Fort Wayne Bible College
Mission Statement

Fort Wayne Bible College is a Christian evangelical institution of higher education teaching and serving in the Bible college tradition. Through the integration of biblical, general, and professional studies, as well as cocurricular experiences, the College provides foundational preparation for life and ministry through the Church in its world mission.

PURPOSE: Fort Wayne Bible College is a bridge to ministry.

PEOPLE: We are bonded together as a caring community of maturing Christians.

PROCESS: We come together in a learning-living environment to explore, integrate, and apply truth concentrated in biblical studies and inherent in general and professional studies.

PRODUCT: We go out as committed, concerned, servant-leaders of Jesus Christ to minister through His Church to the contemporary world.

Dr. Bostrom shares concerning the good visit from the evaluation team sent by North Central.

Fort Wayne Bible College continues to make excellent progress in preparation for official approval as an accredited institution by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

An evaluation team of the Association was on campus February 25-27, 1985, and conducted a comprehensive evaluation for initial accreditation at the Bachelor’s degree-granting level. Members of the team included Dr. William F. Denman, President of Blackburn College, Carlinville, IL (Team Chairperson); Dr. William Bodomer, Chairman, Department of Religion, Millikan University, Decatur, IL; Dr. David A. Johnson, Professor of Chemistry and Director of Christian Perspective, Spring Arbor College, Spring Arbor, MI; and Dr. Lorna Ruth Meyer, Dean of the Faculty and Vice President for Academic Services, Concordia College, St. Paul, MN.

Excellent Report Given

The College was pleased with the report and recommendation presented by the evaluation team in their exit interview with College officials. The College was commended for the high degree of excellence which was evidenced in many areas.

Further action on the team’s recommendation will be taken on May 13, 1985, in Chicago when President Bostrom, Dr. Dugan and Dr. Denman meet with the Review Committee. During this informal meeting, the institution and the team chair, Dr. Denman, have an opportunity to provide additional information by making brief presentations and answering the questions of the Review Committee members.

Re-Evaluation by AABC

On March 25-27, 1985, the College underwent a ten-year re-evaluation by the American Association of Bible Colleges. The College is a charter member of AABC and received its initial accreditation in 1948. A five-member team comprised the evaluation committee. Their recommendation will be made known to College officials in October 1985, at their annual meeting.

In preparation for the upcoming capital fund drive, the Board of Governors received a feasibility study conducted by Earl Murphy Associates, and the following decisions were made:

1. To deal with the institutional debt. The Board accepted a goal of $1 million for themselves and have pledged $823,000 to date. Praise the Lord!

2. To begin the pre-campaign efforts immediately.

3. To develop a new primary market in the business, professional, political, and civic community in Fort Wayne.

4. To divide the building project: A) Facilities for the radio station; B) The activities center. Funds will be raised in two drives at the appropriate times.

5. To begin construction when 90 percent of the cost is raised in cash and three-year pledges. (By previous action of the Board.)
Joseph Klopfenstein . . . 81 and Still Serving

At 81 years of age Rev. Joseph Klopfenstein, this issue’s featured alumnus, cannot remember a time when he and his family were not associated with Fort Wayne Bible College. Even as a young boy he recalls when his father and mother would come to the Bible Training School to bring provisions for the students!

Joe grew up in the Christian home of his parents, David and Caroline (Roth) Klopfenstein and attended the Grabill Missionary Church of Grabill, Indiana. At the age of 16 he accepted Christ as his Savior during a revival service conducted by the evangelist Jacob Hygema.

Although Joe did not complete a high school education he did enter Fort Wayne Bible Training Institute in 1924 at the age of 21. He shares that there were many good experiences at the School, especially singing in a gospel quartet with such individuals as Armin Steiner, Oliver Steiner, Clarence Gerig, William Baker, Ezra Meyer and Quinton Everest.

