Alumni Day & Seniors' Extravaganza August 27 & 28

We're expecting more than 200 alumni from around the United States to attend the Fort Wayne Alumni Day & Seniors' Extravaganza August 27 and 28, 2010. Have you registered yet? We would love to see more of you come for these exciting days of singing, inspirational preaching and fellowship.

We have extended the registration deadline to Monday, August 23 at 8:30 a.m. EST. After that time we are not able to guarantee that we will be able to accommodate additional guests for the dinner program.

Here are some common questions we've been asked:

Is the Alumni Day and Seniors' Extravaganza only for those 60+? No, all who appreciate traditional music, quartets, trios or just want to fellowship with Fort Wayne alumni are welcome. You will be encouraged and inspired!

When is Dr. Wes Gerig speaking? He is speaking at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, August 27 in the First Missionary Church sanctuary, 701 W. Rudisill Blvd.

Is this event just for those in the Missionary Church? No, all are invited! We are working closely with the Missionary Church to host this event.

Where Are They Now?

Professors and staff have come and gone through the years from the Fort Wayne campus. Have you ever wondered where they landed or what they are doing today? Soon, on our revised website, <http://fw.taylor.edu>, Nathan Marchand g06, will be featuring several of these professors and staff members one every week or two. Let us know at alumnifw@taylor.edu if you have someone you would like Nathan to find.
