GRADUATION 1989 . . .

Spirits were high on Saturday, May 6, when 52 young men and women turned their tassels and officially became the last class to be known as Fort Wayne Bible College graduates!

The class of '89 welcomed commencement speaker Dr. Myron S. Augsburger. Dr. Augsburger did a magnificent job of challenging the graduates as they begin their vocations and look to the future.

Dr. Augsburger spoke from a great pool of experience. He is currently President of the Christian College Coalition and is adjunct professor of Theology at Eastern Mennonite Seminary, Harrisonburg, VA. He has authored numerous books and has lectured on many college and university campuses.

Dr. Augsburger received his undergraduate education from Eastern Mennonite College (A.B.), Eastern Mennonite Seminary (Th.B.), and Goshen Biblical Seminary (B.D.). He earned Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology degrees from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, VA.

During the past 25 years, Dr. Augsburger and his evangelism team have conducted crusades and preaching missions in major

U.S. cities as well as in several foreign countries.

PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

I am excited! God has blessed us with a time of significant progress here at the College. This is a time of new beginnings . . . a time for the Lord to confirm again His desire to see our ministry go forward. And He is doing just that!

Excitement is mounting regarding our new name. We have selected a new graphic identity which you will soon start to notice. New signs will be going up around campus this summer. New literature is due to come off the press soon.

I am excited over prospects for a new surge in enrollment. Over twenty-five more returning students have registered for this coming fall than registered last fall. New student prospects also seem encouraging.

Excitement is also the word to describe a significant financial grant to the College. We have been presented with a challenge grant of $250,000 to help us reduce our current fund deficit. For every two dollars we raise, another dollar will be added by this grant.

Please thank the Lord with us for the sense of "new beginnings" God is giving us. Then, please pray that all of these developments will be matched by a new sense of God's presence on campus this fall. My desire is to see students give their best to being disciplined servants of Christ. That inner drive must come from the Lord himself. Here at Summit Christian College, we will be doing all we can to see that happen. Help us by praying regularly for our ministry. God bless you!

Finishing Touches for the Activities Center

The College is more than encouraged by the progress being made on the new activities center. As each area takes shape a new level of excitement is felt by the campus community. Throughout the summer finishing touches, ranging from painting the College's mascot falcon on the gym floor to installing the stage lighting system, will be made.

Dedication ceremonies for the new building will take place during:

Homecoming Day
September 23, 1989

President Gerig gladly presents to Dr. David Lalka, V.P. for Development, a check in the amount of $75,000 as the last installment of the $500,000 matching grant awarded to the College through the Lilly Endowment's Dream of Distinction Competition.

The Eicher Chair of World Mission

OneYear Old and Growing

On May 5, 1988, the Governing Board of Summit Christian College gave unanimous approval to establish the Eicher Chair of World Mission. The Chair honors Christian L. Eicher, Peter L. Eicher and Barbara Eicher Cox.

Christian, Peter and Barbara are remembered for their sacrifice, suffering and service. Family and friends chose to establish The Eicher Chair of World Mission as a unique way to honor and to continue the ministry and outreach of these three special people. And, what better place to establish the Chair than Summit Christian College where 32 members of the three families have attended, 18 of them graduates, and where seven family members have served in several capacities a total of 114 years.

The Eicher Chair of World Mission has been established for one year and already is just $40,000 away from being fully endowed. Currently $410,000 of the needed $450,000 has been given and/or pledged! A recent major gift of $30,000 was pledged by Worldwide Missionary Union.

The earnings from the endowment fund will be used for the following:

- support of the Chair,
- coverage of the salary of the professor appointed to the Chair,
- other benefits,
- travel,
- further education,
- clerical help, and
- additional earnings for growth and inflation.

A descriptive brochure is available on the Eicher Chair of World Mission. Contained in the brochure are short biographies on the three honored Eichers. If you would like a brochure, just contact the College Relations Office of Summit Christian College.

