Methodist Evangelist at Spiritual Emphasis Week

Rev. Gene M. Hamby of Florence, Alabama will be guest speaker for the second semester Spiritual Emphasis Week between Tuesday, Jan. 30 and Friday, Feb. 2. He will speak at both 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services in Founders Chapel. Everyone is invited.

Mr. Hamby has been a general evangelist in the Methodist Church for 34 years. He has preached in over 60 countries and on all continents of the world except Australia.

It has been estimated that over 100,000 people have come to Christ through his ministry and over 20,000 have been taken into church membership.

Mr. Hamby says that some of his aims for the coming campaign at F.W.B.C. include:

- Reaching the unsaved, reclaiming backsliders.
- Every believer filled with the Holy Spirit.
- Every student fully prepared for Christian service and for the second advent of our Lord.
- Every student fully aware of and alert to his personal responsibility for souls both at home and in the foreign fields.
- Every student fully settled regarding his life's call.
- Every student who so desires will be given a personal interview with Mr. Hamby.

He says, "I am looking forward with great anticipation and much prayer to the campaign there."

Those in communities surrounding Fort Wayne are urged to come and hear this dynamic speaker. The college will appreciate any announcements given by pastors in the area.

FWBC Keeps CHRISTmas

Capitalizing on community efforts to “Keep Christ in Christmas,” Fort Wayne Bible College has presented the Gospel story in many ways besides the normal methods of sending out young people to churches through Christian service assignments.

Dr. Rene Frank’s oratorio, “And God Came” was tape recorded for radio and television. It was presented almost in its entirety over WOWO on the regular broadcast of “Adventures in the Arts” at 9 p.m. Sunday, December 17. Then, WANE-TV presented the first half on television on Thursday, December 21, at 10:30 p.m. on its public service program, “Vista 62.”

At the Christ Child Festival, December 1-3, a 26 foot long display was acclaimed by many as the best constructed. Made by Walter King, Harlan Wright with the assistance of Bob Eichar and Grant Hoatson, this Christmas scene accentuated the global ministry of the College. The Bible was dramatically spotlighted in the foreground, and the purpose of Christ’s coming was spelled out clearly in the words, “He came to die.”

In the days immediately preceding Christmas the Crossroads Ensemble members were heard throughout the day over WOWO with a clear Christian testimony followed by a seldom-heard Christmas carol emphasizing the redemptive mission of Christ.

The college is happy to be a part of these efforts to make Christ known, and has tried to be found “redeeming the time, because the days are evil.”
The Tomorrow of the New Year

We have once again come up against the tomorrow of another New Year. Our attitude toward a new year is seldom characterized by indifference. It is the time of weighing the future. It is the time of envisionment. While we “know not what a day may bring forth,” we are human enough to take into accounting the possibilities for a whole new year.

A splendid text for the New Year could well be, “Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow God will do wonders among you.” What will 1962 bring to the Christian? The uncertainty of things in the world causes us to tread softly, and we refuse to rush in, but we can be confident that the tomorrow of 1962 will have in it some “wonders” for the children of God. In view of such possibilities, God’s people ought to sanctify themselves. This is the preparation for any supernatural demonstration of grace. It means a purging from sin; it means obedience to divine leadership; it means a forward move by faith; it means assured victory over every foe.

With such preparation will come expectation. It is true that the tomorrows belong to the children of God. Faith always lays hold of the promises of God for the future, and expectancy, vision and hopefulness are the very compliment of it. “Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow....” Let us thus prepare for the glorious tomorrow of the New Year ahead, a year when God will do wonders.

Preparation, expectation, realization, this is the divine order. Realization is described as “wonders among you.” We sincerely pray that the year ahead will bring the wonder of soul-stirring revival in the body of Christ, and that world conditions may right themselves to the end that the Gospel can once more go forth unhindered. Then men shall believe on Christ out of every kindred, tongue, people, and tribe. Such wonders as these are due for emphatic fulfillment. What thrilling wonder, too, that 1962 may become the year of His glorious appearing. We are conscious that “the night is far spent; the day is at hand.” As we face all the realities that the year may bring, let us do it in the spirit of one who wrote:

I see not a step before me
As I tread on another year,
But the past is still in God’s keeping,
The future His mercy shall clear;
And what looks dark in the distance
Will brighten as I draw near.

The Bible College Family wishes you a bright and blessed New Year filled with the “wonders” of God’s grace and goodness.

A.A.B.C. Workshop Planned

The Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges has selected F.W.B.C. as the host college for a regional workshop February 9-10. Bible institutes and colleges from Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Ohio will meet to consider the problems and issues that have emerged out of recent significant research on the Christian Education programs in Bible colleges.

The workshops are intended for all Bible college educators, and especially for academic deans and chairmen of the C.E. departments, curriculum committee members and Christian service directors. Dr. Herbert Byrne, Dean of Education, will be chairman of the workshop at F.W.B.C.

Philharmonic String Quartet

The Fort Wayne Philharmonic String Quartet will present a classical concert on Saturday, February 17 at 8 p.m. in Founders Memorial Auditorium. There will be no admission charge for this Guest Artist Series performance, but an offering will be received to help defray expenses.

First organized in 1945, the String Quartet is now directed by the famed concert-master of the Philharmonic, Hugo Gottesmann, former concert-master with the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra and member of the Busch String Quartet. The principal second violinist is Ernest Zala of Hungary who has played with the Philharmonic for many years. Argentina born Oscar Lysy has been with the Quartet for two seasons. Last season he played principal second, but this year is violist. A newcomer this season is cellist Douglas Marsh of Michigan, the only native born American in this internationally flavored String Quartet.

The Quartet will play two beautiful, melodious works; one recently re-discovered quartet by the Spanish genius Arilaga, a contemporary of Beethoven, who died at the age of 20. The other composition is by the contemporary American, Samuel Barber.
