, Illinois.

Jim and Marge (Eby) Crowder live at 1209 North Busey, Urbana, Illinois. Jim is a research assistant in the field of plasma physics in the Coordinated Science Laboratory at the University of Illinois. Marge teaches commerce and English in a high school at St. Joseph, Illinois, near Urbana.

Jim and Nancy (Norrenberns) Reynolds are a school which now different the "world" is from Taylor, but the Lord has given strength for the challenge. Jim is in Washington University Medical School and even though it is very difficult, he loves it. Nancy has 27 third graders, 23 of whom are Jewish. They are well educated at the temples and take Hebrew or Greek lessons after school to study the Old Testament and come up with some searching questions. They both teach Sunday School classes. Their address is 14 South Court, St. Louis 8.

Lucille Entz teaches 29 lively fifth graders. She and Tim Diller '62, have announced their engagement and Tim's arrival back in the States after a summer with Venture for Victory will determine the date of their marriage. She lives on campus.

Four Taylorites Teach in the Waterford - Kettering High School, Drayton Plains, Michigan.

(L-R) Richard Shupe, Janice Miller, Dee Larson, Irv Thompson

Irvin is assistant football coach, varsity baseball coach and teaches driver education and mathematics. He and his wife, Carol (Howland '60) live at 942 Navajo, Pontiac, Michigan.

Dee teaches Home Economics. She is one of the junior sponsors, and also sponsors the junior varsity cheerleaders. She is working on her Master's in Guidance at Wayne State University. She lives at 15751 West 14 Mile Road, Birmingham, Michigan.

Richard teaches Business Education. His wife, Barbara (Schultz '59) teaches at Waterford Township School and they live at 4012 Baybrook Drive, Drayton Plains, Michigan. They both plan to complete work on their Master's degrees this summer at Michigan State.

Janice teaches English in grades 9 and 10. She sponsors the Bible Club and Girls Athletic Club, serves as English Club building representative and is secretary of the English Department. She, Beverly Corts and Barbara Jacobson, also of '61, live at 1118 Pelham, Pontiac, Michigan.
Diane Tenpas has been seriously ill for some time with hepatitis. She is much improved now and is at her home at 708 North 28th Street, Sheboygan, Wisconsin. She will not be able to teach full time next year, but hopes to do substitute teaching. She would appreciate hearing from her friends.

"Boston is wonderful"—so say Joe and Judy (Boll) Brain, who live at 28 Gorham Street, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts. Mornings Judy teaches P.E. for Cambridge Christian High—doing this with an English major and an art minor makes it interesting and fun. Afternoons she works as children's librarian for the Boston Public Library. Joe keeps busy at Harvard with a 23 hour load and most of the professors teach only one course, so they go all out with lecture notes, etc. They have a seventh grade Sunday School class and the senior youth group at an Episcopal church. They plan to be at Taylor around Commencement time. This summer they'll be at Brookhaven National Laboratories before returning to Boston in the fall.

Teaching 30 third graders has taught Sharon Rupp more than her pupils, she writes. There are 550 pupils, plus 50 physically handicapped children in the new school where she teaches. One wing is especially adapted for them. She has also been deeply touched by a blind girl with cerebral palsy playing a piano solo at their Thanksgiving program. Her address is 1718 Crescent Avenue, Fort Wayne.

Tom and Marilyn (Zimmerman) Webb have now returned from their overseas tour and are at R. R. 1, Bluffton, Ohio. They have received their assignment at Kelly A.F.B., San Antonio, Texas, so plan to be there from June 15.

Teaching her 34 fourth graders proves a daily challenge, writes Ruth (Volk) Carlisle, but she likes it. She was married last October and her husband is in the Air Force. She lives at 60 South 14th Street, Richmond, Indiana.

Greg Maurer teaches math in the High School at Upland and because of his being a Business-History major, he says it takes him a couple of hours longer to prepare a test than it does for the students to take it. Greg is kept busy filling requests as organist and never has had a Sunday when he hasn't been busy with this type of service.

"You never miss the water till the well runs dry," says John Oswalt, in regard to the fellowship he had with his classmates at Taylor. However new experiences replace the old. He worked with his brother-in-law in his church during the summer and in a marine repair yard also. He finds the academic atmosphere at Asbury Seminary deeply stimulating. He will be married August 11 at the First Baptist Church in Lake Orion, Michigan.

Judy (Lammon) Sampson and her husband both teach in a high school close to their home in Eau Claire, Michigan. They both teach Sunday School classes in the Congregational Church there.

Vernon '60, and Sonja (Anderson) Gay live at 75 Brookdale Gardens, Bloomfield, New Jersey. Sonja is Assistant to the Director of Sales Promotion for Elementary and High School Textbooks, at Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., publishers. Vernon runs a research laboratory for a neuro-surgeon at the New York University Bellevue Medical Center. He attends N.Y.U. evenings, in preparation for graduate studies at the N.Y.U. Medical School, starting this fall.

Bob Olson is busy working in a sales training program with the Phoenix Metal Cap Company of Chicago, which is the fourth largest plastic and metal cap company in the U.S. He also works within the Widey group, Y.P.C. He and Barbara Jacobson '61, will be married June 30 and live in the Chicago area where Barb will teach. He lives at 718 North 7th Avenue, Maywood, Illinois.

Joyce Huebner is attending graduate school at Wheaton College and lives at 419 North Wheaton.