A SPECIAL LADY VISITS CAMPUS

President Gerig pays honor to Miss Mary Edith Reiff.

A very special friend of Summit Christian College, Miss Mary Edith Reiff, was on campus recently to participate in the dedication of the College's carillon which she donated. The chimes of the carillon are a daily reminder of Miss Reiff's friendship and kindness.

Miss Reiff has assisted the College in several unique ways. Two years ago she established a named scholarship at Summit Christian College. The endowed scholarship is specified for deserving Summit Christian College students who graduated from Fort Wayne's South Side High School. Miss Reiff taught at South Side for many years before retiring.

Another recent and much appreciated gift from Miss Reiff is her help in funding the cost for air conditioning in the College's library. A real concern by College officials has been the damage to library books caused by warm summer temperatures. The new air conditioning will be installed this summer and will be a tremendous asset to the library and its holdings.

Summit Christian College is extremely grateful and thankful for Miss Mary Edith Reiff's concern for the College's ministry and well-being!

New Name Brings New College Logo

As you are probably aware, as of July 1, 1989, Fort Wayne Bible College will be known as Summit Christian College. College staff have been rigorously working on the details to successfully implement the name change. One such detail has been the creating of the new logo (College signature). The new logo, shown below, will be seen on everything from donor receipts to campus T-shirts.

The announcement of the name change came after extensive market research, constituent feasibility studies and several months of careful consideration. College officials believe that the new name will better reflect the educational opportunities offered by the College.

Donor Awards Summit a $250,000 Matching Grant

Recently, President Donald Gerig received great news from a major donor. The donor has awarded the College a $250,000 challenge grant for the current fund! For every $2.00 the College raises, the donor will give $1.00, up to the $250,000 level. The total current fund potential as a result of this grant is $750,000.

In President Gerig's words, "This grant represents a tremendous help in the College's budget crunch for the balance of this year (ending June 30) and the next fiscal year."

The College invites businesses, churches and individuals to participate in making full use of the available matching funds. The grant has already excited several donors to give!

Memorial Gifts

Many individuals find a deep personal satisfaction in making a contribution to Summit Christian College in memory of someone special. These meaningful gifts express to the family that you care and, at the same time, make it possible for the College to carry on its redemptive ministries.

Upon receipt of your memorial gift, and when appropriate, a card is sent to the family of the honored person. The amount of the gift is never indicated. You will also receive an acknowledgment of your tax-deductible gift.

MORE THAN A PATCH

by Richard P. Dugan, Ph.D., Vice President for Academic Affairs

What is the best way for a college dean to invest $44,000 of grant money? The Lilly Foundation concurred that a thorough review of our curriculum was the answer. Since our Lord said that it is not wise to put new cloth on an old garment, we determined to do more than patch up an old curriculum.

When the college was accredited in 1985, our courses of study had recently been revised, and we were committed to assessment after testing the programs for a few years.

Using the grant money (and a little bit more), we hired Dr. Robert Mathisen as Evaluation Project Director and Stacey Witzki as secretary. We brought in specialists who advised us regarding each major and academic division.

These specialists included Drs. Arthur Holmes from Wheaton College, Vernon Grounds and Haddon Robinson from Denver Seminary, Ray Robinson retired from Westminster Choir College, James Bowling and Homer Kent from Grace College and Seminary, Warren Benson from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Walter Hutter from Azusa Pacific University, and Russell Rogers from InterAct Associates in Chicago.

Generally these people spent two days on our campus and then submitted written reports. They looked at our course documents, checked our library holdings, talked with faculty and students, reviewed our own evaluations, compared our curriculum to that of other institutions and to ministry needs, and then drew conclusions and made recommendations.

Their work was supplemented by that of our own people. Each program or division was evaluated by its own faculty, the librarian, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and a faculty person who was not a part of that academic discipline.

It became a campus joke that no stone was left unturned or unthrown! And God used these persons to bless our campus family.

Some fine tuning of the machinery was performed immediately. Other tasks that will require philosophical discussions, research, policy development, or fund raising will take longer.

