Building on the Foundation of Fort Wayne Bible College
MESSIAH SING-ALONG

It has been 100 years since Taylor University celebrated Christmas in Fort Wayne. So when the Fort Wayne Philharmonic approached the University with the opportunity to perform Handel’s Messiah, there was truly a reason to celebrate. Taylor University Chorale and several TUFW singers joined in performing with the orchestra. It was a doubly significant presentation in that it was the 250th anniversary of the writing of Handel’s Messiah and it was the first time a Sing Along Messiah had been performed in Fort Wayne.

Neighbors of TUFW were invited to attend the concert with a special Christmas incentive of complimentary tickets. Taylor plans to continue the sing along format annually, so plan to celebrate Christmas in this way with us next year!

Constructing an image of what campus life is about, allowing time for individuals to experience TUFW, creating a moment for relatives to reunite: Parents Weekend 1992 (Oct. 24 & 25) brought us together as a family! For many, it was the first chance to visit the newly merged Fort Wayne campus while others considered it a journey through “memory lane.” Student Life along with Student Government provided an entertaining, yet educational, weekend for all those who attended. The day began with registration in Witmer Hall and an open house of the Education Department, organized by Dr. Alice Joy Weddle. After enjoying lunch in the dining cafeteria, a choice of either participating in open residence halls or attending a football game on the Upland campus had to be made. That evening, Student Government sponsored an “Ole Fashion Hoedown” which involved lots of participation and interaction. Sunday, parents spent time with students worshipping God in a church of their choice.

Carolyn Arthur, dean of students, commented that, “For our first effort, we felt that the entire weekend was a great success. We have already begun the initial plans for next year’s event.”

As a result of the merger of Summit Christian College and Taylor University on July 1, 1992, Taylor University returned, after 250 years, to the city of her founding -- Fort Wayne.

To mark the special occasion, a series of festivities entitled "Celebrating a New Tradition," was set into motion once students returned to campus for the fall semester. The celebration included open houses hosted by the Office of Admissions, special chapel services, luncheons, a ribbon cutting ceremony, a balloon launch, a concert, alumni soccer games and a family BBQ.

The festivities started on Wednesday, September 16, with a chapel service featuring Taylor University president, Dr. Jay Kesler. Immediately following chapel a ribbon cutting ceremony took place on the front lawn of Witmer Hall by the newly erected Taylor University, Fort Wayne Campus sign. After the reading of the Litany of Celebration, the event ended with a spectacular balloon launch.

Thursday's activities included a concert by "The Talleys" and Friday the Fort Wayne campus was privileged to have Dr. William Pannell, Fort Wayne Bible College alumnus and current Taylor trustee, as guest chapel speaker.

The "Celebrating a New Tradition" activities came to a close Saturday, September 19, with alumni soccer games and a Fort Wayne campus family BBQ. Over 700 people came together for fantastic food and fellowship.

"Celebrating a New Tradition" offered a great opportunity to celebrate the merger of the two institutions and the return of Taylor University to Fort Wayne. Throughout the festivities the last words of the Litany of Celebration were a constant reminder of the true reason for celebration...

"We celebrate the molding of two great traditions into a single new tradition, energized by the testing of more than a century and proven in the crucible of God's providence. We pledge ourselves to the ongoing challenge of providing a quality educational experience in harmony with the precepts of God, in whatever capacity our relationship to the University should dictate. We invoke the blessing of God upon this new tradition we launch today -- Taylor University in Fort Wayne."

Taylor University was honored to host Russian educator Dr. Dmitri Doronichev, Dean of the Business School at Nizhni Novgorod State University during his two-week stay in America.

Dr. Doronichev has been instrumental in initiating the first Christian value-based MBA curriculum (sponsored by the Christian College Coalition) offered at NNU. The MBA program at NNU officially began November 26, 1992 and already 1,500 of the University's 10,000 students are enrolled in the program. Of his many purposes in visiting Taylor University, he wanted to observe how Taylor classes integrate faith and learning.