Fond Memories

Continuing to reminisce about his days at the Training School, Joe recalls the east/west rule where the men would walk on the east side and the women the west side of the street on alternate days. He recalls the special lectures of Rev. J. E. Ramseyer and the patience of Mrs. Potts in teaching him Greek. Plus, Mother Lugibihl’s dreaded dust inspections cannot be forgotten! A very fond memory for Joe is studying under past FWBC music instructor C. A. Gerber.

The memories that Joe holds closest are the good times at the College when singing and traveling with the gospel quartet. Joe shares, “Many miles were put on the old 20-seater Model-T bus as we traveled to numerous churches presenting our musical ministry.”

“1927”

The year of 1927 was a very special year for Joe, but it was also a very busy one. He graduated and then during the summer assisted professor Rev. S. A. Witmer as he conducted Gospel Lent Meetings resulting in the establishing of the Angola Missionary Church and the Faith Missionary Church located south of Fort Wayne. During the fall of 1927 Joe became pastor of the Angola Church. Then on December 24, 1927 he was married to Mary Clauzer. The wedding was performed by Mary’s father, Rev. Edgar F. Clauzer, at the Clauzer’s Fort Wayne home.

A Career of Pastoring

Joe’s pastorate at the Angola church was just the beginning of his pastoral ministry. From Angola he next served at the Eden Missionary Church of Wauneta, Nebraska. While there he was ordained, with Rev. J. C. Birkey, district superintendent, as one of the officiating ministers. Also during the Klopfenstein’s time at Eden they were appointed to missionary service in French West Africa, but were never able to go because of the lack of funds. Realizing their ministry was to be in the United States, they

Still Serving

God is continuing to grant Joe many opportunities to serve Him. He reports that as long as the Lord blesses him with good health he will continue to serve. For the last 13 years he has been with the Harvester Missionary Church of Fort Wayne as Minister of Visitation. His work involves a weekly senior fellowship dinner, a nursing home ministry and visitation of hospital patients and shut-ins. He also teaches Sunday School and attends Saturday morning men’s prayer meetings. Joe lives by himself, keeps house and his the “chef cook and bottle washer”

Joseph J. Klopfenstein is a fine example of how God has used a Bible College graduate. It is Joe’s prayer that those who have and are training at the Bible College will continue to proclaim the Good News and be as happy as he is in God’s ministry.

Outreach ’85 Missions Conference Held at FWBC

A one-day mission conference, focusing on the theme of “The Gospel for the Global City . . . Hope for the Masses,” was conducted at Fort Wayne Bible College, March 23. The conference attracted over 200 participants, making it one of the highest attended Outreach Conferences.

Conference participants included pastors, church mission board leaders, lay leaders, former missionaries, students and persons interested in missions as a career.

The highlights of the day were sessions conducted by keynote speakers Dr. Louis King, president of the Christian and Missionary Alliance denomination, and Dr. Clyde W. Taylor, special representative for the World Relief Corporation.

Those who attended were challenged in the plenary sessions and during specialized seminars dealing with such topics as “Trends in World Missions Today,” “The Challenge of Medical Missions” and “The Side Door to Missionary Service.”

Outreach ’85 was sponsored by the Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission, Fort Wayne Bible College, The Church of God, The Clyde Taylor Endowment for World Mission, The Evangelical Mennonite Church, The Free Methodist Church, The General Conference Mennonite Church, The Mennonite Church, The Missionary Church, and The United Brethren in Christ Church.

Plenary sessions and seminars were taped and tapes are available for purchase at $3.00 each. If you wish to order tapes of Outreach ’85 you may do so by contacting the Fort Wayne Bible College Public Relations Office.
Youth Conference . . .
Master-Minded

This year's Youth Conference committee selected the theme "Master-Minded" and was excited with the results as high school juniors and seniors came on campus for the three-day conference, April 12-14.

The committee went all out this year to present to visitors what it means to focus their lives on Christ in this day and age. The theme "Master-Minded" was taken from Colossians 3:2 which states, "Set your mind on the things above, not on things which are on earth." The speaker, Jimmy Johnson, and musical guest, Master Peace, all reflected on the conference's theme. An added attraction this year was a multimedia presentation entitled "Progression" by Heavy Light Production.