TOM SCHAKAT EXPERIENCES EDUCATION OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

When students were returning to classes last fall, Summit Christian College junior, Tom Schakat, was preparing to journey to another area of education . . . the country of New Zealand!

One of the distinctives of an education at Summit Christian College is the requirement of an internship experience in each major. Tom Schakat experienced that distinctive during the 1988-89 academic year.

In 1987 Tom attended a dynamic missions conference. Since then, God has opened Tom's heart to the needs of the world. God has been developing in Tom a burden for the lost living in other countries where sometimes the name of Jesus is never heard. Tom's internship in New Zealand was exactly what he needed to feed his new hunger for the lost!

From Cincinnati, Ohio, Tom belongs to the Christian and Missionary Alliance (C&MA) denomination. He thought it would be a unique opportunity to minister with the C&MA churches in New Zealand. At the same time he could meet his pastoral ministry internship requirement and receive Christian Service credit. New Zealand especially appealed to him since his uncle, Rev. Larry Carey, pastored in New Zealand and is now teaching there.

Tom applied for his passport and started raising the financial support he needed even before he had received final word from the New Zealand churches.

"I was trusting God to take care of the details. So I started doing my part and faithfully waited for the doors to open."

The doors did open, and Tom left for New Zealand on September 26, 1988.

The next six months proved to be an unforgettable experience for Tom. Working with six churches, his responsibilities focused on visitation, administration, preaching/teaching, and counseling. His tasks included conducting worship services, office work, designing and painting church signs, putting together a "Boys' Night Out" for 13 boys ages 8 to 12 and a youth camp, visitation, attending pastoral classes, witnessing, teaching Sunday School, and using his musical talents.

Some excerpts from Tom's daily internship journal give us a glimpse of his excitement and concern as he worked with the New Zealand people and churches.

"I've never led a worship service, but I'll do it this Sunday!"

"Well, what started to be a short phone call lasted three hours as I counseled and shared with a lady. The next day she gave her heart to the Lord! It was beautiful!"

"Spiritual conversions are not a dime a dozen in New Zealand. People here do not feel a need for God. They are very apathetic to spiritual matters and are very individualistic in nature. The work here is tough."

Although Tom put in hundreds of hours of service, his six months also offered him many opportunities for fun in the sun on North Island. He took a two week vacation allowing him time on the beaches, hiking, and also sight-seeing the magnificent South Island of New Zealand.

Tom was confident New Zealand was where God wanted him to be, but it was not always easy. He missed his girlfriend of three years and wished to take part in special occasions with his family. And of course, it was disappointing being unable to watch the Cincinnati Bengals play in the Super Bowl!

Tom learned many important lessons during his time in New Zealand. He realized there is a real need to break down barriers to establish a relationship with Christ and His Church. Tom also experienced an increase in dependence on God as he ministered and adjusted to another country.

"I had a very good balance in New Zealand between ministry and recreation and tried to make the best of every opportunity God allowed to come my way!"

Tom stands by one of the signs he painted during his internship.

Electronic Music Plays an Important Role at Summit Christian College

by Dr. Jay Platte, Director, Program in Music

The chapel began as others had. There was nothing unusual about a praise chapel with singing and special music. Then a reading by Professor Jon Swanson, taken from J.R. Tolkein, accompanied by Doug Hood, a keyboard major, changed the entire atmosphere. The reading and synthesizer interacted in a creative interplay of sound and word, each building upon the other. The image of turning defeat into victory took on deep meaning because of the addition of sound images.

Electronic instruments, when approached correctly and used musically, are wonderful enhancements to the expression of music and of the arts. They will not replace acoustic instruments, nor will they replace musicians. Synthesizers expand the palate of sound possibilities. When approached in that way, they can add potential and dimension to our educative, creative, and spiritual experiences.

