LILLY ANNOUNCES $500,000 MATCHING GRANT

On September 21, 1987, President Donald Gerig received word from the Lilly Endowment, Inc. of a half million dollar matching grant through Lilly's Dream of Distinction Competition. The grant provides a major boost in the fund raising effort toward a 41,000 square foot multipurpose gymnasium/activities center.

With the announcement of the grant, the college has cash and pledges totaling $1.18 million toward the $1.7 million it needs to complete the capital campaign for the facility. If all goes as planned, college officials anticipate a Spring 1988 ground breaking for the new campus facility.

NEW SCHOOL YEAR BEGINS

On Thursday, August 27, 1987 classes began for the 1987-88 school year. In chapel on that day, all faculty, staff, and students met in Founders Auditorium for a time of worship and convocation. It was a great hour of preparation and commitment to the Lord for the challenging year ahead of us. President Don Gerig introduced the Year Verse and exhorted us to devotion (to God and to man) and to discipline (obedience to God's commands). As we the Bible College Family shared communion together, there was a deep sense of appreciation for what Christ has done for us and a strong feeling of anticipation of what He will do this year.

Enrollment figures are slightly ahead of last year's fall enrollment. There are 158 new students (both freshmen and transfers) and 202 returning students making a total of 360.

ANNUAL REPORT

Fort Wayne Bible College

Vol. 2, Issue 1

October 1987

... From the Chairman of the Governing Board

It has been a pleasure to serve Fort Wayne Bible College as chairman of the Board for the last six years. This has been an exciting time in the life of the college.

We have seen the college achieve full accreditation, stabilize its enrollment, and come to grasp realistically its financial position. We have laid the foundation to move forward, and I am convinced that the present college administration can advance Fort Wayne Bible College and its cause.

The college's cause is linked directly with the mission of the Church - advancing God's kingdom here on earth. To be a part of that mission by serving Fort Wayne Bible College is a special joy. I trust that you feel as I do about your support and interest in Fort Wayne Bible College

Paul A. Steiner

Paul A. Steiner
Chairman of the Board

"Colleges, particularly church-related ones, have the potential for leadership in education and in the nation precisely because the qualities and skills that characterize these institutions at their best are the ones most needed now."

"PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE"

Reflecting on the completion of my first year at the helm of Fort Wayne Bible College has produced both thanksgiving and challenge to my faith. While most of the news of the past year has been good, the financial picture has not been that good. The reason for this is that financial implications of enrollment tend to lag behind either good or bad trends.

In recent years we experienced a down trend in enrollment. That had financial implications which began to show up two years ago but really reached their zenith in this past year. Fortunately, steps were taken to enlarge our enrollment department which helped stabilize enrollment this past year. A slight upward trend is being seen this fall with the registration of 12 more full-time students this year than last. However, the good news of enrollment will not be fully reflected in our financial picture until later this year when student and gift revenues are received in full. It looks like this in graph form:

As a result of this situation we ended the fiscal year in the red by $287,000. To correct this we announced in March a net reduction of ten full-time employees for the 1987-88 school year. We have prepared a budget for the new year that is austere, but reasonable.

Against the bad news, however, is the encouragement of a good dose of positive news. We experienced a good year spiritually on campus. Chapel interest was higher and concerts of prayer were organized by students. Several of our faculty continued work on their doctorates. There is a renewed sense of vision and mission emerging on campus. Our capital campaign has had a new spurt of momentum as we have seen almost $1.2 million of the needed $1.7 million raised to build our Activities Center. Our radio station, WBCL, has completed a banner year of ministry and has moved into their new facilities which greatly enhances their dreams for the future.

We feel confident that even our financial picture will soon be as optimistic as the mood on campus is right now. We thank God for what He is doing for us. And, we thank Him for each of you who pray for and support the ongoing strategic ministry of Fort Wayne Bible College.

ACADEMICS IN ACTION

Picture the absent-minded professor whose scholarship keeps him in another world. This model is long gone, and on the Fort Wayne campus you will find academics in action! Look at what has happened this year.

*Prof. Bill Gerig and Dr. Wes Gerig have played trumpets with the college band.