The purpose of Youth Conference is to bring on campus prospective students. While they are on campus they get a taste of campus life while joining in on the fellowship of the Christian community.

Each year there are numerous young people who reap the benefits of Youth Conference. They make new friends and fond memories while setting new goals for their lives. Youth Conference takes place each April on the campus of Fort Wayne Bible College and we urge you to begin encouraging your young people to attend Youth Conference '86!

FWBC Group to Tour During Summer

Victories are wonderful, especially when the victory is completely triumphant. We have just experienced one of those great achievements which everyone recognizes as being a milestone. I am anxious and delighted to share it with you; for it has been a matter of concern and interest for all of the Fort Wayne Bible College family for many years. It has to do with upgrading the quality of our programs so our students might have the very best training possible as they prepare for God's service. We have always been interested in quality. Dr. S. A. Witmer, one of our former presidents, led in the establishing of the American Association of Bible Colleges which has as one of its primary aims the improvement of the education that goes on in a Bible college. And from the earliest days of that organization, Fort Wayne Bible College has had full accreditation with them. Subsequently, we have been preparing ourselves for accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. This group certifies the quality of education that takes place in an institution. Fort Wayne Bible College began to work toward this goal under the presidency of Dr. Jared Gerig. The task has been long and complex. Many, many people have worked long hard hours to bring us to our present level of quality and proficiency. Just recently an examining team spent three days on campus evaluating all of our programs and operations with the result that they are recommending to their Board that we be given full accreditation without any reservation. Their Board will take action on this recommendation at their meeting in June. This team complimented us highly and indicated that our programs and faculty are outstanding. This is exciting because it is a witness to the whole world that Fort Wayne Bible College is a quality institution on a par with the best of the better known Christian institutions. We praise the Lord for this, and thank you for your help and prayer over the years.
Dr. David McKenna to Address FWBC ’85 Graduates

Dr. David McKenna, president of Asbury Theological Seminary of Wilmore, Kentucky, will address the 77th graduating class of Fort Wayne Bible College.

Commencement exercises are scheduled for Saturday, May 11, in Founders Memorial Auditorium.

Dr. McKenna is known not only for his leadership abilities, but also for his lectures and addresses to hundreds of colleges, civic groups, churches and professional societies. He is also noted for his consulting expertise. He has been a college consultant on accreditation, finance, curriculum development, presidential search evaluations and long range planning. He has traveled through Europe, the Middle East and South East Asia.

Dr. McKenna received his B.A. degree from Western Michigan University, his Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary, his Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from the University of Michigan and his Ph.D. in Higher Education at the University of Michigan.

Having served as chairman, president and trustee of numerous community, civic and religious associations, Dr. McKenna was recently selected as one of the evangelical Christian leaders whose sermons are heard on PREACHING TODAY, a resource ministry of CHRISTIANITY TODAY.

Before becoming president of Asbury Theological Seminary, he was president of Seattle Pacific University and from 1961 to 1968 was president of Spring Arbor College.

Officers or members of the above mentioned classes: If you have not already done so, let the Alumni Office know if you wish to plan a class reunion earlier in the day. The Office will be glad to assist you in your planning.
From the Interim Director

Greetings to all our alumni at home and abroad!

It is good to get back on campus and become involved in the life of the school after 6 1/2 years of retirement. We certainly miss the leadership of Howard Dunlap and his faithful partner and secretary, Ruth, who have both served so efficiently in this office for the past six years. During the interim, while a new Alumni Director is being sought, we will try to "hold the fort," but we enlist your wholehearted cooperation in keeping us informed of news items, address changes, weddings, deaths, births, ministry or employment changes.

PHONATHON ’85 is over and our total after eight nights of calling was approximately $38,000 of our $40,000 goal. As additional gifts continue to come in I’m sure we will come even closer to our goal. Of our PHONATHON income, $12,000 will be placed in the Alumni Scholarship Fund.

Alumni Chapel was held Friday, March 29. Scholarships were awarded and Rev. Brad Grabill (’75) was our guest speaker.