During his visit, Dr. Doronichev spent two days in Fort Wayne at which time he took part in a faculty reception, chapel, a Rotary luncheon, attended classes, toured Lutheran Hospital and visited one of Fort Wayne's shopping malls.

The Taylor Business, Accounting and Economics Department has been developing a relationship with NNU's Business Department. Last summer Professor Jim Coe, Upland, spent a week at NNU. In October, the Taylor Business Department sent almost 300 textbooks to NNU to start, at their request, the TAYLOR/NIZHNI NOVGOROD BUSINESS LIBRARY.
Fort Wayne Campus Profile from A to Z

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS - presently include biblical literature, business, Christian education, early childhood and elementary education, general studies, international studies, pastoral ministries and psychology with additional programs being developed.

BUSINESS - currently a two-year business degree is offered with consideration being given to a four-year bachelor degree. Taylor's business program is nationally recognized for its integration of faith and learning.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF THE ARTS - under the direction of Dr. Jay Platte, exists to meet the expressional needs of people of all ages in the family, church, school and community.

DONORS - gifts may be specifically designated for the Fort Wayne campus. The University is grateful for the continual, faithful donor support.

ENROLLMENT - fall semester enrollment stands at 411 which meets the projected goal. We are encouraged by the strong retention rate and the genuine spirit of excitement among students.

FACULTY - there are 31 full-time and 32 part-time faculty members on the Fort Wayne campus...all professionally experienced in their academic disciplines.

GRADUATE STUDIES - in the near future, the Fort Wayne campus could offer graduate programs in psychology, theology and education.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME - 150 students now call the campus dormitories their "home away from home." The remainder of students commute.

INSTITUTE OF CORRESPONDENCE STUDIES - with a current enrollment of over 2700 students, the Institute of Correspondence Studies offers college level studies for students, teachers, ministers, missionaries, lay leaders and all who wish for advanced education but are unable to attend college for residence study.

JAY KESLER - president of Taylor University, Dr. Kesler has committed to the Fort Wayne campus his time, energy and prayers to maintain the integrity of the foundation that was laid over 100 years ago by individuals like Bishop William Taylor and J. E. Ramseyer.

KENNETH SWAN - vice president for the Fort Wayne campus, Dr. Swan provides resident program leadership and management on the Fort Wayne campus in cooperation with all other senior officers of the University.

LEARNING SUPPORT CENTER - the center provides individual and group assistance for all students in developing and enhancing reading, writing, math, and study strategies through classes, academic counseling, instructional materials, videos and computer software.

MERGER/LIAISON - Dr. Charles Jaggers, senior vice president for Taylor University, divides his time between the two campuses serving as merger/liaison officer and strategic officer.

NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENTS - with 30% of the Fort Wayne student body being "adult" students, it is a fact that non-traditional students enhance the learning environment and make the Taylor education even stronger.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH - chapel, Bible studies, Spiritual Emphasis Week and student ministries are only a few of the opportunities available to students to enhance spiritual growth.

PASTORAL MINISTRIES - Dr. David Biberstein continues to give direction to the Fort Wayne pastoral ministries program...a program widely recognized for its superior training of pastors and church workers.

QUALITY STAFF AND ADMINISTRATION - leadership and commitment, characterized by quality and professionalism, make up the teamwork effort of the staff and administration.

RADIO STATION - 90.3 FM, WBCL, is the radio station "aimed at your heart." The 50,000 watt station offers Christian music, AP Network and local news, and the best of national Christian programs.

SPECIAL EVENTS - the well received concert/lecture series continues on the Fort Wayne campus under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Fox.

TRADITION - by merging Taylor University and Summit Christian College, the 250 year old tradition of balanced Christian education continues.

URBAN SETTING - Fort Wayne's urban environment abounds with personal, social and educational opportunities ranging from the Fort Wayne Philharmonic to Komet hockey to practical experience in supervised internships.

