TAYLOR ANNOUNCES FIFTH ANNUAL YOUTH CONFERENCE

MARCH 11, 12, 13

MILO REDIGER — Chairman

And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks unto God and the Father by him. — Col. 3:17.

This is an expression of the sentiment of our desires as we undertake the work of the Fifth Interdenominational Youth Conference. In previous years there has been manifested a wide interest and we rejoice indeed in the work of salvation that God has done. But this fifth conference is a new responsibility affording a wonderful opportunity. God wants young men and young women but, more than that, youth needs God. And as the Gospel message goes out during the sessions of this conference, we earnestly hope, pray, and expect that souls will be saved, hearts be made pure, and lives given for service in the Kingdom of God.

— Milo Rediger

Registration — A registration fee of twenty-five cents must be paid by all attending the Conference. Application may be made to Robert Haines — Registrar.

Prayer — We solicit your earnest prayers that we might make the Conference what God expects. Come expecting great things of Him!

Music — Inspirational periods of group singing and special instrumental and vocal numbers.

Important Items Regarding Youth Conference

Time: The program opens Friday evening, March 11, at 7 o'clock with a young peoples fellowship hour. There will be three general mass meetings each day and at least two discussion and conference groups for the entire group. The closing meeting will be Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Place — Maytag Gymnasium, Taylor University, Upland, Indiana.

Accommodations — Meals will be served in the College Dining Hall at a minimum price of five meals for one dollar and twenty-five cents. For those coming too great a distance to return at night, accommodations will be furnished in the College Dormitory at the rate of twenty-five cents per night. Mattresses will be provided on the beds and whatever else is desired must be furnished by the guests themselves.

Purpose — The purpose of the Youth's Conference is to inspire the youth of our day to live for God and to let the Holy Spirit have complete control of their lives. Vital questions of the youth will be answered in the discussion groups. It is the aim of the Conference to challenge the youth and to send them back to their churches with a ringing testimony to the saving power of Christ and with the power of the Holy Spirit to find their places in the World Mission of Jesus Christ.

Limitations — Due to the limited facilities, the number for whom we can provide lodging at the Conference must be limited to 500. The first ones to mail their registration blanks with twenty-five cents will be assured of a place. The age qualifica-

HAZEL BUTZ, — Co-Chairman

Standing almost at the threshold of our fifth youth's conference we rejoice in the knowledge that our Lord is the same yesterday, today, and forever. For four years Taylor has seen the Christ of Calvary meet the vital needs and satisfy the yearnings of the souls of young people gathered on her campus for Youth Conference. He is still able, young man, young woman, to make our lives pure, purposeful, powerful, and pleasing in His sight. To youth of today He offers the only complete salvation and the greatest challenge that we can find anywhere. Christ yearns to free every youth from the fetters of sin, to make each life a reflection of Himself and a blessing to the world. His challenge comes through His Word and through the plight of every one who has missed God's way. Christ needs every inch of our manhood and womanhood. We need Christ in us which is the hope of glory.

— Hazel Butz

tion is fifteen years of age or over. Chaperonage is requested for every group of ten or less. Groups desiring to room together should designate with whom they wish to room and how many in the group. As far as possible this will be followed out in our planning of rooms.

Squibs from the President's Desk Concerning Some of Our Alumni

"The enclosed is tithe money for Taylor. . . . I feel that my tithe money should go directly to Taylor's work. You understand, don't you, that this is not an indication of great wealth, but just the payment to the Lord of what I consider a regular due, just as my commutation ticket every month, only I enjoy this."
—Crosby DeWolfe, class of 1937.

Miss Ruth E. Bowers is teaching at Beulah College, Upland, California. She took her junior college work at Beulah College and is a graduate of Taylor University, class of 1930. In addition, she took one year of upper division Bible at Beulah College. For two years she taught successfully at Jabbok Bible School, Thomas, Okla. Miss Bowers' subtly charming personality endears her to her pupils and adds to her effectiveness as a teacher.