Last fall the Alumni Advisory Board voted to increase our total giving goal for this fiscal year to $200,000, which is only $5,360 more than the total alumni giving for the 1983-84 year. However, alumni giving by the end of March was running behind last year’s total, which means that we have a lot of catching up to do in the next few months in order to meet our goal of $200,000. I’m sure we can count on your faithful support in this regard.

The big event on this year’s calendar, of course, is Alumni Day, Friday, May 10, 1985. Since this is nearing the end of the 80th anniversary year of the founding of Fort Wayne Bible College, we hope you are planning to help us celebrate on that date with a record attendance at the Alumni Banquet at 6:00 p.m. that evening. Especially do we want members of the classes of 1935, 1940, 1945, 1950, 1955, 1960, 1965, 1970, 1975 and 1980 to plan to attend their class reunions earlier in the day. Members of the Golden Anniversary Class (1935) and their spouses will be special guests of the Alumni Association at the banquet.

If you are interested in an alumni rally in your area, please contact our office and we will be happy to help you plan such an event. And be sure to remember us in prayer, especially that the Lord will guide in the matter of selecting a new Director of Alumni Relations. Thank you so much for your faithful support.

Lifestyle Giving

The truth of how God works in the body became real to me recently in an experience I would like to share with you. I received a phone call from one of God’s servants who was being obedient to what God was saying to him. The caller had some money he felt he should be giving to God’s work and was asking God how he should invest it. He shared with me that he had been reading Romans, chapter 10, recently and read for me the passage over the phone.

"For, Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." How then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"'

Romans 10:13-15

My friend said, "When I read how can they preach unless they are sent' the Holy Spirit said Fort Wayne Bible College."

He said, "There is your role in God’s plan, the College is a sending agency." He had not known much about the College before.

After asking me a few questions he decided to give $300 per month to the ministry of the College, and in addition, his employer matches his gift.

As I praised God and rejoiced in this experience I had to think what a beautiful thing God’s provision is. This call came at a particular point of need in my life and the life of the College. God's people committed to carrying out His program is a picture of balance and beauty.

Are you receiving God’s blessing by being faithful to God in the use of your spiritual gifts? Your being obedient to God is a picture of beauty and balance. Don’t miss God’s blessing for you and keep God’s blessing from the church. Praise God!

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

Student Government
Serving the Students

Two years after a new constitution was approved, the Fort Wayne Bible College Student Government is going strong! Just two years ago the Student Government was formed to take the place of the Student Association. The constitutional change has provided for a basis for more effective and cooperative leadership on the FWBC campus through the installation of a Student Senate, which is an organization of all of the campus student leaders.

Student Government continues to provide entertainment and fun for the Bible College students. This year the organization sponsored fall and spring movie series, roller skating, album give-aways, a variety show, monthly coffee houses and a musical comedy concert. Along with the fun that was provided, they also sponsored events to benefit and edify the students as a whole.

Although Student Government enjoys sponsoring activities on campus, entertainment is not the only reason for the existence of the group. Student Government provides a basis by which students can voice their opinions or concerns to the administration. This is often accomplished by proposals that are drawn up and submitted to the administration by Student Government. This lends to a very mature way to adequately communicate with the administration.

Student Government president, Darwin Dunten, shares, "This year's Student Government is still going through the growing pains, but our intentions are strong. In all that we do, we want to bring glory and honor to the Lord."

One of this year's Student Government sponsored activities was a costume rollerskating party!

Phonathon '85

Phones of Fort Wayne Bible College alumni were ringing throughout the United States during the evenings of March 18-21 and March 24-28. The occasion: PHONATHON '85!

During the eight evenings of calling 2505 phone calls were attempted with 1472 calls completed. Specific pledges totaled 663 with unspecified at 138. Over $39,000 was pledged through the mail and during the eight-day PHONATHON.

As of date over $16,000 has been received. The funds will be used for College current operations plus $12,000 will be applied to the alumni scholarship endowment.

The success of PHONATHON '85 is attributed to all of the alumni who took part by making pledges, but also to the over 60 volunteer callers, 20 office workers and those who prayed for prayer requests that were received.