VARSITY SPORTS - collegiate and intercollegiate competition in men's basketball and soccer, and women's basketball and volleyball.

WBCY - 89.5 FM, transmits its signal about 40 miles in most directions of Archbold, Ohio, simulcasting WBCL's programming.

XTRA - students receive xtra individualized attention with the faculty/student ratio at 18:1.

YOUTH MINISTRIES - one of the many areas of ministry Fort Wayne students become involved in each semester. The rich tradition of voluntary service to the community, churches and social agencies continues on the Fort Wayne campus.

ZEAL TO SERVE - as a result of the integration of faith and learning, students leave the Fort Wayne campus with the zeal to serve whether it be in a corporate board room, in a church, in the classroom, or on the mission field.
"The core of what we are about as an institution, is still people... and it is my prayer that our institution will continue to be a place where hearts are set aflame with zeal for loyal service in Christ the Savior's name."

1991-1992
Honor Roll of Donors

In appreciation of those who supported Summit Christian College

It is a special privilege to thank you for your sacrificial and generous gifts to Summit Christian College during the 1991-92 school year. The numerous expressions of support during this year of merger were truly outstanding. As a result of your gifts, students were helped, a dedicated faculty was supported and the administration was able to meet critical needs to help in God’s work at Fort Wayne.

As one who is well acquainted with gift support for colleges and ministries, I realize that the record of giving for this institution has been outstanding. Historically, Summit Christian College alumni have given at a level and with a frequency and quantity far above what is considered average for an institution of its size.

Beyond your financial support, thank you for your encouragement at an even deeper level. Throughout the merger and transition of this past year many of you have written encouraging letters and continually prayed for the leaders.

We believe God has intervened to sustain the work He began on this campus nearly one hundred years ago. Through God’s grace, the merger, and your faithful giving, this work continues. Wes Gerig, Alice Joy Weddle, Dave Biberstein and Arlan Birkey are familiar faces you would recognize if you visited campus today. Eddie Reynolds, Don Hamm, Richard Baxter and Carolyn Arthur are also part of the familiar, dedicated staff who continue at Taylor University Fort Wayne. Char Binkley and her committed staff are continuing the great radio ministry of WBCL.

The college that you have known and loved has now become a part of my leadership responsibilities. We are going to great lengths to preserve the programs and heritage that have made this college a beacon of Christian higher education for nearly a century.

Thank you for standing with us in this great step of faith. Please remember us in your prayers as we look to the future. We are and will continue to be greatly dependent on the Lord as well as your prayers and financial support. By God’s grace we will be good stewards of your gifts and the sacred responsibility now entrusted to us.

Over the past year, a lot has happened on the Fort Wayne campus. We have a new name, a new administration, and a new board. Yet, much remains the same—a commitment to training Christian leaders, familiar faculty, and many returning students. The campus is simply now part of a larger vision and new opportunities for greater impact are evident.

Responses to the merger of Summit Christian College and Taylor University have been overwhelmingly positive. In talking with faculty, students, alumni and even neighborhood residents, I find enthusiasm for their association with Taylor.

A year before the merger, President DON GERIG and I met a number of times to discuss the future of the college and joined in prayer to learn what the best course would be. With the approval of the board, we approached Taylor officials, Jay Kesler and Daryl Yost, about the possibility of exploring a merger of the two institutions. With so much in common, it seemed a natural thing to pursue.

Not long after, a study was set in motion by Taylor. The rest is history: the joining of two of the finest Christian colleges in the nation. One, outstanding among Bible colleges, the other at the top in academics and character building among small Christian liberal arts colleges and universities.

Now Taylor University, Fort Wayne, as much as ever, needs the financial and prayer support of all its alumni and friends. There are great opportunities for the ministry of this university, and they will not be met without everyone’s continued help.

It has been my privilege to serve on the board of Summit Christian College for many years. I have been a strong supporter of this wonderful institution. Don Gerig was outstanding in his leadership as president for the past six years. We owe him a great debt of gratitude for his tireless service and insights. I join a great host of friends in wishing him the very best from the Lord in his new pastoral ministry.