Rev. W. O. Moulton, class of 1921, of Ferndale, Michigan, was a recent visitor on the campus and gave a splendid Chapel address.

Dr. John C. Bugher, graduate of Taylor in 1921, has recently resigned his professorship at the University of Michigan to accept a position in the laboratory of the international health division of the Rockefeller Foundation. Dr. and Mrs. Bugher, in January, will go to Colombia, South America, for three years research on various phases of yellow fever.

We have some beautiful effective new reels of active campus life this year that alumni groups and other friends may use for their meetings if they will get in touch with the office of Taylor University.

Our alumni and friends will be interested in this tremendous thrill that Harold Kendrick of the class of '23, describes:

"How I wish you could have been with me. The weather was perfect, and the woods and hills were beautiful in the drab of late fall, their leaves of summer making a noisy carpet upon which to steal while hunting deer. The air was bracing and at night after a day of hiking one laid down to sweet rest. It would have been a delightful tonic and change for you. We are just now eating the fellow, having allowed the meat to "ripen" over a week. It would be a real pleasure for us to have you sit down with us this noon and eat a venison tenderloin steak. (My! I wish I could.) However we are canning the bulk of the meat, so if you are out this way within a reasonable period you shall have some of this choice game.

HAROLD KENDRICK and

"While as you say this was a feast, yet I hasten to add that good fortune smiled on me, as on every deerslayer. Many say that success here is 95 per cent luck, for these creatures are so elusive in season that it is only through a lucky break that a hunter gets a shot. Well I know, for I hunted all last season and four and one-half days this season and never got a shot. Thus at noon on the fifth day I returned disheartedly to a farm house after that morning having kicked out in the woods the ninth deer and never to get a shot. But lo while waiting in the kitchen before sitting down to eat I happened to look out the window and there was a buck crossing the road and open fields 500 feet away! I grabbed my gun and dashed out behind the woodshed and when he crossed and was directly in front I fired and missed. He loped on and I fired again and missed. He then disappeared around the end of a long knoll running cross-wise of the field. Though thinking he had vanished for the nearby woods I beat the world's record for a hundred yard dash and pulled up at the opposite end of that knoll and peeped over. There to my amazement I saw the deer not vanishing towards the woods to his right but actually moving away slowly bearing towards his left and me.

Winded and exhausted I somehow aimed once more and at the crack of the rifle I saw a grey form suddenly drop to the ground and his white belly come up as he lay writhing in the grass! Believe me, Dr. Stuart, that was the most intense emotional moment of my life. I was actually dazed as well as awakened. Thinking he might get up and run I tried to go forward but my legs were gone, and twice I fell prostrate on my face running the gun barrel into the ground. By then I saw he was still flat on the ground and knew that I had at last connected with one of those fleeting shadows, and had stopped him.

"However, more important than hunting news is the report you make about the condition of the school. How pleased we are. Indeed we pray for dear old Taylor, and know that there is a wonderful spirit of unity and fellowship in Christ on the campus. We are proud to be members of the Foundation and are trying to interest others."

Taylor Will Be Host of Holiness Convention

National Holiness Convention will be held on Taylor's Campus April 19 to 24. All the old friends and alumni plan to be back and enjoy the season.

DR. A. E. DAY

Dr. Albert E. Day has lately gone to be pastor of the great First Methodist Episcopal Church of Pasadena, California. Dr. Day graduated in the class of '04.

In a recent letter to Dr. Stuart, he stated: "You are very kind in your gracious word of welcome and good wishes. I do think that this is going to be the best pastorate of my life. I feel that God has called me here for a very definite purpose. Of course, I shall always be grateful for what Taylor gave me when as a callow but eager and earnest youth I came to its campus. I shall never forget Professor Ayres and Professor Schilling and Miss McLaughlin and Dr. Reade who gave me such sympathetic friendship during those formative years."

The Taylor University family is praying that it may be one of the greatest pastorates of his life.

If you have been a member of the William Taylor Foundation, have you sent in your ten dollars or more for this year?

If you are not a member of the William Taylor Foundation, surely you can spare at least ten dollars a year to assist the good cause here at Taylor University.