Evelyn Schmidt (att. '39-42) was the top fund raiser for the eight evenings with a total of $4,075. Bill Hull ('69) received pledges totaling $3,495 and Arlan Birkey ('64) raised $2,055. Free meal coupons for area restaurants and free car wash certificates were given to those individuals reaching designated plateaus of funds raised.

The Fort Wayne Bible College Alumni Office extends a sincere thank you to all of you who took part in PHONATHON '85!
Looking Back and Looking Ahead
For Friends of FWBC

The Friends of FWBC give praise to the Lord for the success in 1984-85! The organization's officers are looking ahead for plans for another year.

During the 1984-85 school year provisions were made for a new piano in the President's Dining room and new carpet and furniture to beautify the Dispensary. Also, funds were provided to the FWBC Music Department for the purchase of 40 new classroom chairs and fifteen $150 scholarships were given to selected students. Because of your response these projects were accomplished!

SPRING HOUSEWALK
The Friend's annual Spring Housewalk will take place Friday, April 30, and there is still time to donate crafts, baked goods and nice plants. All donated items should be at the College Switchboard, located in Witmer Hall, by April 29.

During the Spring Housewalk live lovely Fort Wayne homes will be viewed. Profits from the Housewalk will help the organization meet even more needs for Fort Wayne Bible College.

FALL MEETING
There is a change in the usual Friends of FWBC fall meeting. A potluck meeting will be held September 30, at 6:45 p.m., in the College cafeteria. Those in attendance at the meeting will have the opportunity to sign up for helping with the scholarship fund, becoming a prayer partner for FWBC freshmen students, and providing a Survival Kit at $5.00 per semester for your prayer partner or a student of your choice by September 30.

Men and women alike are welcome and urged to participate in the activities of Friends of FWBC . . . whether you live near the College or hundreds of miles away.

Decide to do your part today and let Friends of FWBC know by filling out the coupon below and mailing it to the College. Pray about what the Lord would have you do.

Dr. Anthony Campolo, chairman of the Department of Sociology and Youth Ministries at Eastern College, and renown speaker, was the Bible College's special guest lecturer during the 1985 Staley Distinguished Scholar Lectureships.
"Daddy made my sister and me enjoy learning... he made everything interesting... he made learning an enjoyable experience."

—Dr. Alice Joy Weddle

Many will remember Dr. William Forest Weddle for his intense desire to learn and to teach. Many adjectives have been used to describe the scholar. Adjectives such as determined, respected, dedicated, educator, servant and a man who possessed a zeal for life!

Dr. Weddle was born in East Chicago, Indiana on September 11, 1907, and went to be with the Lord on September 21, 1984, but not before his life had touched the lives of thousands.

IMPORTANCE OF KNOWLEDGE

Raised with the importance of seeking knowledge, both educationally and spiritually, he was always infatuated with learning. A high school experience shared by his daughter, Alice Joy, is just one example for his zeal to learn.

"Sometimes his zest for learning got in the way of common sense. As a high school student he wanted to look at the eclipse of the sun and did so without thinking of protecting his eyes. Because of that one learning experience he caused damage to his eyes and therefore had to read with a magnifying glass."

As a young graduate of South Side High School of Fort Wayne, Dr. Weddle entered the Columbia School of Music in Chicago to study violin. But, because of his continual zeal for learning, he over practiced and became afflicted with neuritis of the shoulder and had to give up his study of the instrument.

It was through this illness that he came to know the Lord and started working at the Fort Wayne Gospel Temple as the assistant pastor from 1931 to 1935. During this time he became very ill with what was thought to be the flu. Many years later it was felt that his illness was really hepatitis which resulted in many physical difficulties encountered during his lifetime.

After serving with the Gospel Temple he pastored for seven years in Columbia City and in the surrounding area. He then returned to the Gospel Temple to teach in the Temple’s Missionary Training School and to serve as Dean for two years.