Part of Marti Brose's graduate training at Indiana University School of Social Service is gained through working 25 hours a week for the Department of Public Welfare of Indianapolis, where she counsels with clients on a professional basis. Through doing this work she has learned that books do not hold all the answers. She hopes to spend the summer in New England. Her address is R. R. 6, Box 72, Greenfield, Indiana.

John Lee is at Purdue studying to be a biophysicist. He attends the Inter-Varsity Fellowship for students interested in high school teaching.

John Affleck is attending graduate school at the University of Michigan. His wife, Hope, has an interesting job as dental assistant. They live at 323½ North Main Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The Sprungers, Carolyn (Haas) and Leroy, live at 386 Hendricks, Berne, Indiana. Carolyn works for a local doctor and Leroy carries the mail. The Taylor student teachers assigned to Berne stay with them.

Harold and June (Gove) Beal live in a five room house, beautifully situated on the Ohio hills, at 1046 Mansfield-Washington Road, Mansfield, Ohio. Harold is a probation officer in the Richland County Juvenile Court, working with 30 boys, ranging in age from 11-18. June is clinical instructor in pediatrics at Mansfield General Hospital.

Teaching at the McCurdy School in Santa Cruz, New Mexico, Fred Pomeroy has found the schedule very heavy but the work rewarding. Most of the 325 students are Spanish with many from the mountains where school facilities are non-existent or limited. Coaching is the most enjoyable part of teaching in his opinion.

Ray '59, and Alberta (Weeks) Merz are in Dayton, Ohio, where Ray is in his final year at United Theological Seminary. Alberta teaches science to an eighth grade class in the Northmont High School. They expect to be assigned to a church in the southwest area of Ohio after June.

Clarence Stueart is now married and lives at 2018 Florence, Marion, Indiana. He teaches in the Johnny Appleseed School for Retarded Children in Fort Wayne.

Jan Watson is studying toward a Master's degree in Theatre Art at the University of Michigan. She is a teaching fellow, which means she is a costume technician and supervisor of construction of costumes for the seven major productions of the year. She will have completed her work by the end of the summer and plans high school teaching.

Dennis Thompson was married July 15, 1962, and they are at United Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio. His wife works as a nurse at a local hospital and she does any part-time jobs that come up. He has met many Taylor grads at the seminary and through the Dayton Alumni Chapter of which he is the president.

Teaching seventh grade English at Warsaw, Indiana, has proved to be one of the most exciting and rewarding activities so far, so writes Marge Cook. She also teaches a Sunday School class and is counselor for the youth group in her church. She tutors in French, English and Literature and is learning German on her own. Her address is R. R. 2, Claypool, Indiana.

Presently, Judy (Hoffman) and DeWayne '60, Bontrager are in New York City. Judy teaches kindergarten in New Rochelle and DeWayne attends Biblical Seminary, where they live during the week. They have a small apartment near the First Presbyterian Church in Flushing, New York, where DeWayne works as student assistant to the minister on weekends.

Charles and Pat (Hard) Griffin live at 414 Locust Street, Lockport, New York, where Pat teaches Dental Histology and Dental Health Education at Erie County Technical Institute in Buffalo. Charles teaches ninth grade English in Lockport.

Marlene Silvis and Rae Howell live together at 215 Bluff Walk, Mel-
Rev. and Mrs. Harry C. Williams (Lorna Green), both of the class of 1951, are proud parents of twins, Dale Sherman and Doyle Donald, born May 6, 1961. They live at Middleport, North Dakota, where they serve the Methodist Church. Harry also is Executive Secretary of the Conference Town and Country Commission and District Secretary of Missions.

Jack and Ruth (Malson '58) Bishop announce the birth of Timothy Dion, born December 12. They live in Ruskin, Florida.

Les and Kathy (Lauber) Jackson, both of the class of '60, are happy to announce the arrival of Scott Allen, born January 12. They live in Ruskin, Florida.

Robert '45, and Ruth (Coughenour '47) Cox, who live at 154 West Van Buren, Berne, Indiana, are happy over the arrival of David William, born January 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bachman (Tyyne Kiika '56) are the proud parents of Tabitha Ann, born November 27, 1961.

Bill '52, and Mary Wortman are the parents of Martha Adams Wortman, born December 28. They are still working under the Latin America Mission in Costa Rica.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Mannix (Ida Wessman '48) a girl, Martha Lou, on January 7.

Edward and Alieda M. (Bushey '51) Deal are the proud parents of Alieda Dawn, born January 23, 1962. Their address is 19 Pierce Street, Coldwater, Michigan.

Paul and Chloetta (Egly) Erdel, both of the class of 1950, are happy to announce the birth of Ruth Eileen on January 23. She is their fourth child and first girl.

Art and Sandy (Brannon) Lomax, x'57, announce the birth of Jalene Ruth on March 27, 1962.

Theodore '54, and Ruth (Allspaw '56) Hopkins are the proud parents of Martha Bermice, born March 21, 1962. Sara, 5, and Phoebe, 21 months, are her teachers in the art of being a P. K. (Preacher's Kid.)

John and Denise Johnson '58, are happy to announce the birth of Keith David on October 27, 1961. He has a big sister, Jeanine Rachel, 2½ years old.

Paul Hoff '49, and Betty Kingman were united in marriage on March 3. They are at Casilla 1448, La Paz, Bolivia.

COMING NEXT FALL
A "COLLECTOR'S ITEM" THE SEPTEMBER ALUMNUS
Featuring
A FASCINATING PICTORIAL HISTORY OF TAYLOR
By Prof. E. Sterl Phinney