

Taylor University

Pillars at Taylor University

---

2017 Website News Stories

Website News Stories

---

10-25-2017

Traveling South African Art Exhibit Comes to Taylor Next Week

Taylor University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://pillars.taylor.edu/webnews-2017>

---

Traveling South African Art Exhibit Comes to Taylor Next Week

PUBLISHED: Oct 25, 2017 9 am

45

A traveling South African art exhibit will be hosted on the Taylor University campus beginning next week. Between the Shadow & the Light, will be displayed in the Metcalf Gallery of the Modelle Metcalf Art Building on the Taylor campus from November 1-December 8.

Featured artists Margaret Allotey-Pappoe, Keith Barker, and Jo-Ann VanReeuwyk will attend a reception and present an artist's panel discussion on Friday, November 10. The scheduled events for the day include:

5–6:45 pm Reception with the artists in Metcalf Gallery featuring African-themed food and music by the Jungle Cats Jazz Combo

6:45–7:45 pm Artist Panel Discussion with Q&A in the Butz-Carruth Recital Hall

7:45–9 pm Reception Continues back in the Metcalf Gallery

For additional information, visit: <https://metcalfgallery.com/between-the-shadow-the-light/>

To bring a group, or to arrange a guided tour, contact the Art Office: 765-998-5322, or visualarts@taylor.edu.

The Metcalf Gallery hours are: 8 am–5 pm, Monday–Friday.