Now as a member of Taylor’s board of trustees, I will continue my support of the Fort Wayne campus, and I ask you to do the same. There are good things ahead. The future is bright for Taylor University in Fort Wayne.

Sixteen years since its beginning, the ministry of WBCL continues to fill the air waves with quality Christian programming 24 hours a day. And it wouldn't be possible without generous listeners! God has used your prayers and gifts to touch the lives of thousands as they daily tune to WBCL for the hope and love found in the message of Jesus Christ.
When Andrew Schmidt and Emilie Kliever left Kansas in 1905 to attend Fort Wayne Bible Institute, I doubt if they thought they had started a family tradition. The two later got married and had seven children, five of whom attended FWBC. Of the five, none was more dedicated to her school than their daughter Evelyne.

Evelyne enrolled in 1940 as a student at Fort Wayne Bible College. Staying only 2 1/2 years, she returned to Kansas. Over the next 15 years, she worked in Missionary Churches and in various management positions.

While a student at FWBC, Evelyne had become acquainted with the Dean and professor, Dr. Witmer. He had kept in contact with her over the years through various Missionary Conferences. Now as president and knowing of her previous experience in bookkeeping, he asked Evelyne to return to her Alma Mater to work in the business office. She left her home in 1957 to make her permanent home in Fort Wayne to fill the position of and faithfully serve as Head Bookkeeper for the next 30 years. Her dedication to the school did not end with her retirement, however.

She continues her service to the campus as a volunteer for the annual Phonathon, as a member of the Alumni Board and as receptionist, where she spends her afternoons.

Evelyne says of the school and students, "They're a part of my life. I enjoy the students' vivaciousness... I believe being receptionist is more than a job, it is a way to be part of their lives as they prepare for Christian service."

Phil Logan's desire to be a missionary began in childhood, when missionaries visited his church. Similarly, missionaries visited Jan (Schumacher) Logan's church and stayed at her home; however, she did not share her future husband's desire to be a missionary, even though she felt the Lord's call into the field. It wasn't until a Spiritual Emphasis speaker spoke in Chapel that Jan experienced the desire to be a missionary. The speaker suggested that the students pray that God would make them willing to do His will; she prayed, and He made her willing.

Not long after this Phil and Jan began to date. On their first date they discussed their interests and majors in missions, and aspiration to go to Sierra Leone...the place they would later spend 15 years together as missionaries.

They married in 1967 and went to Africa in 1971, to build churches and evangelize. During their first years of evangelism in Sierra Leone, they gained practical knowledge of the language which they used in their missionary work as translators. Phil and Jan were working on translating the Old Testament in 1992 (they had 87% of the project completed) when fighting broke out in Sierra Leone and they were sent back to the U.S. With so much of their lives invested there, the Logans were disappointed to leave; they eagerly anticipate their scheduled return in the summer of 1993.

Phil and Jan Logan credit their knowledge, preparation and desire to evangelize and translate to their professors at FWBC. Jan added that her stability in her Christian life came from her years as a student at FWBC and from the lifestyle examples of her dedicated professors.

Our special thanks to faithful alumni who continue to see the value of scholarship assistance for today's students. This year we were able to award $1,000 scholarships to 25 worthy students, all of the $25,000 coming from interest earned on the Alumni Scholarship Endowment Fund (now over $295,000).

PHONATHON '92 was held this fall from October 13 to November 11. Over 200 alumni sent in their gifts or pledges by mail before the PHONATHON began. Alumni callers talked to over 800 alumni on the six nights of calling. Pledges in the mail and over the phone amounted to $30,360. Although we did not reach our goal of $45,000 we were very pleased with the responses and attitudes of alumni during this first year of merger with Taylor University. The Alumni Scholarship Endowment Fund will continue to assist men and women studying on this campus with special consideration being given to children of alumni and men and women preparing for Christian ministry. Thank you for being involved in this very worthy project.