A SELF-TAUGHT MAN

Some have titled Dr. Weddle a self-taught man. Dr. Weddle was always reading and learning the facets of life for himself. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree just by taking comprehensive tests. He did attend Indiana University to receive his Master’s degree and studied for 12 summers to earn his Doctorate.

His wisdom and desire for education did not go unrecognized. In 1950 he was asked to teach part-time at Fort Wayne Bible College. Then in 1957 he was asked to join the FWBC faculty on a full-time basis. He served with the Bible College right up to his last illness.

In the words of past FWBC president, Dr. Jared Gerig, "Without a doubt, he has been the most versatile teacher in Fort Wayne Bible College history."

Thousands of students sat under his guidance and have benefited from his wisdom and expertise. Church congregations also prospered as a result of his preaching which was always characterized by his love and concern for God’s children. This was very evident by his on-going commitment to the members of the Eastwood Chapel in Fort Wayne as he served as their pastor from 1946 until his death.

THE WEDDLE FAMILY

Dr. Weddle held close to him his family and was often heard speaking fondly of his wife, Thelma, and daughters, Joann and Alice Joy. Alice Joy shares a family tradition that the Weddle family holds dear.

"It was daddy’s tradition to go out Christmas shopping for us as close to Christmas Day as he could. He would usually buy us some type of jewelry since he knew we all enjoyed fine jewelry. He would come home and wrap our gifts in brown paper bags and decorate them in his own special way."

"I believe he knew his time was limited and that he would not be celebrating Christmas 1984 with us. This last time he bought our gifts in June and mother gave them to us at Christmas."

Wherever Dr. Weddle was his wife, Thelma, could be found nearby. Thelma untiringly stood by her husband during his many illnesses, in his classroom instruction and during his church ministry. She was a strong encouragement to him and was often the strength he did not have.

LEAVING A LEGACY

It was Dr. Weddle’s wish to teach right up until his death and that he did. Many times his illnesses did not stop him from coming to the College and instructing his classes. Throughout his teaching career there were times when he could not venture out to the College, but would invite the students to his home and teach them from his bedside. Without a doubt he was a teacher through and through.

Another wish of Dr. Weddle’s was to leave a legacy. He spent hundreds of hours researching and writing books, articles and excerpts for encyclopedias. His commentaries are highly regarded and viewpoints highly respected.

Dr. William Forest Weddle’s ministry, love and zeal for knowledge for learning and teaching will be felt for many generations to come as people read his books and study his notes. As it was written in his memorial, "God’s servant laid his armor down, but his victory will live on."

Yes, he was a self-taught man, a teacher through and through. He is dearly missed!
As a result of the many memorial gifts given in memory of Dr. Weddle by his family, friends and the Eastwood Chapel, a scholarship endowment fund has been established at Fort Wayne Bible College in his memory. The endowment states that the fund was "established in memory of Dr. Weddle's great love for teaching and his concern for the needs of the students he taught."

“Joni” Visits Fort Wayne

Joni Eareckson Tada, paralyzed in a diving accident at the age of 17, later to become a star in a movie of her life, the author of two books, a musical recording artist, host of her own radio program and a renowned artist, visited the Fort Wayne community and touched the lives of thousands!

During her visit she spoke at the Bible College, conducted a seminar focusing on the needs of the handicapped and how the church can meet those needs, visited area hospitals and was guest at a community rally held at the Fort Wayne Memorial Coliseum.

During the rally Joni sang, shared her experiences as a disabled person and had dialogue with her husband, Ken. Also during the rally Joan Mayers, FWBC professor, and Char Binkley, assistant manager of WBCL radio, conducted interviews with area handicapped individuals. Special music was provided by Steve and Maria Gardner and their daughter, Mandy.

Joni’s dynamic ministry began with a tragic and reckless dive into the Chesapeake Bay in June of 1967. As a result, she was paralyzed from the shoulders down without the use of her hands or legs.

Joni’s visit to Fort Wayne was co-sponsored by Fort Wayne Bible College, Radio Station WBCL and “Joni and Friends.”
Honors Given to Basketball Squads

The following honors were given to the varsity basketball teams and individual team members as a result of their worthy performances.