Think back to the contribution that Taylor University has made in your own life, in culture, in academic training, and in spiritual inspiration. Surely Taylor is worthy of your support.

The Way to Pentecost

Excerpt from a letter to Dr. Stuart written by a pastor in one of the Western Conferences:

"I have just finished reading the first chapter of The Way to Pentecost and I want to say that already I have felt the tears of joy and gladness and of promise flow anew. Converted under the power of the Holy Spirit through God's Word, Regeneration cries for nothing less than Sanctification under the power of the Holy Spirit through God's Word. I see it as I have never seen it but as I have ever prayed that I might see it. God is good, pray that I may minister as one who knows Him not only through Justification but through Regeneration unto deliverance from that law in my members that brings only defeat where victory is hoped for. I am glad and thankful for this book which leads me anew to a definite faith that God for Christ's sake does now sanctify me."

This book is proving a blessing both to preachers and laymen. In lots of five they are fifty cents a copy. Single copies are seventy-five cents.

For above books write to Taylor University Book Store.

When he was in school, he won first place in this debate and wishes it again to be an event of the school year. It is the wish of Dr. Turbeville that the contestants should represent the Thalonian and Philalethean Literary Societies as in former years. The alumni will be mighty happy that Dr. Turbeville has revived this debate.

Pulpit Contest Offers Large Prize To Winner

C. LYLE THOMAS

This year there will be a twenty-five dollar prize given to the best preacher who enters this oratorical contest. The conditions set forth by C. Lyle Thomas, Pres. of the Class of '33, winner of a similar contest at Drew Seminary, and son of the originator of the contest, are as follows:

1. Those eligible shall be seniors in the undergraduate school, who are graduating the same year as the prize is given.

2. Each participant shall be judged on the basis of content, excellence of style, and the delivery.

3. The Committee of Judges shall include the President of the University; the head of the Speech Department; the head of the English Department; and any other members that the President should think necessary.

4. The prize is to be called the "Elizabeth Conquest Prize in Pulpit Oratory and Manner."

TAYLOR'S ANSWER

Dr. D. Forney Hutchinson, pastor of the Boston Ave. M. E. Church, South at Tulsa, Oklahoma, when speaking at the Indiana Conference in Indianapolis, said: "The modern church can't have a revival because:

1. It doesn't pray.
2. It doesn't feel.
3. It doesn't expect.
4. It doesn't bear witness."

Taylor University's answer to this striking statement by this great pastor is that Taylor does pray; Taylor does feel, and does expect and does bear witness and, as a result God is sending us a revival and helping us to lead scores of souls to Christ each month of the year.

Taylor University

An effective Christian College

Taylor University is recognized as a Standard College of Liberal Arts by the State Board of Education of Indiana.

Young people seeking enlargement and enrichment of life and personality for its own sake or for greater and more efficient service wherever they may be called to serve, will find opportunity here in class room, in the extra-curricular activities, and in the general life of the school, for the realization of these ideals.

Taylor University is located on one of the most beautiful campuses in the country, with splendidly equipped modern buildings, has a capacity for 500 selected students.

Evaluations of Short Term Bible Course, 1937

"If I could weigh the eternal truth and help received from the four short weeks spent in 'Short Course,' I am sure the balances would show that my spiritual thermometer, zeal, and inspiration has increased. The knowledge of Christ and His Word has challenged me to a more intimate walk with Him.

"I have deeply appreciated the efforts of Dr. Huffman and his co-workers in helping me to discover new nuggets of truth. I trust it will be seed which will bring forth a harvest for the Master."

Mildred M. Hamm
South Dakota.

"My dear Dr. Huffman:

"I wish to express to you my sincere appreciation of the "Bible Short Courses" held during the month of February, which I attended.

"It has been a real pleasure and a great blessing to be instructed by Christian Teachers who believe the Bible and teach it as the inspired word of God. My mind has been enlightened and my faith strengthened.

"Taylor University is one great family where God is supreme."

Yours in His glad service,