*Prof. Dave Biberstein plays racquetball with his pastoral ministries students and has found time to complete coursework on a doctorate at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

*Prof. Jim Saddington has begun doctoral studies in history at Bowling Green State University, yet he still attends Falcon soccer games.

*Rev. Gerald Steele has represented the college weekly at missionary conferences and pulpit supply. He has attracted new students and brought greater enthusiasm to our World Mission program.

*Rev. Ron Scharfe traveled with his family through Ireland, Scotland, and England, ministering in many congregations.

*Coach Deb Rupp has become our Athletic Director. The Falcon teams show good potential for this season.

*Dr. Fred VanDyke has lectured at the Ausable Institute in Michigan and has published numerous articles. One article was reprinted on six continents. He also serves as our faculty Chaplain.

*Dr. Doug Barcalow directs the Three Rivers Sunday School Convention and represents Gospel Light Publications in this area. Freshman students receive him well as their class advisor.

*Dr. Barcalow, Rev. Roger Ringenberg, and Prof. Dana Collins have been engaged as adjunct faculty at neighboring colleges.

*Prof. Ray Quan served as a summer consultant with a California bank. His experiences find their way into his Christian Ministries Management classes.

*Prof. Jon Swanson is the new acting director of our General Studies Division. He is completing a doctoral dissertation from the University of Texas. Despite these "heady" responsibilities, Jon is a favorite among students.

*Prof. Dick Baxter is coordinating our new internship program. He finds that time spent with students at a local swimming pool makes them more effective.

*Our faculty committee structure has been streamlined giving our people more time with students. A new faculty evaluation and development plan will make us better teachers.

*Vice President Richard Dugan spent six weeks in West Africa and Europe ministering and learning. These experiences have been shared with students.

*Dr. Alice Joy Weddle led the Teacher Education Program through a reevaluation by the Indiana State Department of Education. Their team was enthusiastic about our program.

Imagine FWBC students following the faculty model. The Christian Service Department reports these results:

Students worked through 96 churches and agencies.

They taught 2000 Sunday School classes and children's churches.

They led 1500 Clubs and Bible studies.

9 Students pastored churches

2 Groups traveled 7000 miles to 57 churches.

Our students recorded 300 Salvation decisions and deeper life commitments.

The campus has been busy at all hours, as people came in droves for continuing education. 114 persons registered for non-credit courses in the Institute of Biblical Studies. 494 persons took credit courses in the evenings. Well in excess of 3000 students were enrolled in our department of correspondence studies.

360 students, 33 full-time faculty, and 19 part-time faculty are assuring that the tradition of academics in action will continue in 1987-1988!

FRIENDS, FUNDS AND FRESHMEN

The voluntary, philanthropic support of education--and higher education in specific -- is something unique to America. Development officers are concerned to identify friends whose funds can sustain the present and enable the future of their institutions. As Dennis J. Murray of the American Institute of Management observes: "The work that fund raisers do in helping to improve the lives of students, the elderly, the sick, and others with special needs gives us reason for national pride and individual self-respect." Our work, then, centers on friends, funds, and freshmen.

FRIENDS

Several activities this past year (7/1/86 - 6/30/87) have enlarged the friendships of the College. The business/community luncheons, Pastors luncheons and Cluster Dinners (Grabill, Berne, Peoria, and Ventura, California) introduced us to new individuals with potential interest in the College. Moreover, the establishment of a President's Advisory Council, with five charter members, was a major achievement. These council members are volunteering time, are introducing us to peers, providing counsel and insight, and are enlarging our base of support.

FUNDS

Current fund and restricted gifts are the life of any College. We are pleased that $637,812 in current fund gifts and $636,107 in restricted gifts were received in fiscal 1986-87. A new year is upon us, and we all need to consider support of the ministries of FWBC as a vital opportunity. The capital campaign continues with momentum. More than $330,000 in gifts and commitments have been received from foundations, businesses, and friends.

We are pleased too with grant awards from Olive B. Cole Foundation ($15,000), Foellinger Foundation ($51,000), and M.E. Raker Foundation ($7,500). Through the significant, patient work of Frank Watson, Director of Special Gifts, a Living Revocable Trust was established with the College which potentially enlarges our endowment by $1 million. Finally, the successful Alumni Phonathon under the direction of Bill Gerig, Director of Alumni and Church Relations, will bring $43,379 more into the Scholarship Endowment.