MIDI, PCM, LA synthesis, DAC, sequencer and other terms have become part of music at Summit Christian College. Most did not even exist ten years ago but are all a part of new ways to produce sounds. Our electronic music lab started ten years ago, by offering computer-assisted instruction in musicianship and musical terms. While that aspect has continued to grow as a part of the College's overall growth in instructional computing, the explosive developments in electronic synthesizers and keyboards are being addressed through active moves by the music faculty.

The development of the electronic music lab started when Steve Walley began instruction in synthesizer and synthesis this past fall. Through private study, students are provided a work space for analyzing or composing music, for learning and manipulating elements of sound, and for learning how to play the synthesizer. A keyboard major was also originated to promote the skills necessary for playing organ, piano, and synthesizer. Through other courses such as Theory and Musicianship, Structures and Styles, Composition, and Arranging, the synthesizer offers tools to look at the way music is constructed -- the way it works, and how changes would affect the end result.

Ability to use the synthesizer will be a necessity as music students look toward the future. Being able to use it musically, not just as a toy or gimmick, is a challenge the music faculty faces. They are committed to be stewards of that which is given them. To use wisely and well is the task of the Christian.

New Developments in Music at Summit Christian College

New faces for ongoing programs will await music students returning to campus this fall. The Electronic Music Center, which houses our synthesizers and computer, will be moving to larger quarters. The applied music instruction (private lessons) will officially add a keyboard major (a combination of organ, piano, and synthesizer) to its growing list of offerings. Theory and musicianship will increase interaction both with computer-assisted instruction and MIDI (musical instrument digital interface) generated examples for students to manipulate. Compact Discs will continue to be added to the library.

Campus performances will be evident next year. Messiah will be performed Sunday afternoon, December 9, with orchestra. A full production of a musical (yet to be announced) will take place on February 22, 23, and 24. Pops 'n Pizza will be on Friday, April 27. Many student recitals and ensemble appearances are planned. A full Program of Music events calendar will be supplied to anyone who requests one from the music office.

Outreach to our community continues to expand through several different music instruction programs: group instruction for children and adults (high school and older) in piano, and beginning and intermediate voice classes. Instruction on the synthesizer, workshops for choir directors, and elementary instrumental experiences for band and strings are being scheduled. Existing programs serve about sixty students annually.

Clark Woods . . .

Summer Sports Missionary

Clark Woods, a freshman at Summit Christian College, is excited, and he has every right to be!

Clark was recently selected to be a member of the 1989 Christian Sports Outreach Basketball and Track & Field Team this summer. The team will be travelling to Germany, Austria, Holland, Switzerland and Belgium. Clark is the first athlete from Summit Christian College selected for this honor.

It may sound like Clark will be having a summer full of fun, but there is much more to the program. Besides athletic training, playing basketball, and running track, Clark will take part in a music ministry, give his testimony, and share the message of salvation. The team will also be working in churches, schools, prisons, hospitals, orphanages, clinics and street outreaches.

Clark first found out about the sports outreach program when Summit Christian College Athletic Director, Deborah Rupp, posted the information on the sports bulletin board. In Coach Rupp's words,

"Clark is a good athlete. He showed a real interest in the summer ministry, so I encouraged him to go for it!"

Clark did go for it! Based on his commitment to Christ, his excellent athletic talents and Coach Rupp's recommendation, Clark made the team.

One affirmation to Clark that it was God's will for him to take part in the outreach was how quickly the $3,000 he needed for expenses was raised. In just a short time Clark had the money pledged that he needed.

"I thank God for once again supplying my needs in a magnificent way. The church I am active in here in Fort Wayne, Cornerstone Christian Worship Center, has been more than generous and supportive of this opportunity."

Clark has been at Summit Christian College for just one year, but he has already made his mark. He served as freshman class president and will serve as sophomore class president next academic year. His performance in sports at the College has been an encouragement to himself and to his teammates.

"I love sports. I remember my first track meet. I was winning but suddenly decided to stop and re-tie my shoes! I have come a long way since that day. I consider it a privilege to represent Summit Christian College on such a large scale this summer."

