Alumni Day Plans
Alumni Secretary Named

This year’s Alumni Day promises to be one of the most interesting and unusual yet planned.

Warren Lewis, '52, Alumni Day General Chairman and the Planning Committee have outlined a unique program in keeping with the intriguing theme, “The Dimensions of Man.”

Returning alumni will have the rare opportunity to hear a forum discussion on the various dimensions of man—physical, mental, emotional and spiritual and their relationships.

Dealing with this fascinating subject will be a panel consisting of a clinical psychologist, a medical doctor, who is versed in the use of hypnosis for medical purposes, and a minister, with Dr. Charles W. Shilling, '23, serving as moderator.

The guest psychologist is Dr. John Vayhinger, '37, Professor of Pastoral Psychology and Counseling at Garrett Biblical Institute. The medical doctor is M. Arthur Grant, '42, President of the Alumni Association. The minister is yet to be named.

The audience will have opportunity to submit questions to the panel during the program. Ministers, educators, physicians, youth workers and counselors will find this program of particular interest and value.

The Rev. Richard Bishop, '41, formerly of Seattle, Washington, and now located in Chicago, has been named Master of Ceremonies for the banquet.

The “Alumnus of the Year” ceremonies will take place following the forum, when the identity of the celebrity will be revealed and a medallion and plaque will be presented by President B. Joseph Martin.

Classes with graduation anniversaries dating back at five year intervals from 1960, such as '55, '50, '45, '40, etc., will be observing their reunions in the dining hall during the noon hour and also will be recognized at the banquet. All those expecting to attend their reunions are requested to indicate this on the reservation blank on page 10.

ALUMNI DAY RESERVATION BLANK, PAGE 10
The college is pleased to announce the appointment of the Rev. Edward W. Bruerd, x'41, as Alumni Executive Secretary. He will also have responsibility for enlarging the wills and bequests program of the college.

Mr. Bruerd, an official of the Willard Chitty Organization, which specializes in church fund raising, is currently Executive Director of the Peoria, Illinois Christian School.

He has served one term as a missionary in India, where he was principal of the Allahabad Bible Seminary. While there, he directed the first Youth for Christ meeting in India.

For two years he was State Director of Youth Guidance in West Virginia, working in the Juvenile Courts and the State Industrial Schools.

Also, for two years he was Director of Public Relations for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Films and was responsible for the premier showings of each new film in major cities in the United States and Canada.

The Bruerd's have three children, Mary Jo, a freshman at Taylor, Charles, and Maravene.

Mr. Bruerd succeeds Will Cleveland, '49, who, after four years, assumes the post of Director of Publicity. (See below.)

"GROWING PAINS"

For the past few years, Taylor has had growing pains. Enrollment has increased greatly and many innovations in the academic and public relations programs have necessitated changes in personnel and organizational structure.

Four years ago, when the combined office of Alumni Secretary and Assistant Director of Public Relations was created, I assumed that office.

Today the college has more alumni, a more complex alumni fund organization, and the need for a strong wills and bequests program.

In addition, the need for a comprehensive publicity program is placing greater demands upon the Public Relations Department. As a result, the college is making the position of Alumni Executive Secretary a separate office and has created a new position, that of Director of Publicity.

Since I have been serving in both areas during the past four years, the administration afforded me the choice of either office. I have chosen the publicity work with the conviction that I can serve the college best in this area. This work will dovetail to a considerable extent with the alumni program, in that I will continue to edit the Alumni Magazine, assist in the Alumni Fund program and serve ex-officio on the Alumni Board.

We welcome Rev. Bruerd to the organization as Alumni Secretary and Wills and Bequests Officer to help make the alumni program an even greater force in the ongoing ministry of Taylor University.

Will Cleveland, Editor
ECHO WINS FIVE STATE AWARDS

The Taylor student newspaper, the Echo, received five awards at the Indiana Intercollegiate Press Convention held recently at Ball State Teachers College, Muncie.

The Echo received first place for its sports section and honorable mentions for best feature section, best feature pictures, best news pictures, and best campus news coverage.

In each of the divisions judged, only one first place and not more than two honorable mentions were awarded.