MEN’S BASKETBALL
Ray Hylton was named to the National Christian College Athletic Association Midwest All Regional Team and to the NCCAA Division II All American Team. Ray also was named to the All American Team in 1983-84 and is Fort Wayne Bible College’s first two-time All American.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL
Betty Rychener was selected for the NCCAA Midwest Second All Regional Team.
Lori Hebert and Deb Rodriguez were both named to the NCCAA First All Regional Team.
Deb Rodriguez was selected for the NCCAA Division II All American team. She is the first FWBC female All American.
Coach Deb Rupp was named NCCAA Mideast Region Coach of the Year.

FWBC Women’s Basketball Goes Down in History!

The FWBC women’s varsity basketball squad played the best season of basketball in the history of Fort Wayne Bible College!

Going into tournament play with an undefeated record of 14-0, the lady Falcons finished fourth in the National Christian College Athletic Association Division II. Led by Coach Deb Rupp, the team finished the entire season of play with a stunning record of 15-3. The FWBC team is the only unbeaten team during regular season play in the NCCAA and in the history of FWBC inter-collegiate athletics.

Coach Rupp attributes the success of the season to all 10 team members, who contributed during the season. The top four scorers for the lady Falcons were sophomore Deb Rodriguez (16.6), senior Lori Hebert (13.1), freshman Julie Moser (10.6) and junior Betty Rychener (10.3).

In recognition for Coach Rupp’s outstanding coaching abilities she was named the NCCAA Mideast Region Coach of the Year. She is the first female coach so honored at Fort Wayne Bible College. Also high scorer, Deb Rodriguez, was named to the All Tournament Team and was chosen for the 6-member All American Team.

Coach Rupp is more than pleased with the 1984-85 season and is looking forward to next season when three of her four top scorers will return.

Falcon Soccer Nets Record Season

For five seasons Fort Wayne Bible College has sponsored a varsity soccer program. Each year the schedule has featured tougher opponents and the win-loss record has improved. The 1984 season saw a number of firsts and records set that will certainly be a bench mark for future seasons to strive toward.

Coach Dennis Williams possibly had the most talented team in his five years of coaching at Fort Wayne Bible College. The team’s 16-5 record, District III Championship, and 4th place finish in NCCAA Division II National Tournament play was the best finish in the history of the program.
Assisted by former player, John Hughes, Coach Williams’ team put together a string of impressive wins in the regular season. The team’s only losses came against top ranked Division II opponent, Moody Bible Institute (3-2), and Division I opponents Eastern, PA (3-1), and Huntington (4-1).
After an impressive win over Grace Bible College of Grand Rapids, Ml, for the District III Championships, the Falcons were seeded third in the national tournament to be played in Toccoa Falls, GA. In their first round game, they crushed #6 seeded Piedmont College of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, by a score of 6-1. The next day in semi-final play, they faced the #2 seeded Crimson Eagles of Philadelphia College of Bible, PCB’s defense proved too much for the Falcons that day as they were defeated 4-1. PCB went on to become National champions upsetting top-seeded Moody Bible Institute in the final 2-1. The Falcons faced one more disappointment in the consolation game when they were shut out 1-0 by the host team from Toccoa Falls College.

In spite of some disappointments, there were many more highlights. The team’s success brought special recognition to a number of Falcon players and the coach. Three players were selected to the 1984 All District III Team — freshman striker, Stuart Zurcher; junior striker scoring sensation, Graham West, and sophomore center midfielder, Jim Hughes. For his leadership of the team, Coach Williams was selected District III Coach of the Year. In December Mr. Dean Skinner, Chairman of the All American Selection Committee announced that Falcons’ Graham West and Jim Hughes had been selected as First Team All-American in NCCAA Division II. This represents the first time in school history that a soccer player was voted to First Team honors. West and Hughes had received Second Team or Honorable Mention honors in previous years. Graham West also distinguished himself by scoring 41 goals and 15 assists this season to lead the NCCAA in total scoring. With ten players eligible to return next fall, Coach Williams should have the nucleus to develop another fine team.