FRESHMEN

Fort Wayne Bible College, like many others, experienced several years of declining enrollment. The 1986-87 academic year, however, proved pivotal. The decline ceased. Fall semester evidenced a headcount of 351 (one above 1985). Second semester, however, indicated forward movement with 343 (vs 332, 1986). Results of the fall 1987 enrollment are in: New freshman and transfers number 158 (up from 144 a year ago) and the student body number 360 (up from 351 a year ago). For the first time in several years, our financial full time student equivalent exceeded our budget projections. Responsive administration, active enrollment counselors, and accessible faculty are keys to continued advance in enrollment and retention. Enrollment is corporate work.

The Lilly Endowment has made a $25,000 grant for 1987-88 to assist with the initiatives which are enhancing the FWBC community. This is the endowment's first award to FWBC, and the college is one of only 10 colleges to be funded for 1987-88.

To attract students more effectively, the enrollment office has guided the redesign of admissions materials. The College's positioning statement "Searching Together, Serving Together" summarizes what we are about and why we are distinctive. The new brochure and viewbook share the excitement of the campus and the benefits of education at FWBC. With these tools and a commitment to service as a distinctive, the enrollment efforts are enhanced.

The 1986-87 year was challenging. The prospects and opportunities for 1987-88 are exciting. As we search together for new friends, funds, and freshmen, we serve together the cause of educating young people uniquely qualified to serve our world.

STUDENTS DEVELOP IN FWBC'S CAMPUS COMMUNITY

The "Year of Renewal" based on II Chron. 7:14 was the theme that challenged students, staff and faculty throughout the 1986-87 school year. The student body comprising of 71 percent single students and 29 percent married students considered different aspects of this verse and theme through chapel messages. Chapel services have continued to be an important part of a student's experience at Fort Wayne Bible College. Monday through Thursday typically are corporate chapel meetings in Founder's Auditorium. On Fridays staff, faculty and students are assigned to a small group that meets during the chapel time. This is an opportunity to share, study the Word of God and pray with fellow believers in our community in a more personal way.

The married student population is an important part of the student body. Needs unique to the married student are channeled through the Married Student's Fellowship, married student visitation and food distribution supplied by Friends of FWBC. A desire to minister not only to the student but to the spouse as well led Student Development to sponsor a married student wives Bible study and the Adopt a Married Student Program.

The living/learning centers for resident students were Schultz and Lexington halls. The resident hall student leaders have had a name change from student advisor or SA to resident assistant or RA. Weekly wing meetings were led by resident assistants. Students meet for Bible studies, sharing, prayer, Brother and Sister wing parties and open forums.

An all-hall communion service at the end of our campus Day of Prayer and Fasting gave many a renewed dedication to God. The hall councils and resident assistants met regularly to serve the men or women in his or her hall by planning and providing Bible studies, hall meetings, social functions, and resident management.

Education taking place outside the classroom was incorporated in programs such as health awareness week, academic improvement groups and temperament test interpretation. Health awareness and Safety Week involved mock emergency situations in the cafeteria and classrooms with school nurses near by to discuss the incident and give recommendations. A presentation in chapel and the residence halls provided valuable information on health care, wellness issues and emergency help that is available. A total of twenty-four students, staff and faculty were certified as completing the Cardiac Pulmonary Resuscitation Course or CPR offered on campus during this week of health awareness.

Over 80 Taylor Johnson Temperament Analysis were administered and interpreted during the year by the Student Development staff. This analysis provides insights and reflections in nine temperament traits. Counseling sessions develop from test interpretation, crisis intervention, students making appointments with staff and as a result of casual contact with students on campus.

Student Government looked for ways to make the Student Union a place where students would like to spend time. The Snack Shop hours were extended to facilitate faculty, staff and non-campus students during the day. The student snack shop manager offered more specials on meals and Student Government has begun redecorating the Hollow in order to make a more attractive environment.

Some of the worthwhile aspects of Student Development work at FWBC are the spiritual victories and growth in students, as well as life changing counseling relationships.