Further Recognition

Taylor also received another distinction. Ray Bachman, Associate Editor of the Echo, and a junior from La Grange, Indiana, was elected First Vice-President of the Intercollegiate Press Association.

Publications from twenty Indiana colleges and universities were entered in the contest.

Editor of the Echo is James Terhune, junior from Knightstown, Ind.

Proposed Amendments to Alumni Constitution By-Laws

The following are proposed changes in the by-laws of the Alumni constitution to be voted upon at the annual business meeting of the Alumni Association, June 10, 1960. If passed, these resolutions are to become effective July 1, 1961.

1. "The Taylor University Alumni Association shall elect one person each year to serve on the Board of Trustees of Taylor University for a five year term. The person so elected to this position shall not succeed himself in office, but may be renominated after one year has elapsed. He may, however, be retained as a member on the Board of Trustees, by election of that body."

2. "Members of the Taylor University Alumni Association Board of Directors shall not serve more than two consecutive terms. They may be renominated after one year out of office."

Under the present ruling, there is no limit to the number of successive terms which an alumnus may serve either on the Alumni Board of Directors or on the Board of Trustees of the college, as the representative of the Alumni Association.

A FABLE

Once upon a time, there was a small company in the business of producing a fine custom-made product. The company had assets of nearly $2,000,000, an outstanding group of employees, and a wise board of directors. This was good.

Through long years of building up its assets and improving its product, the company gained an excellent reputation. Its product was in great demand. In recent years, in fact, demand far surpassed the company's capacity. This also was good.

But, this fine little company was run in a most curious way—financially, that is. It deliberately sold its product below cost! The board of directors liked this arrangement because it meant more people could afford to buy the product.

To ordinary people the company gave an automatic discount of about 1/3 off cost price. But this discount, generous as it was, still resulted in a price too high for a lot of deserving potential customers. So, the board authorized additional discounts for some of the most deserving customers. On top of that, they offered easy credit terms to good customers, and some were even given jobs in the factory.

No wonder the product was in such great demand.

Taking into account all discounts, the company actually collected from customers about 55¢ for each dollar’s worth of product it produced. This was good for the customer but bad for the company. Something had to be done to keep the company solvent.

So, the board of directors decided to ask the company’s former satisfied customers to give money. They did. (After all, they had bought the product at a discount, too) Then, the board asked businessmen whose companies made a profit to give. They did. Some other people who just happened to be rich were also asked to give. And they did. Still, there was not enough money to keep the company running. So, the directors themselves gave a lot more money.

You would never expect a company could keep going on this way year after year, but this one did—more than 114 years. As a matter of fact, it’s still going strong, still producing an excellent product, still selling it below cost, and still relying upon its directors, businessmen, rich people, and former satisfied customers to help pay the bills.

Moral: It’s time for you to write your annual check to the Taylor University Alumni Fund, if you haven’t already done so.

Our Goal: 50% participation (1,500 donors) and $50,000 by June 30.

Large Methodist Church in Indiana needs a man or woman to assume the position of Director of Christian Education.

Dr. William D. Green, Dean of Students, is announcing that several staff positions are now open at Taylor University for the 1960-61 college year. Mr. William Kendall, who has served as head resident counselor of men, is leaving for seminary. An applicant for his position must be a college graduate, master's preferred, and have some experience in working with people. Some graduate work may be taken at nearby Ball State while employed. Mrs. William Kendall has been Dr. Green's secretary for four years. A person with typing and shorthand skills is needed to replace her.

Mrs. Donald Goette will be leaving with her husband to continue in graduate work at Indiana University. Mrs. Goette has been assistant head resident for women and assistant nurse. A registered or practical nurse would be welcome but an applicant need not be a registered nurse nor work in the health center in order to be acceptable. A college graduate is preferred but this is not mandatory for the assistantship in the women's area. A secretary for the personnel staff is also needed for the college year. Mrs. Gilbert Dilley will be leaving with her husband for Asbury Seminary.

Each of these people has meant much to Taylor. We cannot stand in the way of additional training and new fields of service but we regret losing each of them. Should you be interested in any of the positions vacated, or know of someone who qualifies, please contact the dean of students.