What is so exceptional about Clark's first basketball season at Summit Christian College is that it was his first season ever to play varsity basketball! In high school he focused on track and gave little time to the game of basketball. Clark did not let the newness of the game limit his achievements. He led the Falcons in rebounds and before breaking his nose, was averaging 30 points a game. Even after breaking his nose his average remained in double figures!

Clark is approaching this summer with several goals. His first goal is to minister and share the gospel of Jesus Christ. His second goal is to bring back a medal to Summit Christian College.

"The Lord has blessed me with this opportunity. In return I will be the best I possibly can be!"

We know Clark will be a fine representative of Summit Christian College. We wish him the best in his summer adventure.

Clark Woods anticipates a winning season this summer as he travels with the Christian Sports Outreach Basketball and Track and Field Team.

Two Alumni Awarded Honorary Membership in Delta Epsilon Chi

Two distinguished alumni were elected to membership in Delta Epsilon Chi, the Honor Society of the American Association of Bible Colleges. The two alumni, Rev. Ralph Brandenburg and Rev. Donald T. McIntosh, were recognized at the May 5 Alumni Banquet.

Rev. Donald T. McIntosh

Pastoring, preaching, and promoting are three words that describe the almost fifty years of ministry by Rev. Donald McIntosh. His lifetime of service for the Lord in partnership with his wife, Evelyne, has literally carried them twice around the world, including three extensive visits to mainland China.

After graduating from Fort Wayne Bible College in 1941, Don received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Dayton; the Master of Divinity and Master of Sacred Theology degrees from Wesley Seminary in Washington, D.C.; and additional graduate credit at Temple University.

The first 28 years of ministry for Don involved primarily the pastoring of United Methodist churches in Ohio, Maryland, and Washington, D.C. Don was led to a full-time involvement in missions when he became the U.S. Director of the Chinese Overseas Christian Mission, a position he held for 13 years.

In 1982 Don relinquished the leadership of the Chinese Overseas Christian Mission and began a role as Minister-at-Large. He and Evelyne devote all their energies, involving almost constant travel, to the cultivation of the radio broadcast ministry to mainland China and to the vital development of local church missionary conferences.

Donald & Evelyne McIntosh

Rev. Ralph Brandenburg

Doing their part in reaching the Hispanics of the world for Christ is the vision of Ralph Brandenburg and his wife, Norma. After graduating from Fort Wayne Bible College in 1962 with a degree in Missions, the Brandenburgs continued preparation for missionary service by attending Missionary Internship in Detroit while assisting in ministry at the Royal Oak Missionary Church. Actual overseas missionary service finally became a reality in 1966 with a church planting and leadership training ministry in the Dominican Republic.

On their first furlough Ralph had his eyes opened to the need for ministry to the Hispanics of the United States when he spoke at Humboldt Park Gospel Tabernacle located in a changing community in Chicago.

Dr. Geiger, President of the Missionary Church, approached Ralph about moving to Chicago to pastor the church and head an Hispanic ministry in Humboldt Park. Over a period of five years the "Inglesia Evangelica Misionera" grew to almost 200 people and became a self-supporting church in the Central District of the Missionary Church.

In 1987 Ralph turned the Humboldt Church over to Hispanic leadership and assumed a new role as Coordinator of Hispanic Ministries for the Missionary Church. In 1988 Ralph also became the liaison between the World Partners of the Missionary Church and its churches in the country of Mexico.

Ralph & Norma Brandenburg

ALUMNI

1930

Florence Cavender g35 believe it or not, has once again come out of retirement (third time, I believe) to go to a whole new ministry. In February she arrived in Bonaire, Netherlands Antilles, to work with Trans World Radio. Much of her time is spent in answering letters from Spanish speaking people, many of them from Colombia her original place of missionary service.

1940

Dean Freed g49 has begun a new ministry as Airport Chaplain at Sky Harbor International Airport in Phoenix, AZ. Sky Harbor serves some 15 million travelers each year and employs almost 10,000 people.