W B C L REPORT

Over 1,200 people attended the dedication and Open House on August 30th to tour WBCL's beautiful new facilities. This brings the total of visitors through the new building since June 1st to 3,000. Char Binkley, General Manager, reflects that it has been a busy summer with all of our visitors, but it has been wonderful to meet so many of WBCL's listeners.

Bids, contractors, equipment, packing and moving have been terms that have been used extensively at WBCL over the past 12 months. What a year!

On August 27, 1986, ground was broken for WBCL's new building. Daily, the faculty and staff watched from the windows of Witmer Hall as the open field gave way to a huge hole in the ground, followed by the erection of a structure which became the beautiful new home of WBCL's offices and studios.

During Sharathon 1986, the listeners pledged over $600,000 for the cost of the building. These pledges, to be paid over a three-year period, are "on target" with over $450,000 already received. In addition, $300,000 of new equipment was purchased for the studios to give WBCL the best sound possible.

There is much rejoicing among the WBCL staff members as we enjoy this gift that God has given to this ministry through the faithfulness of the listeners. The building provides many "firsts" -- windows, so the announcers can actually see the weather as they report it (being in the basement often meant reporting sunny skies when it was actually pouring rain outside); all staff members fellowshiping daily in one area (we were spread over three floors of Witmer Hall before); and enough space to meet the needs of the listeners (the new building features 6,272 square feet of space for broadcasting and special project work).

In addition to the building project, the staff was busy in other areas. The fall and spring A DAY AWAY seminars, with each event registering over 1,500 women were highlights of the past 12 months. These days are very special as women from dozens of denominations come together for inspiration, encouragement and growth in Christ.

A major programming format change was made last fall and we have received excellent response from our listeners. We now feature "live" programming 15 hours each weekday instead of the extended use of tapes via automation. Weekends also have "live" announcers and WBCL has become known as YOUR WEEKEND CHRISTIAN MUSIC STATION, with less talk and more music than ever before. These changes were made due to an extensive listener survey which clearly indicated that more music was desired.

Our annual KIDS' DAY, held each August, featured over 1,200 children hunting for peanuts, sharing music and scripture on the air, and touring the new building. It is always a delight to plan this special day as we recognize the importance of ministering to children, the church of tomorrow.

Today, as always, we recognize the value of you, our listeners. Without your commitment to this ministry, we could not be ministering to thousands daily. We thank God for the way you permit Him to use you to bless our lives and to enable this ministry to enrich the lives of the radio audience. We look forward to Heaven when we all rejoice around the throne together in praise to our wonderful Lord. To Him be the Glory!

CAREER DAY

CAREER DAY will be held on the campus of Fort Wayne Bible College October 23. Sponsored by the Professional Studies Division Faculty, Career Day is an effort to focus in on the varied ministry opportunities in the Lord's service available for Bible College graduates. Over 42 church and para-church organizations will be represented by displays and workshop sessions. Representatives from these organizations make themselves available to counsel with students on a one-to-one basis regarding summer and future ministry possibilities. The program begins in Founder's Auditorium at 8:30 a.m. and concludes at 2:00 p.m.. Visitors are welcome. For more information call 219/456-2111 and ask for Dick Baxter.

ENROLLMENT STABILIZES; Demonstrates slight growth!

After experiencing a declining enrollment during the late seventies and early eighties, a "bottoming out" during the mid eighties, Fort Wayne Bible College is seeing the beginning signs of enrollment growth. Total students at the college number 360 this fall, up from 351 last fall. Our full time student equivalent is up 12 over a year ago and resident students increased 15. In all cases, student numbers slightly exceeded budget projections!

4th Annual Convention

The last full week-end of September is becoming a very busy time around the campus of Fort Wayne Bible College. For the fourth time a large group of eager Sunday School teachers gathered to attend workshops, hear speakers, and examine Christian Education resources.

Coming from over 75 churches, a crowd of approximately 450 teachers and superintendents were on hand to hear Rev. Rick Hawks, Pastor of Blackhawk Baptist Church in Fort Wayne challenge them to enlarge their vision. An increased exhibit area provided convention-goers with an opportunity to meet representatives from publishing houses and see the latest in curriculum supplies. Next year's convention will be held September 23 & 24 on the Bible College campus.

Join us next year on September 23 & 24, 1988!
